

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

FEBRUARY 24, 2019 • 11:00 AM

Lewis W. Hine, "Italian immigrants at Ellis Island, 1905." Photography Collection, New York Public Library.

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. (The ushers can also provide one.) Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome! The ushers can provide a worship bag or children’s Bible to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) If you need to step out to attend to your child, we invite you to use our Family Room, located at the north end of the Gallery, just outside the Sanctuary (check the map on the back of the bulletin for the location). We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm, downstairs in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/prayers-of-the-people.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

*As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.
Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.*

PRELUDE

Sicilienne • Mark Sirett (b. 1952)

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Elder Amanda DeMeola

from the Iona Community, Scotland

One: Way beyond all journeying, truth behind all mystery,
life within all living:

All: We praise you.

One: Salve for every soreness,
mender of every brokenness,
midwife of a better future:

All: We praise you.

One: Ground of all being,
judge of all nations,
conscience of the universe:

All: We praise you.

One: Maker, Messiah,
confessor, companion,
befriender, inspirer,
God beyond all names:

All: We praise you.

One: Let us worship God, tender and just.

* HYMN 361

O Christ, the Great Foundation

* CALL TO CONFESSION

The Rev. Dr. Charlene Han Powell

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

Silent Reflection and Confession

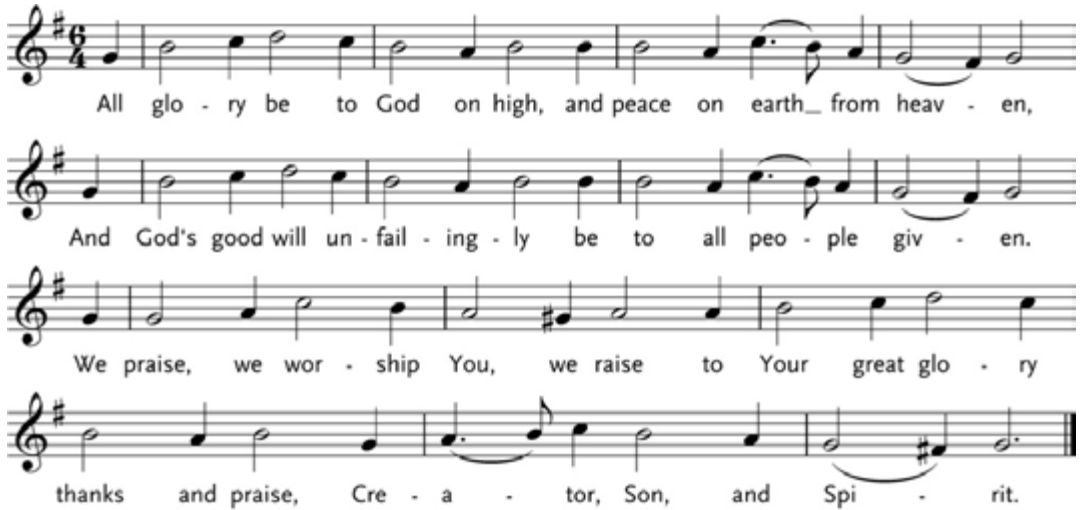

* SUNG RESPONSE

(Cantor sings once; then the congregation sings once.)

* ASSURANCE OF PARDON

The Lord Bless You and Keep You • John Rutter (b. 1945)
Text: Numbers 6:24

The Lord bless you and keep you:
The Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you.
The Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon you,
And give you peace.
Amen.

* PASSING OF THE PEACE

One: The peace of Christ be with you.
All: And also with you.

Children (pre-K through second grade) are invited to the front of the Sanctuary to depart for Children's Church. If this is your child's first time in Children's Church, please fill out the purple label in the pew rack and affix to your child's back.

LITANY OF PARTING

Congregation: May God be with you there.

Children: May God be with you here.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ANTHEM

If Ye Love Me • Thomas Tallis (1505–1585)
Text: John 14:15-17

If ye love me, keep my commandments,
And I will pray the Father,
And he shall give you another Comforter,
That he may abide with you forever,
Ev'n the Spirit of truth.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Deuteronomy 10:12-13 & 17-19

So now, O Israel, what does the Lord your God require of you? Only to fear the Lord your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and to keep the commandments of the Lord your God and his decrees that I am commanding you today, for your own well-being.

