

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT
MARCH 17, 2019 • 11:00 AM

John Reilly, The Miraculous Draught, n.d.

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. (The ushers can also provide one.) Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome! The ushers can provide a worship bag or children’s Bible to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) If you need to step out to attend to your child, we invite you to use our Family Room, located at the north end of the Gallery, just outside the Sanctuary (check the map on the back of the bulletin for the location). We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm, downstairs in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.

Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.

PRELUDE

*Missa Mundi ("World Mass"): V. Prayer
Charles Camilleri (1931–2009)*

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Elder Melanie Musgrove

One: This Lent, Jesus invites us to sit with him.

All: What does our Lord say?

One: He says, "Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens,
and I will give you rest."

All: He says: "Take my yoke upon you,
and learn from me;
for I am gentle and humble in heart,
and you will find rest for your souls."

One: He says, "My yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

All: We are eager to have our burdens lifted.
We want to learn the ways of grace.

One: Let us worship God, tender and just!

* HYMN 182

I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say

* CALL TO CONFESSION

The Rev. Dr. Charlene Han Powell

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

ANTHEM

I Will Arise • Traditional, arr. Alice Parker (b. 1925) and Robert Shaw (1916–1999)

I will arise and go to Jesus, he will embrace me in his arms,
In the arms of my dear Savior, Oh!
there are ten thousand charms.

Teach me some melodious sonnet sung by flaming tongues above,
Praise the mount, I'm fixed upon it,
mount of thy redeeming love.

Come, thou fount of every blessing,
tune my heart to sing thy grace,
Streams of mercy never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Luke 5:1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

"Row Into Deep Water"

The Rev. Dr. Scott Black Johnston

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from Isaiah 43

One: What does God promise?

All: Thus says the Lord,
“Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by name, you are mine.
When you pass through the waters,
I will be with you;
and through the rivers,
they shall not overwhelm you;
when you walk through fire
you shall not be burned,
and the flame shall not consume you.
For I am the Lord your God,
the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.” Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Jesu, The Very Thought of Thee
Traditional, arr. Paul Halley (b. 1952)
Text: 12th-century Latin, trans. Edward Caswall

Jesu, the very thought of thee
With sweetness fills the breast;
But sweeter far thy face to see,
And in thy presence rest.

No voice can sing, no heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find
A sweeter sound than Jesus’ name,
The savior of mankind.

O hope of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
To those who ask how kind thou art,
How good to those who seek.

But what to those who find? Ah! this
Nor tongue nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus, what it is None but his loved ones know.

Jesu, our only joy be thou,
As thou our prize wilt be;
In thee be all our glory now,
And through eternity.

Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist

WORSHIP NOTES

Paul Halley is a Canadian church musician of international renown, perhaps most famous for his tenure at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City, where he served as music director from 1977 until 1989. Halley is a major champion of world music, and his compositions and arrangements are notable for their musical creativity and accessibility. His unique setting of the famous hymn “Jesu, The Very Thought of Thee” is especially notable for its colorful organ accompaniment—cascading sixteenth notes give the setting an airy, weightless quality from the opening measures, and jazzy modulations throughout breathe fresh life into this old classic.

The Postlude is the final movement of Canadian composer Barrie Cabena’s 20th organ sonata, Aspects of the Sea. Composed in 1998, this sonata was inspired by several excerpts from the Bible and other literary sources that try to capture in words the might and majesty of one of our planet’s most awe-inspiring features: the sea. To capture these images musically, Cabena’s toccata stirs and rolls through a fascinating ocean of quartal harmonies and tossing chromatic melodies.

Today: Congregational Meeting

At the close of the 11 am service, Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church convenes our annual Congregational Meeting for the election of officers. We also will hear updates from the senior pastor and treasurer about the state of the church. All members are encouraged to attend.

Today: CREDO Returns with the Letters of Paul

CREDO, our annual Adult Education series on the fundamentals of Christian theology, returns today at 12:30 pm in Bonnell Hall. This year our pastors are exploring “Four Faces of Paul,” four letters attributed to the apostle that demonstrate the rich diversity of his writing and the profound thinking that shaped the doctrine of the early Church. Executive Pastor Charlene Han Powell launches the four-part series with a look at the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Deacons Clothing Drive Underway This Week

We welcome your donations to the annual Deacons’ Clothing Drive, benefiting Fifth Avenue’s Ecumenical Outreach Partnership and the Urban Outreach Center at Jan Hus Presbyterian Church. We are looking for new or lightly used clothing for men, women and children. Our recipients are in particular need of casual and professional spring and summer clothing, underwear and socks (especially men’s). You may drop your donations at the 55th Street reception desk during business hours this week, or bring them to church with you next Sunday. Thank you!

Tuesday: Memorial Service for Marilyn Dawson

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church hosts a memorial service for Marilyn Dawson at 11 am Tuesday (March 19) in Kirkland Chapel. Marilyn was an Elder of the church, a volunteer with the Women’s Association and a member of the congregation since 2016. She died on Feb. 2. The Rev. Kate Dunn will preside. The Women’s Association will host a luncheon in Bonnell Hall following the service. All are invited. RSVP to Lance Hurst (lhurst@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3007).

