

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

EPIPHANY OF THE LORD
JANUARY 6, 2019 • 11:00 AM

Magi Meeting King Herod, Mosaic, Santa Maria Maggiore, Rome, c. 440

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. (The ushers can also provide one.) Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome! The ushers can provide a worship bag or children’s Bible to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) If you need to step out to attend to your child, we invite you to use our Family Room, located at the north end of the Gallery, just outside the Sanctuary (check the map on the back of the bulletin for the location). We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm, downstairs in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/prayers-of-the-people.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

*As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.
Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.*

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Elder Marc Lovci

Isaiah 60:1-3

One: Darkness shall cover the earth,
and thick darkness all people,

All: But God's light will rise over us,
and God's glory will appear before us.

One: Arise, shine, for your light has come!

All: The glory of God has risen upon us!

One: This is the truth of Epiphany.

All: The light of God has come to dwell with us.

One: People from every nation will be drawn to the light of God.

All: Leaders from every nation will be drawn to the light of God.

One: Hearts and minds will be changed.
We will all be changed.

All: We will learn to reflect God's light in every shadowed corner of this world.

* HYMN 150

As with Gladness Men of Old

* CALL TO CONFESSION

The Rev. Werner Ramirez

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

ANTHEM

The Three Kings • Jonathan Dove (b. 1959)
Text by Dorothy L. Sayers (1893–1957)

The first king was very young,
O balow, balow la lay,
With doleful ballads on his tongue,
O balow, balow la lay,
He came bearing a branch of myrrh
Than which no gall is bitterer,
O balow, balow la lay,
Gifts for a baby King, O.

The second king was a man in prime,
O balow, balow la lay,
The solemn priest of a solemn time,
O balow, balow la lay,
With eyes downcast and reverent feet
He brought his incense sad and sweet,

*O balow, balow la lay,
Gifts for a baby King, O.*

The third king was very old,
O balow, balow la lay,
Both his hands were full of gold,
O balow, balow la lay,
Many a gaud and glittering toy,
Baubles brave for a baby boy,
O balow, balow la lay,
Gifts for a baby King, O.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Matthew 2:1-18

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'" Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage."

When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him." Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt, and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, "Out of Egypt I have called my son."

When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, he was infuriated, and he sent and killed all the children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had learned from the wise men. Then was fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah: "A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be consoled, because they are no more."

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Scott Black Johnston

“Let’s Talk About Church and State”

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from Declaration of Faith, Presbyterian Church US, 1977

Throughout its history, the Church has struggled to be faithful to God in political situations:
under persecution,
or as an established arm of the state,
or in separation from it.

God rules over both political and religious institutions.

We must confuse neither with the kingdom of God.

We must not equate the Christian faith with any nation’s way of life or with opposition to the ideologies of other nations.

We hold Christians are to be law-abiding citizens unless the state commands them to disobey God, or claims authority that belongs only to God.

We must not allow governments to impose Christian faith by legislation, nor should we demand undue advantages for the Church.

The Church must be free to speak to civil authorities, neither claiming expert knowledge it does not have,
nor remaining silent when God’s Word is clear. Amen.

A Patre Unigenitus (“The Only-begotten of the Father”)
Carl Rütli (b. 1949), Text: Anonymous, 15th century, adapted and translated by Hugh Keyte and Andrew Parrott

A Patre Unigenitus (The Only-begotten of the Father)
Is through a maiden come to us.

Sing we of him and say “Welcome!
Veni Redemptor gentium (Come, Redeemer of the nations).”

Agnoscat omne seculum (Let every age perceive [that])
A bright star made three kings to come
Him for to seek with their presents,
Verbum supernum prodiens (The high Word forthcoming).

A solis ortus cardine (From the rising of the sun)
So mighty a lord is none as he,
And to our kind he hath him knit,
Adam parens quod polluit (Which our father Adam defiled).

Make we joy now in this fest
In quo Christus natus est (In which Christ is born).
Make we joy now in this fest
In quo Christus natus est.