For the Lord your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who is not partial and takes no bribe, who executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and who loves the strangers, providing them food and clothing. You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Matthew 25:31-40

When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.'

Hebrews 13:1-2

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Scott Black Johnston

“Let’s Talk about Immigration”

RESPONSE

The Rev. Werner Ramirez

The Good Book reminds us, over and over, that people of faith are citizens, first and foremost, of God’s realm. We belong to God. Our ultimate home is in God. As such, we will always be, says the Bible, “resident aliens” in this world. This is our sacred identity. Scripture also reminds us that we all have ancestors (in our family trees and in our family of faith) who once lived in a foreign land. In recalling both our sacred identity and the enormous challenges faced by our forbearers, Scripture calls on people of faith to extend compassion and care to the foreigners in their midst. This is God’s command.

Exodus 23:9

*You shall not oppress a resident alien;
you know the heart of an alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.*

TESTIMONY

UNISON PRAYER

Blessed are you, Lord Jesus Christ.

You crossed the border between heaven and earth between divinity and humanity to make your home with us.

When you sat with your disciples,
you instructed them to look for you:
in the face of the stranger in need,
in the eyes of a new neighbor,
in the tired gazes of migrant workers, in the nervous glances of a family fleeing violence.

Help us to see you there, Jesus.

Help us not be overwhelmed.
Help us not be foolish.
Help us not give in to fear.

Help us to see you.
And on seeing you, give to us strength and courage.

We need more than caring hearts, Lord.
We need wisdom and vision.
We need just policies and workable solutions.

Help us to set aside endless and anxious arguments.
Help us embrace this important work.

Holy God, the Good Book tells us, you love this messy world so much that you came:
crossing borders to embrace us—to save us.

Ground our thinking and our actions in this same bold love.
This we pray in the name of the one who taught us to pray...

THE LORD'S PRAYER

("...and forgive us our debts...")

* HYMN 316

Where Charity and Love Prevail
(Choir sings verse 1, then the congregation joins)

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Let Us Love in Deed and Truth • Larry King (1932–1990)
Text: 1 John 3:17-23

If anyone has the world's goods, and sees his neighbor in need,
Yet closes his heart against him,
how does God's love abide in him?
Let us not love in word or speech, but in deed and in truth.
By this we shall know that we are of the truth:
We have confidence before our God,
And we receive from him whatever we ask,
Because we keep his commandments, and do what pleases him.
And this is his commandment,
that we should believe in his Son, Jesus Christ,
and love one another.

* DOXOLOGY

Hymn 606

* OFFERTORY PRAYER

* HYMN 772

Live into Hope

* BENEDICTION

Please remain in your pew until the conclusion of the Choral Response.

* CHORAL RESPONSE

May the Blessing of God Be upon You • William H.M. Wright
Text by R. Gordon Nodwell

May the blessing of God be upon you.
May God's love light all your way.
May the grace of Christ enfold you and peace around you stay.
May the Spirit of God dwell within you.
May you live in joy each day.

POSTLUDE

Alleluyas • Simon Preston (b. 1938)

The ministry of music this morning is offered by:
The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir
Dr. Ryan Jackson, William S. Perper Director of Music and Fine Arts Ministries
Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist

WORSHIP NOTES

The composer of the Anthem this morning, Thomas Tallis (1505–1585), figures prominently in the history of English church music and is widely considered to be one of England’s greatest early composers. Throughout his service to successive English monarchs as organist and composer, Tallis managed to avoid the religious controversies raging around him between Protestantism and Roman Catholicism (though, like William Byrd, Tallis remained an “unreformed Roman Catholic” throughout his life). Tallis was capable of switching the style of his compositions to suit the different monarchs’ vastly different demands. During the reign of King Edward VI (1547–1553) it was mandated that all services be sung in English (as opposed to the traditional Latin), and that the choral music be brief and succinct, “to each syllable a plain and distinct note” so as to be easily understood. “If Ye Love Me” is an elegant example of this new style of English anthem: featuring a clear setting of the text and restrained emotion, the piece remains incredibly expressive and distinctly the voice of Tallis.