This Week: Two Opportunities to Go Deeper

On Tuesday evening (March 19) we present Walking the Labyrinth, the third in our series of Lenten classes in Christian spirituality. Jaime Staehle, director of Christian Education, discusses how the twists and turns of the labyrinth can bring us to a clearer mind and greater sense of peace. Join Jaime at 6:30 pm in Jones Auditorium. Then come back on Wednesday (March 20) for the Midweek Lenten Service sponsored by our 20s+30s ministry. The Rev. Werner Ramirez leads this meditative service, starting at 6:30 pm in Kirkland Chapel. This quiet escape from the work week is open to all (not just young adults!).

Next Sunday: Spiritual Care of the Terminally Ill

The Circle: Conversations about Health, Wellness and Spirituality returns next Sunday for a conversation with the Rev. Dr. Laurie Anderson, a palliative care chaplain at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center. Learn what it means to be present with a loved one in transition from life to death. The Rev. Kate Dunn convenes the Circle at 9:30 am in the Corning Logan Room.

March 29: City Club Tours the Park Avenue Armory

City Club, a fellowship organization for members and friends ages 40+, invites you to tour the Park Avenue Armory on Friday, March 29. Meet Sharon Sullivan and Beverly Johnson in the lobby of the Armory, 643 Park Ave., at 9:45 am for an escorted tour, followed by a Dutch-treat lunch nearby. Cost is $12 for seniors, $17 for adults, and reservations are necessary. Contact: Sharon Sullivan (sharonmary12@gmail.com, 917.636.9749).

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all, with no registration required. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org.

Community Life

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church offers an array of opportunities for community fellowship. We gather for congregation-wide events (such as Homecoming and the Thanksgiving luncheon) several times a year. Community groups offer an opportunity for more intimate engagement within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s+30s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Our social clubs—City Club, CouplesPlus! and the Fifth Avenue Fellowship Club—gather for dinners and cocktail parties, museum and theater outings, and other social events throughout the year. Learn more about all of these opportunities at fapc.org. Contact: communitylife@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/prayer-requests. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, FAPC-U (our college ministry), Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Membership

When we say "All are welcome," we mean it. From the moment you walk through our doors, we invite you to be a part of our community. We want to learn your name, listen to your questions, and hear your story. Every step of the way, we choose you. Then in membership, you choose us. The process is simple. Through our Believing and Belonging seminars, you explore what it means to be a part of the Christian church, the Presbyterian tradition, and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Whether you're sure membership is right for you, or you're just beginning to wonder if this may be your spiritual home, we'd love to have you in an upcoming class. Email Morgan King (mking@fapc.org) or visit fapc.org/membership to learn more.

Mission Partners

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church supports a diverse group of mission partners whose missions and ministries align closely with our own. We invite you to get to know them:

The Bowery Mission	Jan Hus Presbyterian Church	Operation Exodus
The Bridge	& Neighborhood House	Parity
Church of Gethsemane	Ministry of Hope – Lesotho	Presbyterian Senior Services
Hands Along the Nile	Mission co-workers Cobbie &	Search and Care
Development Services	Dessa Palm – Philippines	West Side Federation for Senior
Holmes Presbyterian Camp	Mission co-workers Dan &	& Supportive Housing
& Conference Center	Elizabeth Turk – Madagascar	Womankind

We offer many volunteer opportunities through our mission partners as well. Read more at fapc.org/mission-partners.

Music + Arts

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church is home to a versatile program of arts in our worship and community life that endeavors to inspire, challenge and comfort all who encounter it, and to provide opportunities to share our artistic gifts. In addition to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir and Chamber Choir, we offer the FAPC Community Choir, an entry-level ensemble that meets on Thursday evenings for rehearsal and fellowship. Contact: music@fapc.org. Our Theatre Fellowship offers a mainstage production every spring, and staged readings, a cabaret and other events during the year. Contact: theatre@fapc.org. The Arts & Our Faith Committee sponsors exhibitions of art, history and photography in the Chesnut Gallery, often featuring work by members of the congregation.

20s+30s

20s+30s is a diverse group of curious, adventurous people who are centered in our faith. We offer a number of programs to make you feel at home—our Sunday afternoon discussion group, service projects, social events, retreats and more. Join us! We're online at fapc.org/20s-30s and on Instagram @FAPC20s30s. Contact: youngadults@fapc.org.

Volunteering

Volunteering is one of the most important ways we show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, host in the David B. Skinner Shelter, prepare and deliver meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, lead tours for members and visitors, and work with the underserved of New York City. To learn more about our diverse volunteer opportunities, and how you can join in, visit fapc.org/volunteer or email volunteer@fapc.org.

Women's Association

The Women's Association invites the women (and men!) of the congregation to our program of education, service, prayer and benevolence. Our Tuesday luncheons ($15, Bonnell Hall), featuring guest speakers and entertainment, are open to all. Our programs are listed every Sunday in the bulletin's Calendar of Events. Contact: wassoc@fapc.org.

About the Cover

John Reilly, The Miraculous Draught, n.d. John Reilly (1928–2010) was an English artist and an important figure in the world of religious art. His paintings sought, in his words, “to express in visible form the oneness and unity” of creation. He used the freedom of modern art to develop a visual language of forms and colors that expressed “something of their deeper spiritual significance.” More of his work can be seen at thejohnreillygallery.co.uk.
