

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT
FEBRUARY 25, 2018 • 11:00 AM

M.C. Escher, Drawing Hands, 1948

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your welcome packet or in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. We also have illustrated Bibles for children to use during the service. You may return these materials to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/pray.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park Monday–Friday from 5 pm –12 am, or anytime until 1 am on Saturday, Sunday and holidays (12 hours maximum). Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street entrance.

Visit Us During the Week

The Sanctuary, Kirkland Chapel and Columbarium are open seven days a week for prayer and reflection. See the building hours listed on the back of the bulletin.

ANTHEM

The Call • Kenneth Jennings (b. 1925)

Text by George Herbert (1593–1633)

Come my Way, my Truth, my Life:
Such a Way, as gives us breath;
Such a Truth, as ends all strife;
Such a Life, as killeth death.

Come, my Light, my Feast, my Strength:
Such a Light, as shows a feast;
Such a Feast, as mends in length;
Such a Strength, as makes his guest.

Come, my Joy, my Love, my Heart:
Such a Joy, as none can move;
Such a Love, as none can part;
Such a Heart, as joys in love.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Proverbs 30:1-4

The words of Agur son of Jakeh. An oracle.

Thus says the man: I am weary, O God,

I am weary, O God. How can I prevail?

Surely I am too stupid to be human;

I do not have human understanding.

I have not learned wisdom,

nor have I knowledge of the holy ones.

Who has ascended to heaven and come down?

Who has gathered the wind in the hollow of the hand?

Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment?

Who has established all the ends of the earth?

What is the person's name?
And what is the name of the person's child?
Surely you know!

Philippians 1:9-11

And this is my prayer, that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight to help you to determine what is best, so that in the day of Christ you may be pure and blameless, having produced the harvest of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Proverbs 4:6-9

Do not forsake wisdom, and she will keep you;
love her, and she will guard you.
The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom,
and whatever else you get, get insight.
Prize her highly, and she will exalt you;
she will honor you if you embrace her.
She will place on your head a fair garland;
she will bestow on you a beautiful crown. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Bring us, O Lord God • William H. Harris (1883–1973)
Text by John Donne (1572–1631)

Bring us, O Lord God, at our last awakening
Into the house and gate of heaven,
To enter into that gate and dwell in that house,
Where there shall be no darkness nor dazzling,
But one equal light;
No noise nor silence, but one equal music;
No fears nor hopes, but one equal possession;
No ends nor beginnings, but one equal eternity:
In the habitation of thy glory and dominion,
World without end. Amen.

Hymn 606

WORSHIP NOTES

The Anthem is a beautiful setting of the famous poem “The Call,” by the English poet and cleric George Herbert. Herbert wrote devotional verse throughout his life, but only after his death in 1633 were his poems published. Referring to his poetry in the ancient tradition as “song,” Herbert used simple and common words, conversational speech rhythms, musical imagery, and witty, unexpected metaphors. His titles are short, sometimes direct, sometimes enigmatic, such as “Discipline,” “Prayer” and “The Pulley.” In his poetry, Herbert explores his vision of Christian life, “a picture of the many spiritual conflicts that have passed betwixt God and my soul.” Today, critics consider Herbert to be (as one wrote) “one of the purest and most ravishing of English poets.” This morning’s setting is by Kenneth Jennings, who was for many years the conductor of the St. Olaf Choir and professor emeritus of St. Olaf College.

The Offertory Anthem is one of several famous pieces for double choir composed by the great English choral composer William Harris. Harris was professor of organ and harmony at the Royal College of Music from 1921 until 1955; he also became organist at St. George’s Chapel, Windsor, in 1933 and directed the music for the coronation ceremony of King George VI in 1937, as well as for Queen Elizabeth II’s coronation in 1953. Bring us, O Lord God was composed rather late in Harris’ career, in 1959. Scored for double choir a cappella, the piece is a beautiful setting of a religious poem by John Donne. Harris’ musical language is evocative and spacious, and together with Donne’s mystical text, paints a radiant picture of heaven. The piece builds to a grand, resplendent climax on the words, ‘World without end,’ but the most intimate and reflective music is saved for the transcendental concluding ‘Amens.’