The Offertory Anthem was composed by the gifted American organist and composer Larry King (1932–1990). Probably not the Larry King that first comes to mind, this Larry King served as organist and director of music at Trinity Church, Wall Street, for 21 years before his death from melanoma at the age of 58. King composed “Let Us Love in Deed and Truth” for the church’s volunteer family choir, which he directed. The warmth and tenderness of King’s setting of the text from 1 John is a beautiful illustration of the profound simplicity in the teaching that lies at the heart of our faith: that we believe in God’s Son and love one another.

We Need Your Help to Complete the Pledge Campaign

We have just 10 days before the start of Lent and the official end of the 2019 Pledge Campaign—and we are still more than $250,000 short of our $2.9 million goal. There are some faithful pledgers from last year we have not heard from, and many more who have never pledged before. We need your help if we are to avoid budget cuts that would affect our ministries and staff. A pledge is your promise to help the church meet our financial obligations in the current year. Estimate how much you can give between now and Dec. 31, write that number on a pledge card, and drop it in the offering plate. Or pledge online at fapc.org/pledge. Every gift makes a difference. We are deeply grateful for your generosity!

Help Us Fill the Pews this Lent

We plan to elevate our invitational effort to an unprecedented scale this Lent, and we need your help. Share copies of our Lent and Easter brochure, as well as other forthcoming materials. If you are on social media, watch for our content on Facebook, Instagram, YouTube and Twitter (starting Feb. 27), and share it with your friends and family. Post your own invitations to worship, the choral concert and other events using the hashtag #findgodat5th. Complete details on our Lent and Easter activities are at fapc.org/lent. Thank you for helping us welcome new faces to the church!

Today: Our First Lunch + Listen Concert!

This afternoon the Arts & Our Faith Committee launches “Lunch & Listen,” a series of casual, half-hour concerts by our resident artists. Today members of the Chamber Choir perform highlights from the Renaissance, when composers such as Palestrina and Byrd created a golden age of choral music. Grab a complimentary sandwich and drink, and join us in Kirkland Chapel at 12:30 pm.

Tonight: Confirmands at The Bowery Mission

Members of our 2019 Confirmation Class will lead tonight’s worship service at the Bowery Mission and serve dinner to residents and guests afterward. You are invited to come support our youth as they continue their preparations for confirmation. Worship begins at 5 pm at the mission, located at 227 Bowery between Prince and Rivington Streets. Directions are available at the reception desk.

Call for Entries: Members’ Art & Photography Exhibition

The Arts & Our Faith Committee announces its third exhibition of works by members and friends of the congregation. If you would like to submit 2-D artwork (including photography) for consideration, email a photo of the work (maximum of three pieces) to fapc@fapc.org by next Sunday (March 3). Include the title of the work and the medium (or media) used. The exhibit will debut in the Chesnut Gallery on Sunday, April 28, and will remain on view through the summer.

March 19: Memorial Service for Marilyn Dawson

Fifth Avenue will host a memorial service for Elder Marilyn Dawson at 11 am Tuesday, March 19, in Kirkland Chapel. A member of the church since May 2016, Marilyn died on Feb. 2.

March 23: CouplesPlus! Chinese Banquet

CouplesPlus! invites you to celebrate the Chinese New Year with a nine-course banquet at the Peking Duck House (236 E. 53rd St.). Enjoy a menu personally selected by members David and Karen Liu (which includes a vegetarian option). Cost is $68 per person, with a cash bar. Seating is limited. RSVP by March 18 to couplesplus@fapc.org. CouplesPlus! is a fellowship organization open to all adult members and friends who want to enjoy exciting and fun evening activities.

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all, with no registration required. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org.

