CROSSROADS PODCAST

Peace on Earth: Caring for the Earth God Gave Us (Premiering mid-April)
Peace and justice is God's plan for all creation. Have you ever thought of earth care as peacemaking? In preparation for Earth Day, we'll chat with Colleen Earp about what all this means and how we can strive to care for God's earth. Colleen Earp is the Associate Director of Outdoor Ministry at Camp Hanover in Virginia.

COFFEE HOUR

Sunday, April 4 • 12 pm (ET)

Join us for Zoom Coffee Hour at 12 pm. Connect with familiar faces and meet new friends as we bring the corner of Fifth Avenue & 55th Street to you. Register online or if you're interested in dialing in via phone, please email community@fapc.org.

CREDO

Sunday, April 11 • 7 pm (ET)

The Gospel of Mark

Our Annual CREDO Series begins with the Gospel of Mark, the oldest and shortest of the four Gospels. Morgan Valencia King will lead us on a journey through this fascinating book and how it helped to shape our understanding of the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. Register online.

Sunday, April 18 • 7 pm (ET)

The Gospel of Matthew

The Gospel of Matthew was likely written for a Jewish audience, evidenced by the genealogy of Jesus at the beginning of the book, the introduction of the idea of Jesus as Messiah, and the reiteration of prophecies throughout the book. We will join The Rev. Kate Dunn on an exploration of the Gospel of Matthew. Register online.

Sunday, April 25 • 7 pm (ET)

The Gospel of Luke

Filled with parables unique just to the book of Luke, this is the only book where we read the stories of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son. The Rev. Werner Ramirez will guide us through the longest of the four Gospels. Register online.

CROSSROADS PODCAST

Three Years In: A look at a New Worshipping Community in NYC

(Premiering mid-May)

More than three years ago, The Rev. Chris Romine was brought to Fifth Avenue Presbyterian as our Mustard Seed Pastor with the hopes of drawing people to God through a New Worshipping Community. Today, Common Ground NYC is a space for spiritual exiles and folks seeking to deconstruct and decolonize their faith. We'll chat with Chris about these last three years as organizing pastor at Common Ground NYC and his hope for the future of church in New York City.

CREDO

Sunday, May 2 • 7 pm (ET)

The Gospel of John

The Gospel of John is the fourth and final Canonical Gospel. Using nine “I AM” statements, John explores less of what Jesus did and more of who Jesus is. The Rev. Dr. Scott Black Johnston will lead us through the book of John, helping us understand the importance of this Gospel. Register online.

EMPLOYMENT ADVISORY

Where Does Your Resume Go after You Send It?

We spend much of our time in the job market preparing our presentation and the audience to whom we need to present most consistently is recruiters. Join us for a panel of those on the inside and learn how our efforts are received. The panel will talk about how recruiters see the materials applicants send in, what their overall view of the job market is and examples of different successful strategies. Register here.

OUTREACH

Wednesday, May 12 • 6 pm (ET)

God in the Dirt

Meet Fifth Avenue's newest Mission Partner, The Farminary, and learn how intimacy with soil, seasons, and Sabbath teaches us more of who God is and more of who we are as God's creatures. The journey leads to many places: the discovery of new companions, the recognition of great responsibility, and the possibility of extraordinary joy. Farminary Director Nathan Stucky will lead us in this discussion. Register online.

JUNE

BOOK CLUB

Thursdays, June 3, 10, 17 & 24 • 6-7 pm (ET)

Caste: The Origins of Our Discontent

Join us as we read and discuss the bestseller Caste: The Origins of Our Discontent by Isabel Wilkerson. Whether you've had the title on your list of books to read or you're just curious, we'd love to have you along for the journey! To sign up, email community@fapc.org.

ADULT ED + OUTREACH

Sunday, June 6 • 7 pm (ET)

Leading by Example: Why Representative Leadership Matters

Three of Fifth Avenue's mission partners are led by individuals who identify as LGBTQ+, and these organizations offer programming that values inclusion of LGBTQ+ individuals within Christian contexts, spaces, and communities. Join us for a virtual conversation with Bryan Breault (Holmes Presbyterian Camp and Retreat Center), Marian Edmonds-Allen (Parity), and Edafe Okporo (RDJ Refugee Shelter). We'll explore their stories from faith journey and identity to a sense of Call and leadership. Register online or for information about how to telephone into the program, email community@fapc.org.
