

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

JANUARY 20, 2019 • 11:00 AM

The Wedding Feast at Cana

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. (The ushers can also provide one.) Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome! The ushers can provide a worship bag or children’s Bible to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) If you need to step out to attend to your child, we invite you to use our Family Room, located at the north end of the Gallery, just outside the Sanctuary (check the map on the back of the bulletin for the location). We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm, downstairs in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/prayers-of-the-people.

Draw the Circle Wide • Mark Miller (b. 1967)
 Text: Gordon Light (b. 1944)

Draw the circle, draw the circle wide.

 No one stands alone, we'll stand side by side.

 Let this be our song: no one stands alone.
 Standing side by side,
 Draw the circle, draw the circle wide.

ANTHEM

"Nobody Knows" and "Steal Away" from A Child of Our Time
 Traditional Spirituals, arr. Michael Tippett (1905–1998)

Nobody knows the trouble I see, Lord,
 Nobody knows the trouble I see.
 Nobody knows the trouble I see, Lord,
 Nobody knows like Jesus.

O brothers, pray for me,
And help me to drive old Satan away.

O mothers, pray for me,
And help me to drive old Satan away.

Steal away, steal away, steal away to Jesus;
Steal away, steal away home,
I ain't got long to stay here.

My Lord, he calls me, he calls me by the thunder,
The trumpet sounds within my soul,
I ain't got long to stay here.

Green trees a-bending, poor sinner stands a-trembling,
The trumpet sounds within my soul,
I ain't got long to stay here.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

In a broken and fearful world

the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing,

to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
and to work with others for justice, freedom and peace.

In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit,

Hold On! • Traditional Spiritual, arr. Moses Hogan (1957–2003)

Hold on! Hold on! Lord, just hold on!

Nora, Nora, let me come in;
The door’s all fastened and the windows pinned!
Just keep your hand on the plow,
And you hold on, yes, you gotta hold on!

Nora said, “You lost your track,
You can’t plow straight and keep a lookin’ back.”
Just keep your hand on the plow,
And you hold on, yes, you gotta hold on!

Well, my brother, hold on!
Yes, you gotta hold on!
Just keep your hand on the plow,
And you hold on, yes, you gotta hold on!

If you wanna get to heaven, let me tell you how:
Just keep your hand on the gospel plow.
Just keep your hand on the plow,
And you hold on, yes, you gotta hold on!

If that plow stay in your hand,
Land you straight in the promised land.
Just keep your hand on the plow,
And you hold on, yes, you gotta hold on!

Well, my sister, hold on!
Yes, you gotta hold on!
Just keep your hand on the plow,
And you hold on, yes, you gotta hold on!

Mary had a golden chain,
And every link spelled my Jesus' name.
Just keep your hand on the plow,
And you hold on, yes, you gotta hold on!

Keep on climbin' and don't you tire, Lord,
'Cause every rung goes higher and higher!
Just keep your hand on the plow,
And you hold on, yes, you gotta hold on!

WORSHIP NOTES

In commemoration of the Martin Luther King, Jr. national holiday, the choral music this morning features African American spirituals and gospel by some of the foremost composers in the genre.

The first Anthem, Draw the Circle Wide, was written in 2008 by Mark Miller. Miller currently serves as assistant professor of church music at Drew Theological School and is a lecturer in the practice of sacred music at Yale University. He is also the minister of music at Christ Church in Summit, New Jersey. Miller says, “This piece is really at the heart of what I feel music ministry should be about, what the Church should be about: telling more and more people about God’s love, and that the circle of God’s love is wide enough to embrace everyone.”

The Offertory Anthem, Hold On!, is one of the most famous arrangements by the great Moses Hogan, one of America’s foremost composers of African American spirituals. Hogan’s inimitable settings are sung and beloved by choirs and audiences throughout the world. They are remarkable for stylishly bridging the gap between traditional spirituals and classical choral ensembles. Although Hogan was only 45 when he passed away from a brain tumor in 2003, his legacy lives on as one of the most creative and influential figures in 20th-century American choral music.

The Prelude and Postlude are solo organ settings of the traditional gospel hymns “Jesus Loves Me” and “What a Friend We Have in Jesus” by the American composer William Bolcom. Bolcom wrote 12 of these pieces, all of which contain a wide range of musical expression—from the beautifully sublime, to the surprising and downright gritty!

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all, with no registration required. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org.

Community Life

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church offers an array of opportunities for community fellowship. We gather for congregation-wide events (such as Homecoming and the traditional Thanksgiving luncheon) several times a year. Community groups offer an opportunity for more intimate engagement within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s+30s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Our social clubs—City Club, CouplesPlus! and the Fifth Avenue Fellowship Club—gather for dinners and cocktail parties, museum and theater outings, and other social events throughout the year. Learn more about all of these opportunities at fapc.org. Contact: communitylife@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/prayer-requests. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, FAPC-U (our college ministry), Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Membership

When we say "All are welcome," we mean it. From the moment you walk through our doors, we invite you to be a part of our community. We want to learn your name, listen to your questions, and hear your story. Every step of the way, we choose you. Then in membership, you choose us. The process is simple. Through our Believing and Belonging seminars, you explore what it means to be a part of the Christian church, the Presbyterian tradition, and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Whether you're sure membership is right for you, or you're just beginning to wonder if this may be your spiritual home, we'd love to have you in an upcoming class. Email Morgan King (mking@fapc.org) or visit fapc.org/preparing-for-membership to learn more.
