

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

JANUARY 27, 2019 • 11:00 AM

C. Malcolm Powers, Healing of the Gerasene Demoniac, 2000

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. (The ushers can also provide one.) Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome! The ushers can provide a worship bag or children’s Bible to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) If you need to step out to attend to your child, we invite you to use our Family Room, located at the north end of the Gallery, just outside the Sanctuary (check the map on the back of the bulletin for the location). We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm, downstairs in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/prayers-of-the-people.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.

Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Trustee Tiffany O'Brien

One: God calls us to love our neighbor as ourselves;

All: the one who is strong and the one who is struggling,

One: the one who is easy to embrace
and the one we would rather shun,

All: the one whom we understand and the one we don't.

One: Come, let us worship together.

All: We come, trusting God's abundant love.

In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ANTHEM

Peace Like a River

American Folk Hymn, arr. Ronald Staheli (b. 1947)

I've got peace like a river, I've got peace like a river,
 I've got peace like a river in my soul.

I've got love like an ocean, I've got love like an ocean,
 I've got love like an ocean in my soul.

I've got pain like an arrow, I've got pain like an arrow,
 I've got pain like an arrow in my soul.

Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid...

I've got peace like a river, I've got peace like a river,
 I've got peace like a river in my soul.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you...

I've got joy like a fountain, I've got joy like a fountain,
 I've got joy like a fountain in my soul.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Psalm 88:13-19

But I, O Lord, cry out to you; in the morning my prayer comes before you.
O Lord, why do you cast me off? Why do you hide your face from me?
Wretched and close to death from my youth up, I suffer your terrors;
I am desperate.
Your wrath has swept over me; your dread assaults destroy me.
They surround me like a flood all day long; from all sides they close in on me.
You have caused friend and neighbor to shun me; my companions are in darkness.

Mark 5:1-13

They came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gerasenes. And when he had stepped out of the boat, immediately a man out of the tombs with an unclean spirit met him. He lived among the tombs; and no one could restrain him any more, even with a chain; for he had often been restrained with shackles and chains, but the chains he wrenched apart, and the shackles he broke in pieces; and no one had the strength to subdue him. Night and day among the tombs and on the mountains he was always howling and bruising himself with stones. When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and bowed down before him; and he shouted at the top of his voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, do not torment me." For he had said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!" Then Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" He replied, "My name is Legion; for we are many." He begged him earnestly not to send them out of the country. Now there on the hillside a great herd of swine was feeding; and the unclean spirits begged him, "Send us into the swine..."

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from The Confession of 1967, Presbyterian Church (USA)

The life, death, resurrection,
and promised coming of Jesus Christ
has set the pattern for the church's mission.
His human life involves the church
in the common life of all people.
His service to men and women commits the church to work for every form of human well-being.
His suffering makes the church sensitive to all human suffering
so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of persons in every kind of need. Amen.

The ministry of music this morning is offered by:
The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir
Dr. Ryan Jackson, William S. Perper Director of Music and Fine Arts Ministries
Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist

WORSHIP NOTES

The Anthem this morning is a powerful setting of the old American hymn, Peace Like a River. The arranger, Ronald Staheli, is the long-time chair of the choral department at Brigham Young University in Utah, and founder of the BYU Singers, one of the finest collegiate vocal ensembles in the country. Staheli composed this arrangement as a musical response to the devastation he experienced following the death of his son in a tragic car accident at the age of 19. In his deeply moving setting, Staheli perfectly captures the essence of the poignant text through rich harmonies and expressive use of the choral ensemble which, at times, divides the choir into nine parts.

Today: The Story Behind the Belhar Confession

The Belhar Confession that we frequently recite during worship has a long and colorful history. Written in 1982, the Belhar Confession declares the sinfulness of apartheid and calls for justice, reconciliation and unity among all people. So why did it take the Presbyterian Church more than 30 years to adopt it? This afternoon Dr. Dirk Smit, one of the principal authors of the Belhar Confession, gives us the inside story. A noted South African theologian, Dr. Smit is the Rimmer and Ruth DeVries Professor of Reformed Theology and Public Life at Princeton Theological Seminary. His presentation begins at 12:30 pm in the Corning Logan Room.

Last Call! Sign Up for the Chili Cook-Off

Our second annual All-FAPC Chili Cook-Off is happening next Sunday (Feb. 3), and the registration deadline is drawing near. Please sign up by Wednesday (Jan. 30) to compete for Best Chili and other prizes, awarded by our judges and by popular vote. Your $10 admission will go directly to the Souper Bowl of Caring, the national youth-led movement to combat hunger in local communities.

Membership Classes Conclude Next Week

Our next round of membership classes is not happening until after Easter, so if you are curious about becoming a member of Fifth Avenue, please join us next week! Contact: Morgan King (mking@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3005).

Feb. 21: Screening and Panel Discussion of 'Emanuel'

On Thursday, Feb. 21, at 6:30 pm, Fifth Avenue will host a screening and discussion of a powerful new documentary, Emanuel, which chronicles the 2015 shooting of nine members of Emanuel AME Church in Charleston, South Carolina. Members of First Presbyterian Church in Jamaica, Queens, will be our guests, along with the director and producers of the film. We have a limited number of seats available for sale in the Gallery following worship today. We are asking a minimum donation of $20. All proceeds will support the surviving families of those who died at Emanuel Church.

Theatre Fellowship Postpones 'Watch on the Rhine'

Due to personal circumstances and logistical challenges, Fifth Avenue's Theatre Fellowship has decided to postpone its production of Lillian Hellman's drama Watch on the Rhine until next spring (March 2020). Meanwhile, look for announcements from Theatre Fellowship about play-date outings to local theater events and other opportunities for fellowship (including the annual pre-Tony Awards party) for theater enthusiasts. For more information, contact theatre@fapc.org.

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all, with no registration required. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org.

Community Life

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church offers an array of opportunities for community fellowship. We gather for congregation-wide events (such as Homecoming and the traditional Thanksgiving luncheon) several times a year. Community groups offer an opportunity for more intimate engagement within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s+30s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Our social clubs—City Club, CouplesPlus! and the Fifth Avenue Fellowship Club—gather for dinners and cocktail parties, museum and theater outings, and other social events throughout the year. Learn more about all of these opportunities at fapc.org. Contact: communitylife@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/prayer-requests. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, FAPC-U (our college ministry), Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Membership

Our new members classes provide an introduction to Christianity and the Presbyterian tradition. The Believing and Belonging class provides an orientation to Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. We welcome new members into the congregation on the Sunday following the Believing and Belonging class. Learn more about membership, including the schedule of upcoming classes, at fapc.org/preparing-for-membership. Contact: membership@fapc.org.

In addition to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir and Chamber Choir, we offer the FAPC Community Choir, an entry-level ensemble that meets on Thursday evenings for rehearsal and fellowship. Contact: music@fapc.org. Our Theatre Fellowship offers a mainstage production every spring, and staged readings, a cabaret and other events during the year. Contact: theatre@fapc.org. Volunteering Volunteering is one of the most important ways we show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, host in the David B. Skinner Shelter, prepare and deliver meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, lead tours for members and visitors, and work with the underserved of New York City. To learn more about our diverse volunteer opportunities, and how you can join in, visit fapc.org/volunteer or email volunteer@fapc.org.