The organ music was composed by the great French organist and composer César Franck, organist at the church of Ste. Clotilde in Paris for over 30 years beginning in 1838. Toward the end of his life, Franck wrote three major organ works, his masterpieces for the instrument, which he called chorales. This morning’s Prelude, Chorale no. 3 in A minor, is one of Franck’s most dramatic pieces. It opens with an arresting toccata figuration inspired by Bach’s Prelude in A minor, BWV 543, which Franck quickly contrasts with a lyrical, hymn-like theme. The middle section of the piece features one of the most beautiful Romantic melodies in the organ repertoire, which is paired powerfully with the opening toccata figuration to bring the piece to a thrilling close.

Pièce héroïque (“Heroic Piece”) was written just over a decade before the Chorales. The final piece in a set of three, the Trois pièces were composed in 1878 to inaugurate the new organ at the Trocadero in Paris. Like the Chorale in A minor, it is also composed in three main sections—an opening section with march-like accompaniment of two major themes gives way to a soft, lyrical section in the middle. The exhilarating buildup to the finale reintroduces the themes from the opening, and the piece closes with a dramatic fortissimo statement of the middle lyrical section on the full organ.

Next Sunday • Third Sunday in Lent • Confirmation Sunday

"What Do We Know... About Demons?" • Mark 5:1-20

The Rev. Dr. Scott Black Johnston, preaching.

Today: The Meaning Behind How We Worship

You may be very familiar with what we do in worship week after week. But do you know why we do what we do? What is the history, what is the deeper meaning behind our rituals and liturgies? Today Dr. Sally Brown, professor of preaching and worship at Princeton Theological Seminary, begins a two-part series on Presbyterian worship. We invite you to join her at 12:30 pm in the Corning Logan Room as she explores the theological underpinnings of what we say, do and see in worship week after week. This class concludes next Sunday (March 4).

Today: Staged Reading of ‘The Vigil’

Theatre Fellowship is excited to present, as a special Lenten event, a staged reading of Ladislav Fodor’s The Vigil, this afternoon at 2 pm in Jones Auditorium. The play reimagines the Easter story as a contemporary courtroom allegory, set between Good Friday and Easter, in which a gardener is accused of stealing the body of Jesus from his tomb. Witnesses include Saul of Tarsus, Joseph of Arimathea, Pontius Pilate and Mary Magdalene. Many familiar faces from the congregation are taking part in this provocative presentation, which will be performed free of charge.

Tonight: Confirmands at the Bowery Mission

Seminarian Delphine Conzelmann and members of the 2018 Confirmation Class lead worship and serve dinner during our monthly ministry at the Bowery Mission this evening. New participants are always welcome! Please arrive by 4:45 pm for worship, which begins at 5. Directions are available at the reception desk and at fapc.org/bowery.

Next Sunday Is Confirmation Sunday

Next week seven of our youth will be confirmed at Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Under the leadership of Associate Pastor Werner Ramirez, they have journeyed together for six weeks, learning vital knowledge about the Christian faith. They have also put their faith into action, including tonight’s ministry at the Bowery Mission and a retreat at Princeton Theological Seminary, where they learned about sustainable agriculture. On Tuesday (Feb. 27), they will be examined by the Session, their final step in the process. Please join us at the 11 am service next Sunday (March 4) to celebrate our confirmands and welcome them as full members of our congregation!

Wednesday: City Club Explores NYC History

City Club, a community club for members and friends ages 40+, invites you to a morning visit of the Museum of the City of New York on Wednesday (Feb. 28). Enjoy a half-hour film and a self-tour, followed by an optional Dutch-treat lunch in the museum café. Plan to meet Jan Smith in the lobby (Fifth Avenue at 103rd Street) promptly at 10:45 am. Cost is $20 for adults and $14 for seniors, and reservations are necessary. RSVP to Jan (212.945.9167, jansmith380@aol.com).

Support Fifth Avenue through AmazonSmile

Now you can support your church through everyday purchases. AmazonSmile (smile.amazon.com) offers the same merchandise as its parent site, amazon.com. There’s just one difference: Designate Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church as your preferred charity, and AmazonSmile will remit a portion of your spending to the church. Thank you!