Community Life

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church offers an array of opportunities for community fellowship. We gather for congregation-wide events (such as Homecoming and the Thanksgiving luncheon) several times a year. Community groups offer an opportunity for more intimate engagement within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s+30s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Our social clubs—City Club, CouplesPlus! and the Fifth Avenue Fellowship Club—gather for dinners and cocktail parties, museum and theater outings, and other social events throughout the year. Learn more about all of these opportunities at fapc.org. Contact: communitylife@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/prayer-requests. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, FAPC-U (our college ministry), Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Membership

When we say "All are welcome," we mean it. From the moment you walk through our doors, we invite you to be a part of our community. We want to learn your name, listen to your questions, and hear your story. Every step of the way, we choose you. Then in membership, you choose us. The process is simple. Through our Believing and Belonging seminars, you explore what it means to be a part of the Christian church, the Presbyterian tradition, and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Whether you're sure membership is right for you, or you're just beginning to wonder if this may be your spiritual home, we'd love to have you in an upcoming class. Email Morgan King (mking@fapc.org) or visit fapc.org/membership to learn more.

Mission Partners

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church supports a diverse group of mission partners whose missions and ministries align closely with our own. We invite you to get to know them:

The Bowery Mission	Jan Hus Presbyterian Church	Operation Exodus
The Bridge	& Neighborhood House	Parity
Church of Gethsemane	Ministry of Hope – Lesotho	Presbyterian Senior Services
Hands Along the Nile	Mission co-workers Cobbie &	Search and Care
Development Services	Dessa Palm – Philippines	West Side Federation for Senior
Holmes Presbyterian Camp	Mission co-workers Dan &	& Supportive Housing
& Conference Center	Elizabeth Turk – Madagascar	Womankind

We offer many volunteer opportunities through our mission partners as well. Read more at fapc.org/mission-partners.

Music + Arts

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church is home to a versatile program of arts in our worship and community life that endeavors to inspire, challenge and comfort all who encounter it, and to provide opportunities to share our artistic gifts. In addition to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir and Chamber Choir, we offer the FAPC Community Choir, an entry-level ensemble that meets on Thursday evenings for rehearsal and fellowship. Contact: music@fapc.org. Our Theatre Fellowship offers a mainstage production every spring, and staged readings, a cabaret and other events during the year. Contact: theatre@fapc.org. The Arts & Our Faith Committee sponsors exhibitions of art, history and photography in the Chesnut Gallery, often featuring work by members of the congregation.

20s+30s

20s+30s is a diverse group of curious, adventurous people who are centered in our faith. We offer a number of programs to make you feel at home—our Sunday afternoon discussion group, service projects, social events, retreats and more. Join us! We're online at fapc.org/20s-30s and on Instagram @FAPC20s30s. Contact: youngadults@fapc.org.

Volunteering

Volunteering is one of the most important ways we show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, host in the David B. Skinner Shelter, prepare and deliver meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, lead tours for members and visitors, and work with the underserved of New York City. To learn more about our diverse volunteer opportunities, and how you can join in, visit fapc.org/volunteer or email volunteer@fapc.org.

Women's Association

The Women's Association invites the women (and men!) of the congregation to our program of education, service, prayer and benevolence. Our Tuesday luncheons ($15, Bonnell Hall), featuring guest speakers and entertainment, are open to all. Our programs are listed every Sunday in the bulletin's Calendar of Events. Contact: wassoc@fapc.org.

From time to time we may be taking video or photography in the Sanctuary, Kirkland Chapel and other parts of the church house (interior and exterior). By your presence, you grant Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church unrestricted rights to use and publish, transmit or telecast images or likeness that may be taken of you for use in communication related to the church. Please contact Tim Palmer Curl, director of communications and development (tpalmer@fapc.org), if you have questions or concerns.

Have You Submitted Your Pledge?

We are 91% toward our $2.9 million Pledge Campaign goal, with pledges totaling $2,627,980 from 426 households. Thank you! If you have not pledged, we hope to hear from you! You may pledge online at fapc.org/pledge, drop your pledge card in the offering plate or in the mail, or contact Albert Vazquez (212.247.0490 ext 3044, avazquez@fapc.org) in the business office. Your generous support will ensure that the mission and ministries of this church are fully funded for 2019.
