

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

JANUARY 28, 2018 • 11:00 AM

Odilon Redon, Silence, 1900

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your welcome packet or in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. We also have illustrated Bibles for children to use during the service. You may return these materials to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/pray.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park Monday–Friday from 5 pm –12 am, or anytime until 1 am on Saturday, Sunday and holidays (12 hours maximum). Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street entrance.

Visit Us During the Week

The Sanctuary, Kirkland Chapel and Columbarium are open seven days a week for prayer and reflection. See the building hours listed on the back of the bulletin.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ANTHEM

Children's Choir & Youth

It Is Good • Natalie Sleeth (1930–1992)

It is good to give thanks unto thee,
 O Lord, for the bountiful blessings that all can see.
 It is good to give thanks unto thee.

It is good to sing praise to thy name,
 O Lord, to declare to the people thy steadfast love.
 It is good to sing praise to thy name.

For thou, O Lord, with a mighty hand
 Hath blessed thy creatures through the land.
 Now let hymns and anthems in chorus sound,
 To re-echo all around.

It is good to rejoice and be glad,
 O Lord, and to tell of thy glory forevermore.
 It is good to rejoice and be glad.

Children (pre-K through third grade) are invited to the front of the Sanctuary to depart for Children's Church. If this is your child's first time in Children's Church, please fill out the purple label in the pew rack and affix to your child's back.

LITANY OF PARTING

Congregation: May God be with you there.

Children: May God be with you here.

ANTHEM

The Lord Is Mindful • Emma Lou Diemer (b. 1927)

But the Lord is mindful of his own,
He remembers his children.
Bow down before him, ye mighty,
For the Lord is near us.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Isaiah 62

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have posted sentinels; all day and all night they shall never be silent. You who remind the Lord, take no rest, and give him no rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it renowned throughout the earth. The Lord has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm: I will not again give your grain to be food for your enemies, and foreigners shall not drink the wine for which you have labored; but those who garner it shall eat it and praise the Lord, and those who gather it shall drink it in my holy courts.

Go through, go through the gates, prepare the way for the people; build up, build up the highway, clear it of stones, lift up an ensign over the peoples. The Lord has proclaimed to the end of the earth: Say to daughter Zion, "See, your salvation comes; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him." They shall be called, "The Holy People, The Redeemed of the Lord"; and you shall be called, "Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken."

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

"The Silence Breakers"

The Rev. Dr. Charlene Han Powell

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

1 Corinthians 13:4-7, 12-13

Love is patient; love is kind;
love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude.
It does not insist on its own way;
it is not irritable or resentful;
it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth.
It bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things.
For now we see in a mirror, dimly,
but then we will see face to face.
Now I know only in part;
then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known.
And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three;
and the greatest of these is love. Amen.

* HYMN 769

WORSHIP NOTES

Emma Lou Diemer was born and raised in Kansas City, Missouri, where she began playing the piano and composing at a very early age. (At 13, she became the organist of her home church!) A graduate of Yale and Eastman, Dr. Diemer studied with Paul Hindemith, Howard Hanson and Roger Sessions. Over the course of her career, she has received many awards, including Fulbright and Ford Foundation grants. The versatility of her compositions, particularly her choral works, have made her one of the most widely performed American composers of the last century. Her setting of “The Lord is Mindful,” this morning’s Anthem, was composed in 1979.

The Offertory Anthem, “What Does the Lord Require of You?”, was written in 2005 by Mark Miller. Miller currently serves as assistant professor of church music at Drew Theological School and is a lecturer in the practice of sacred music at Yale University. He is also the minister of music at Christ Church in Summit, New Jersey. Miller’s memorable setting of this famous reading from Micah playfully combines two primary musical inspirations: the African American gospel tradition, and the Baroque contrapuntal style of J.S. Bach.

Have You Registered for the Chili Cook-Off?

Our first-ever, all-FAPC Chili Cook-Off is happening next Sunday (Feb. 4), and it's not too late to enter! So far we have entries from Meals on Heels (arguably the team to beat), Arts & Our Faith, and a number of families and other teams. Rules of entry and online registration are at fapc.org/chili. Or you can pick up a paper form at the reception desk. If you're not a cook, but you love chili, join us next Sunday at 12:30 pm in Bonnell Hall. Your $10 admission includes cornbread, beverages and a vote in the competition. All proceeds go to the Souper Bowl of Caring, the youth-led movement to combat hunger in local communities.

Next Sunday: Souper Bowl of Caring

In addition to the Chili Cook-Off, you can also support our youth's annual Souper Bowl of Caring campaign by dropping your contributions in the collection buckets you will see next Sunday. Members of our Youth Group will be on hand following both services to accept your donations. Thank you for your generosity!

Tonight: Bowery Mission

Our newest associate pastor, the Rev. Werner Ramirez, preaches tonight and Jeanne Lehman French provides special music at the Bowery Mission, our mission partner on the Lower East Side. Fifth Avenue volunteers lead worship and serve dinner to mission residents and guests on the fourth Sunday of the month, an outreach ministry that is now in its fifth decade. New participants are always welcome! Worship begins at 5 pm. Directions are available at the reception desk and at fapc.org/bowery.

Schedule Change: 'My Christianity' Is Set for Next Sunday

The second part of our Adult Education series on World Christianity, originally scheduled for today, will take place next Sunday (Feb. 4). Executive Pastor Charlene Han Powell leads "My Christianity: A Genealogy," a hands-on workshop that will guide you in writing your personal statement of faith. Join Charlene next Sunday at 9:30 am pm in Corning Logan Room.

GETTING CONNECTED @FAPC

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all, with no registration required. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org/learning.

Community Groups

Community groups provide opportunities for intimate fellowship within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s/30s, 30s/40s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBT community. Many groups meet on Sunday mornings, and others during the week. Learn more (and find the group that's right for you) at fapc.org/community-groups. Contact: communitygroups@fapc.org.
