

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 29, 2018 • 11:00 AM

John August Swanson, The Procession, ©2010

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. (The ushers can also provide one.) Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome! The ushers can provide a worship bag or children’s Bible to keep your child engaged. If you need to step out to attend to your child, we invite you to use our Family Room, located at the north end of the Gallery, just outside the Sanctuary (check the map on the back of the bulletin for the location). We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm, downstairs in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org/grow.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/pray.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park Monday–Friday from 5 pm –12 am, or anytime until 1 am on Saturday, Sunday and holidays (12 hours maximum). Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street entrance.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

*As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.
Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.*

* CALL TO CONFESSION

The Rev. Kate Dunn

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

ANTHEM

Locus iste a Deo factus est • Anton Bruckner (1824–1896)

*Locus iste a Deo factus est, This place was made by God,
Inaestimabile sacramentum, A priceless mystery;
Irreprehensibilis est. It is without reproof.*

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Colossians 3:1-14

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life.

But now you must get rid of all such things—anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Antiphon from Five Mystical Songs
Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872–1958)
Text by George Herbert (1593–1633)

Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!
The heavens are not too high, his praise may thither fly,
The earth is not too low, his praises there may grow.
Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!

Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!
The church with psalms must shout, no door can keep them out;
But, above all, the heart must bear the longest part.
Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!

* DOXOLOGY

Hymn 606

* OFFERTORY PRAYER

* HYMN 317

In Christ There Is No East or West

* BENEDICTION

Please remain in your pew until the conclusion of the Choral Response.

* CHORAL RESPONSE

Christ, Whose Glory Fills the Skies • Keith Bissell (1912–1992)
Text by Charles Wesley (1707–1788)

Christ, whose glory fills the skies,
Christ, the true, the only Light,
Sun of righteousness, arise,
Triumph o'er the shades of night;
Dayspring from on high, be near;
Daystar, in my heart appear.

POSTLUDE

Cuatro Piezas para la Misa: IV. Allegro • José Lidon

The ministry of music this morning is offered by:
The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir
Dr. Ryan Jackson, William S. Perper Director of Music and Fine Arts Ministries
Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist

WORSHIP NOTES

The composer of this morning's Anthem, Anton Bruckner, was born in 1824 in the northern Austrian town of Ansfelden. His father was a schoolteacher and church organist, and Bruckner began studying the organ, piano and music theory at an early age. He became the cathedral organist at St. Florian in 1848 and began composing sacred music around the same time. In 1855, he went to Vienna to formally study harmony and counterpoint at the Vienna Conservatory, becoming the cathedral organist in Linz a year later. At the same time, Bruckner studied orchestration with Otto Kitzler, a cellist who introduced him to Wagner's operas. Wagner's music ended up having an enormous influence on Bruckner, particularly in his symphonic work. He completed his formal studies in 1861, and began to make a name for himself as a composer and an improviser at the organ. He moved to Vienna in 1868 to take appointments as the emperor's court organist and to take over as professor of harmony and counterpoint at the Vienna Conservatory.

On his own, Bruckner assiduously studied the music of Renaissance Italian polyphonic masters such as Palestrina, as well as German Baroque composers, especially J.S. Bach. These diverse elements are brought together, along with the boldly Romantic aesthetic inherited from Wagner, in Bruckner's sacred motets. Perhaps the most famous of these, the gradual Locus iste, is often sung during services for the dedication of a church. This four-part setting was composed in 1869 to celebrate the dedication of the votive chapel of the cathedral at Linz.

The Offertory Anthem was composed by Ralph Vaughan Williams, a leading figure in 20th-century music who wrote extensively in all genres. Williams, an English composer, conductor and organist, also made an important contribution to sacred music as the editor of The English Hymnal, which was published in 1906 and is still in use today.

Next Sunday • Sixth Sunday of Easter • Volunteer Recognition Sunday

“What Do We Know... About Mission?” • John 15:1-5

The Rev. Kate Dunn, preaching.

Today: Jeremiah Was a Prophet (Was a Good Friend of Mine)

Associate Pastor Kate Dunn leads part three of our CREDO series with a study of the Prophet Jeremiah. Her class begins at 12:30 pm in the Corning Logan Room. Our four-week exploration of the Hebrew prophets finishes next Sunday (May 6) with Scott Black Johnston and Ezekiel.

Today: Final Performance of ‘The Game’s Afoot’

Theatre Fellowship’s production of Ken Ludwig’s comedy-whodunit, The Game’s Afoot, or Holmes for the Holidays, concludes its run with a 2 pm performance in Jones Auditorium. This is your last chance to enjoy this delightful production, produced by our own Lucy Cabrera and featuring Fifth Avenue veterans Janet Luhrs and Joscelyne Wilmouth among the exceptional cast. Tickets ($25 general admission, $35 reserved) are available in the Gallery and at the door.

Today: Children’s Choir Concert

The FAPC Children’s Choir and Youth present “It Is Good to Give Thanks,” a selection of their greatest hits from the 2017–18 program year, at 1 pm today in Kirkland Chapel. Some of our young performers also will demonstrate their musical and theatrical talents through dancing, acting, storytelling and instrumental performances. The concert is free and open to all. A reception follows in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center.