Maria ventre concepit (Mary conceived in her womb),
The Holy Ghost was aye her with.
In her in Bethl'em born he is,
Consors Paterni luminis (Sharing in the light of his Father).

Make we joy now in this fest
In quo Christus natus est (In which Christ is born).
Make we joy now in this fest
In quo Christus natus est.

O Lux beata Trinitas (O Light of the Holy Trinity!)
He lay between an ox and ass,
Beside his mother, maiden free:
Gloria tibi Domine (Glory to thee, O Lord)!

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Holy God, we praise you. Let the heavens be joyful, and the earth be glad.
We bless you for creating the whole world, for your promises to your people Israel, and for Jesus Christ, in whom your fullness dwells.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of the Bless - ed is he who comes in the pow - er and might, Heav'n and earth are name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Born of Mary, he shares our life. Eating with sinners, he welcomes us.
 Guiding his children, he leads us. Visiting the sick, he heals us.
 Dying on the cross, he saves us. Rising from the dead, he gives new life.
 Living with you, he prays for us. Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died; Christ is ris - en; Christ will come a - gain.
 Christ has died; Christ is ris - en; Christ will come a - gain.

With thanksgiving we take this bread and this cup and proclaim the death and resurrection of our Lord.
 Receive our sacrifice of praise.
 Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us, that this meal may be a communion in the body and blood of our Lord.
 Make us one with Christ and with all who share this feast.
 Unite us in faith, encourage us with hope, inspire us to love,
 that we may serve as your faithful disciples until we feast at your table in glory.
 We praise you, eternal God, through Christ your Word made flesh, in the holy and life-giving Spirit, now and forever.

A - men, a - men, a - - - men.

COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

COMMUNION ANTHEM

There Shall a Star Come Out of Jacob, from Christus Felix Mendelssohn (1809–1847), Text: Matthew 2:1-2; Numbers 24:17

When Jesus, our Lord, was born in Bethlehem,
in the land of Judea;
Behold, from the east to the city of Jerusalem
there came wise men, and said:
“Say, where is he born, the King of Judea?
For we have seen his star, and are come to adore him.”
There shall a star come out of Jacob,
And a scepter shall rise out of Israel,
With might destroying princes and cities.
As bright the star of morning gleams,
So Jesus sheddeth glorious beams of light and consolation.
Thy Word O Lord, radiance darting,
Truth imparting, gives salvation;
Thine be praise and adoration!

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

* CHORAL RESPONSE

May the Blessing of God Be upon You • William H.M. Wright
Text by R. Gordon Nodwell

May the blessing of God be upon you.
May God's love light all your way.
May the grace of Christ enfold you and peace around you stay.
May the Spirit of God dwell within you.
May you live in joy each day.

POSTLUDE

In dir ist freude (“In Thee is Gladness”), BWV 615
J.S. Bach (1685–1750)

The ministry of music this morning is offered by The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir
Dr. Ryan Jackson, William S. Perper Director of Music and Fine Arts Ministries
Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist • Elyse Kakacek, Soprano
Trio: Wilson Nichols • Alex Guerrero • Clayton Brown

WORSHIP NOTES

The choral and organ music this morning was chosen to mark of the feast of Epiphany, officially celebrated today as we conclude the 12 days of Christmas. Epiphany is the time when Christians remember the Wise Men (sometimes called the Three Kings) who visited Jesus in his infancy.

Both the Prelude and the Communion Anthem feature one of the oldest and most famous Epiphany hymns, Wie schön leuchtet der Morgenstern ("How Brightly Shines the Morning Star"). The hymn was composed by Philipp Nicolai in 1597. Buxtehude's variations on the tune are playful and colorful, allowing the organist to show off many lighter colors in the organ. Mendelssohn includes the entire first verse of the hymn toward the end of There Shall a Star Come Out of Jacob, which is the opening chorus of his unfinished oratorio on the life of Jesus, Christus.

