

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

OCTOBER 28, 2018 • 11:00 AM

Ishmael and Isaac bury Abraham from the 1728 Figures de la Bible; illustrated by Gerard Hoet (1648–1733)

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. (The ushers can also provide one.) Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome! The ushers can provide a worship bag or children’s Bible to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) If you need to step out to attend to your child, we invite you to use our Family Room, located at the north end of the Gallery, just outside the Sanctuary (check the map on the back of the bulletin for the location). We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm, downstairs in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org/grow.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/pray.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park Monday–Friday from 5 pm –12 am, or anytime until 1 am on Saturday, Sunday and holidays (12 hours maximum). Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street entrance.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ANTHEM

Nunc dimittis • Paweł Łukaszewski (b. 1968)

Text: Luke 2:29-32

Nunc dimittis servum tuum, Domine,

Secundum verbum tuum in pace:

Quia viderunt oculi mei salutare tuum

Quod parasti ante faciem omnium populorum:

Lumen ad revelationem gentium,

Et gloriam plebis tuae Israel.

Now dismiss your servant, Lord,

In peace, according to your word:

For my own eyes have seen your salvation,

Which you have prepared in the sight of all the peoples:

A light to reveal you to the nations,

And the glory of your people Israel.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Genesis 25:7-10

This is the length of Abraham's life, one hundred seventy-five years. Abraham breathed his last and died in a good old age, an old man and full of years, and was gathered to his people. His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hittite, east of Mamre, the field that Abraham purchased from the Hittites. There Abraham was buried, with his wife Sarah.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Scott Black Johnston

“Ishmael Buries”

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from The Confession of 1967

To be reconciled to God

is to be sent into the world as God's reconciling community.

This community, the church universal,

is entrusted with God's message of reconciliation and shares God's labor of healing the enmities which separate people from God and from each other.

Christ has called the church to this mission and given it the gift of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Today: Would You Help Our Youth Ministry Project?

Our Log College Project Design Team has been hard at work on the first task of our three-year project in innovative youth ministry (the focus of our recent grant from Princeton Theological Seminary and the Lilly Endowment). We have been researching Fifth Avenue's history of innovation and youth, and we are ready to share our findings. After the 11 am service today, we invite you to view the historical timeline in Kirkland Chapel and answer some brief questions about the future of youth ministry in this church.

Today: Auntie Mame Comes to Fifth Avenue

Theatre Fellowship invites you to a staged reading of the comedy classic Auntie Mame, by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee, at 2 pm in Jones Auditorium. The play—about a madcap socialite whose life changes forever when she takes in her orphaned nephew—was the basis for an Oscar-nominated film and Tony-winning musical. Today's readings is presented free of charge.

Tomorrow: Reimagine End of Life

Tomorrow evening (Oct. 29) religious leaders from three traditions (including Senior Pastor Black Johnston) will discuss their faith's practices, traditions and theological understanding of the end of life. Central Synagogue (East 55th Street and Lexington Avenue) hosts this interfaith panel, which also includes Senior Rabbi Angela Buchdahl and Tahara Akmal, director of clinical pastoral education at the Reading Hospital School of Health Sciences in Reading, Pennsylvania. This event begins at 7 pm and is free of charge. It is part of "Reimagine End of Life," a week-long, community-wide exploration of death and celebration of life through creativity and conversation. More information and a schedule events are at letsreimagine.org.

The Bazaar is open on Thursday and Friday (Nov. 1–2) from 10 am until 5 pm, with bargains to be had in men's and women's clothing, jewelry and accessories, artwork and gifts. On Thursday (Nov. 1), another evening of Cooking with Shelter Guests gets underway at 5:30 pm in Bonnell Hall, with supper and fellowship in the Shelter at 7:30. Both events provide a good introduction to our Shelter ministry. We are in need of additional Shelter hosts for early evening and overnight shifts. GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all, with no registration required. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org/learning.

Community Life

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church offers an array of opportunities for community fellowship. We gather for congregation-wide events (such as Homecoming and the traditional Thanksgiving luncheon) several times a year. Community groups offer an opportunity for more intimate engagement within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s+30s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Our social clubs—City Club, CouplesPlus! and the Fifth Avenue Fellowship Club—gather for dinners and cocktail parties, museum and theater outings, and other social events throughout the year. Learn more about all of these opportunities at fapc.org/community. Contact: communitylife@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/pray. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, FAPC-U (our college ministry), Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org/grow. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Membership

Our new members classes provide an introduction to Christianity and the Presbyterian tradition. The Believing and Belonging class provides an orientation to Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. We welcome new members into the congregation on the Sunday following the Believing and Belonging class. Learn more about membership, including the schedule of upcoming classes, at fapc.org/members. Contact: membership@fapc.org.

Mission Partners

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church supports a diverse group of mission partners whose missions and ministries align closely with our own. We invite you to get to know them:

In addition to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir and Chamber Choir, we offer the FAPC Community Choir, an entry-level ensemble that meets on Thursday evenings for rehearsal and fellowship. Contact: music@fapc.org. Our Theatre Fellowship offers a mainstage production every spring, and staged readings, a cabaret and other events during the year. Contact: theatre@fapc.org. Volunteering Volunteering is one of the most important ways we show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, host in the David B. Skinner Shelter, prepare and deliver meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, lead tours for members and visitors, and work with the underserved of New York City. To learn more about our diverse volunteer opportunities, and how you can join in, visit fapc.org/volunteer or email volunteer@fapc.org.

Women's Association

The Women's Association invites the women (and men!) of the congregation to our program of education, service, prayer and benevolence.