New Exhibit: Welcoming the Stranger

We invite you to view a new historical exhibit in the Chesnut Gallery. Welcoming the Stranger documents the church’s long, rich history of assisting refugees and ministering to immigrant communities in New York City. It was compiled by Jessica Carmona, a member of the Task Force on the Faithful Engagement of Immigrant, Refugee and Sanctuary Issues, with assistance from Dale Hansen and Judy Moseley in the church archives. The exhibit, co-sponsored by the Arts & Our Faith Committee, will remain on view through June 15.

Saturday Is FAPC Serves! Have You Signed Up?

FAPC Serves, our all-congregation day of service, is just six days away! It’s not too late to join one of our eight work teams, which will be doing projects here at the church and across the city next Saturday (May 5). Choose your project and sign up at fapc.org/fapc-serves by Tuesday (May 1). We’ll start the day with a hearty breakfast at 8 am Saturday in the Christian Education Center. We hope to see you there!

Saturday: Sacred Sites Open House

Next weekend the New York Landmarks Conservancy hosts its eighth annual Sacred Sites Open House, with churches and other religious institutions around the state opening their doors for tours and events. On Saturday (May 5), Fifth Avenue will be open from 11 am until 3 pm, with docent-led tours and demonstrations of our Sanctuary organ. See the day’s schedule at fapc.org/events. This is a wonderful opportunity to show off your church and our music ministry to family and friends!

The Return of Randy Weber!

Our associate pastor emeritus the Rev. Randy Weber returns to Fifth Avenue on Sunday, June 3. Randy will be our guest preacher that morning and will greet the members of the Legacy Circle at their annual luncheon that afternoon. If you would like to welcome Randy and Cindy over wine and hors d’oeuvres, the fellowship group CouplesPlus! will host a reception in Bonnell Hall on Friday, June 1, starting at 6 pm. Tickets are $35 per person. Please RSVP by May 25 to couplesplus@fapc.org.

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all, with no registration required. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org/learning.

Community Groups

Community groups provide opportunities for intimate fellowship within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s/30s, 30s/40s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBT community. Many groups meet on Sunday mornings, and others during the week. Learn more (and find the group that's right for you) at fapc.org/community-groups. Contact: communitygroups@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our community) are going through a difficult time, contact us. Our Deacons, members of A Circle of Caregiving and Congregational Care staff are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/pray. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

Congregational Life

Hospitality and service are core values of the Christian tradition. If you want to be among the welcoming faces of the church, we welcome your participation! We offer numerous opportunities to serve the congregation, including the Archives, Coffee Hour, Sunday School, Ushers and Greeters, Visitors Table and more. To learn more about ways you can get involved, contact: congregationallife@fapc.org.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, FAPC-U (our college ministry), Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org/grow. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Membership

Our new members classes provide an introduction to Christianity, the Presbyterian tradition and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. We welcome new members into the congregation during worship on the following Sunday. We also recognize long-term members with an annual reception, while the Legacy Circle honors those who have remembered the church in their wills and planned giving. Find out more about membership at fapc.org/members. Contact: membership@fapc.org.

Music

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church is home to a versatile program of arts in worship that endeavors to uplift, inspire, challenge and comfort all who encounter it, and to provide opportunities to share our wealth of artistic gifts. In addition to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir and the Chamber Choir, we offer the FAPC Community Choir, an entry-level ensemble for those who would like to learn more about singing and music in general. The Community Choir meets on Thursday evenings for rehearsal and fellowship. Find out how you can get involved at fapc.org/music. Contact: music@fapc.org.

Outreach & Mission Partners

Our Outreach programs rely on volunteers to serve the homeless and the homebound, the elderly and the underserved. The David B. Skinner Shelter operates 365 nights a year and is entirely volunteer-run. Meals on Heels meets every Saturday to prepare and deliver home-cooked meals to homebound neighbors. Other volunteer programs happen monthly or during special seasons of the year. FAPC Serves—our citywide, all-congregation day of service—takes place on a Saturday in the spring. Information on our volunteer programs and upcoming opportunities to serve are available online. Visit fapc.org/volunteer to sign up and serve.

We offer many volunteer opportunities through our mission partners:

| | | |
|--------------------------|-----------------------------|---------------------------------|
| The Bowery Mission | Jan Hus Presbyterian Church | Operation Exodus |
| The Bridge | & Neighborhood House | Parity |
| Church of Gethsemane | Ministry of Hope – Lesotho | Presbyterian Senior Services |

Learn more about our mission partners at fapc.org/mission-partners. Contact: outreach@fapc.org.

Ushers & Greeters

Ushers and greeters are needed every Sunday and for special services (such as weddings and memorial services). Volunteers typically serve one Sunday every five weeks. Training is provided. Contact: ushers@fapc.org.

Women's Association

The Women's Association invites the women (and men!) of the congregation to our program of education, service, prayer and benevolence. Our Tuesday luncheons ($15, Bonnell Hall), featuring guest speakers and entertainment, are open to all. Our programs are listed every Sunday in the bulletin's Calendar of Events. Contact: wassoc@fapc.org.

Young Adults

NEXT Ministries is a diverse group of curious, adventurous people who are centered in our faith. We offer a number of programs to make you feel at home—our Sunday afternoon discussion group, service projects, social events, retreats and more. Join us! We're online at fapc.org/NEXT and on Instagram @nextatfapc. Contact: nextministries@fapc.org.