The Anthem, Jonathan Dove's The Three Kings, is a wonderful and evocative piece for a cappella choir composed in 2004. In his introductory note to the piece, Dove writes, "Dorothy L. Sayers' poem The Three Kings was suggested to me as a carol text by Stephen Cleobury [director of music at King's College, Cambridge]. Sayers achieves a surprising emotional power and mystery by portraying the youngest king, the nearest to childhood, as the saddest, bringing a gift of myrrh which anticipates Christ's passion and death; it is the oldest king, nearest to the grave, who brings golden toys. I have tried to catch this surprise in the music: the first two verses are simple and ballad like, while the third verse suddenly opens up like a treasure chest of twinkling gold."

The Rev. Werner Ramirez, preaching.

Starting Today: The Next America, a Winter Sermon Series

This morning Senior Pastor Scott Black Johnston begins a new, eight-week sermon series, The Next America. From now until Lent, our preachers will confront some of the most pressing challenges of our time, from gun violence and addiction to immigration and climate change. The intent is not to take sides in partisan battles, but to equip us as Christians with a faith-based, Scripturally grounded understanding of contemporary social issues. Read more about this series at fapc.org.

Today: Working with People Experiencing Homelessness

Adult Education returns this afternoon with an inside look at our outreach ministry with New Yorkers living on the streets. John Sheehan, director of our Ecumenical Outreach Partnership (with Saint Thomas Fifth Avenue and St. Patrick's Cathedral) will discuss the model of trauma-informed care that underlies our homeless ministry. This class begins at 12:30 pm in the Corning Logan Room.

Ready to Become a Member?

If one of your New Year's resolutions is to get more involved in church, we've got good news: our membership classes return this month. Starting on Sunday, Jan. 20, and continuing for the next two weeks, our "Believing and Belonging" classes explore the Christian faith, the Presbyterian tradition and membership at Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. For details and registration, visit fapc.org/preparing-for-membership or contact Morgan King, director of engagement (mking@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3005).

Jan. 20: Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday

We have a full day of activity set for Sunday, Jan. 20, as we celebrate the Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday. At 9:30 am, we welcome Dominique Jean-Louis from the New-York Historical Society for an interactive workshop, "What's Jim Crow Got to Do with Me?" There will be no 9:30 am worship service that day. At 11 am, we gather for worship in the Sanctuary, with our guest preacher, the Rev. Dr. Paul Timothy Roberts, president of Johnson C. Smith Theological Seminary in Atlanta. Johnson C. Smith is the only historically black seminary in the Presbyterian Church (USA). There are two afternoon events, as we offer our Historical & Architectural Tour at 12:15, and Outreach Ministries hosts our annual Lunch & Game Day with Neighborhood Friends at 12:30. Details on all of these events are in the winter issue of The VOICE and online at fapc.org.

Jan. 23: City Club Tours the Tenement Museum

City Club, a fellowship group for members and friends ages 40+, invites you to tour the Tenement Museum in lower Manhattan on Wednesday morning, Jan. 23. Discover the stories of businesses once located at 97 Orchard Street, then head off for a Dutch treat lunch nearby. Cost is $20, with payment due by Jan. 16. Contact: Jan Smith (jansmith380@aol.com, 212.945.9167).

Registration Continues for Don't Walk By

Don't Walk By is the annual "search and rescue" mission on behalf of New York City's homeless population. Over four Saturdays in February, volunteers will walk every street in Manhattan, offering food, warm clothing, a blanket, and an opportunity to get off the streets and into transitional housing. On Feb. 16 Fifth Avenue will be the anchor church for East Side outreach. Don't Walk By needs volunteers to serve on street and subway engagement teams, as hospitality staff and as team leaders. For details and registration, go to rescuealliance.nyc/dontwalkby/.

Have You Submitted Your Pledge?

We are 86% toward our $2.9 million Pledge Campaign goal, with pledges totaling $2,496,104 from 382 households. Thank you! If you have not pledged, we hope to hear from you! You may pledge online at fapc.org/pledge, drop your pledge card in the offering plate or in the mail, or contact Albert Vazquez (212.247.0490 ext 3044, avazquez@fapc.org) in the business office. Your generous support will ensure that the mission and ministries of this church are fully funded for 2019.
