

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

TRINITY SUNDAY

MAY 27, 2018 • 10:00 AM

Margie Thompson, Dance of the Trinity

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. (The ushers can also provide one.) Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome! The ushers can provide a worship bag or children’s Bible to keep your child engaged. If you need to step out to attend to your child, we invite you to use our Family Room, located at the north end of the Gallery, just outside the Sanctuary (check the map on the back of the bulletin for the location). We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm, downstairs in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org/grow.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/pray.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park Monday–Friday from 5 pm –12 am, or anytime until 1 am on Saturday, Sunday and holidays (12 hours maximum). Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street entrance.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

POSTLUDE Fugue in E-flat major ("St. Anne"), BWV 552 • J.S. Bach

Dr. Ryan Jackson, William S. Perper Director of Music and Fine Arts Ministries

WORSHIP NOTES

Today is Trinity Sunday, the day when Christians acknowledge and celebrate the doctrine of the Trinity, or the three persons of God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Trinity Sunday has been celebrated in the Western Church on the first Sunday after Pentecost since the 13th century. Some reference to the Trinity is made in nearly all the musical selections this morning, from the triune “Holy, Holy, Holy” of the opening hymn and Mendelssohn’s Heilig, to the many references to Father, Son and Holy Spirit in the Gloria setting by Jonathan Dove, to the Trinitarian musical symbolism embedded throughout Bach’s Prelude and Fugue in E-flat major.

The Offertory Anthem is the Gloria from Jonathan Dove’s Missa Brevis (Short Mass), a work commissioned by the Cathedral Organists’ Association in the U.K. Missa Brevis was premiered by the choir of Wells Cathedral in 2009 and chosen for the BBC’s Christmas Day worship broadcast that year. Since then Missa Brevis has become one of the most popular contemporary settings of the Mass, and has been performed in countless services throughout the world. The Gloria is characteristic of Dove’s distinctive minimalist style, featuring catchy rhythmic motives, ingenious thematic prolongation, and captivating interplay between the choir and organ.

J.S. Bach’s monumental Prelude and Fugue in E-flat major is one of the great masterpieces for organ. The prelude is composed in what is known as the French overture style, a Baroque genre consisting of two contrasting musical ideas: a grand section with snappy, dotted rhythms, followed by a section of quickly-moving fugal material. This musical form was created in the 1650s by the famous French Baroque opera composer Jean-Baptiste Lully; incredibly popular, it came to be widely imitated throughout Europe. Bach, the greatest stylistic synthesizer, employed the French overture style often, especially in the opening movements of his instrumental suites. In this morning’s prelude, Bach creates a powerful sense of unity by alternating between the grand and fugal sections throughout. He brings the piece to a triumphant and decisive conclusion by repeating the opening material at the end, a technique in musical composition known as “recapitulation.”

The stunning fugue is nicknamed “St. Anne” because its primary subject bears a strong resemblance to the hymn tune by that name, known to most of us as “Our God, Our Help in Ages Past.” Written at the height of Bach’s compositional powers, this fugue is an incredibly expressive feat of musical ingenuity. It is composed in three major sections, the first of which is in the stile antico, or “old style.” In Bach’s time, composers sometimes evoked musical styles of previous generations, especially late-Renaissance choral music by composers such as Palestrina. The old style is characterized by strict counterpoint and lines that are vocal in nature. This old-fashioned exposition gives way to a second section that introduces faster, more elaborate material in what is known as the stile moderno, or “modern style.” The musical lines in this section are much more florid and instrumental in character—one would be hard-pressed to sing them! In the third section of the fugue, these two seemingly contrasting styles are brought together in a brilliant synthesis. The old is merged with the new in a statement of musical cohesion and unity that continues to inspire, centuries after its composition.
