

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT
MARCH 24, 2019 • 11:00 AM

Vincent Van Gogh, The Good Samaritan, 1889

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. (The ushers can also provide one.) Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome! The ushers can provide a worship bag or children’s Bible to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) If you need to step out to attend to your child, we invite you to use our Family Room, located at the north end of the Gallery, just outside the Sanctuary (check the map on the back of the bulletin for the location). We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm, downstairs in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.

Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.

Jesus Died on Calvary's Mountain

Traditional, arr. Victor Johnson (b. 1978)

Jesus died on Calvary's mountain long time ago.
 And salvation's rolling fountain now freely flows.
 Once his voice in tones of pity melted in woe,
 And he wept o'er Judah's city long time ago.

On his head the dews of midnight fell long ago.
 Now a crown of dazzling sunlight sits on his brow.
 Jesus died, yet lives forever, no more to die,
 Bleeding Jesus, bleeding Savior, now reigns on high.

Children, let your lights be burning in hope of heaven;
 Waiting for the Lord's returning at dawn or ev'n.
 When he comes, a voice from heaven shall pierce the tomb,
 "Come, ye blessed of My Father: children, come home."

Children (pre-K through second grade) are invited to the front of the Sanctuary to depart for Children's Church. If this is your child's first time in Children's Church, please fill out the purple label in the pew rack and affix to your child's back.

LITANY OF PARTING

Congregation: May God be with you there.

Children: May God be with you here.

ANTHEM

Bring us, O Lord God

William H. Harris (1883–1973), Text by John Donne (1572–1631)

Bring us, O Lord God, at our last awakening
Into the house and gate of Heaven,
To enter into that gate and dwell in that house,
Where there shall be no darkness nor dazzling,
But one equal light;
No noise nor silence, but one equal music;
No fears nor hopes, but one equal possession;
No ends nor beginnings, but one equal eternity:
In the habitation of thy glory and dominion,
World without end. Amen.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Luke 10:25-37

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he said, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?” He said to him, “What is written in the law? What do you read there?” He answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.” And he said to him, “You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.” But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.’ Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?” He said, “The one who showed him mercy.” Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

“Read the Map Like Jesus”

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from The Brief Statement of Faith, Presbyterian Church (USA)

The same Spirit

who inspired the prophets and apostles rules our faith and life in Christ through Scripture, engages us through the Word proclaimed,
claims us in the waters of baptism,
feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation,
and calls women and men to all ministries of the church.

In a broken and fearful world

the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior,
to unmask idolatries in Church and culture,
to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
and to work with others for justice, freedom and peace. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Greater Love Hath No Man • John Ireland (1879–1962)

Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it.
Love is strong as death.

Greater love hath no man than this,

That a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree,

That we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified,

Ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation;

That ye should show forth the praises of him

Who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

I beseech you brethren, by the mercies of God,

That you present your bodies, a living sacrifice, holy,

Acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

* DOXOLOGY

Hymn 606

* OFFERTORY PRAYER

* HYMN 298

Lord, You Give the Great Commission

* BENEDICTION

Please remain in your pew until the conclusion of the Choral Response.

* CHORAL RESPONSE

A Celtic Prayer • Barry Peters, Text: Traditional

May the Christ who walks on wounded feet walk with you on the road.

May the Christ who serves with wounded hands stretch out your hands to serve.

May the Christ who loves with a wounded heart open up your hearts to love.

May you see the face of Christ in everyone you meet,

And may everyone you meet see the face of Christ in you. Amen.

POSTLUDE

Sonata no. 2 in C minor: Allegro maestoso e vivace
Felix Mendelssohn (1809–1847)

The ministry of music this morning is offered by:
The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir • FAPC Community Choir
Dr. Ryan Jackson, William S. Perper Director of Music and Fine Arts Ministries
Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist • Clayton Brown, Baritone • Rachel Mikol, Soprano

WORSHIP NOTES

The Anthem is one of several famous pieces for double choir composed by the great English choral composer William Harris. Harris was professor of organ and harmony at the Royal College of Music from 1921 until 1955; he also became organist at St. George's Chapel, Windsor in 1933 and directed the music for the coronation ceremony of King George VI in 1937, as well as for Queen Elizabeth II's coronation in 1953. This morning's Anthem, Bring us, O Lord God, was composed rather late in his career, in 1959. Scored for double choir a cappella, the piece is a beautiful setting of a religious poem by John Donne. Harris' musical language is evocative and spacious, and together with Donne's mystical text, paints a radiant picture of heaven. The piece builds to a grand, resplendent climax on the words, 'World without end,' but the most intimate and reflective music is saved for the transcendental, concluding 'Amen.'

The Offertory Anthem this morning is John Ireland's most enduring work for the church, and one of the cornerstones of the great English choral tradition: Greater Love Hath No Man. Composed in 1912, the text of this Edwardian anthem is a collage of Scriptural excerpts assembled by the composer himself. Ireland's choice of New Testament texts, which speak of self-giving sacrifice, has traditionally made this anthem a popular selection for services of remembrance. When considered through the lens of this morning's reading from Luke, however, the text of this masterpiece takes on even broader implications: at every moment we can choose to lay ourselves down—our concepts, beliefs, opinions and prejudices—in favor of the radically unconditional and sacrificial love modeled for us by Jesus. Through God's redeeming love, we are called to "present our bodies, a holy, living sacrifice," to live as the walking, talking body of Christ alive and at work in the world today.

Today: CREDO Explores Galatians

Our 2019 CREDO series, “Four Faces of Paul,” continues at 12:30 pm today in Bonnell Hall. Associate Pastor Werner Ramirez discusses the theological themes in the apostle’s Letter to the Galatians. Food and drink will be provided.

Today: Lunch & Listen to Piano Four-Hands

Our first Lunch & Listen—a new series of casual, half-hour concerts by our performing artists—was a big success last month. Today’s should prove just as popular, as Ryan Jackson and Patrick Kreeger share the Steinway for a program of four-handed piano music. Grab a complimentary sandwich and drink, and join us in Kirkland Chapel following the 11 am service.

Tickets on Sale for the Lenten Concert

This year, for the first time, the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Chamber Choir will perform the Lenten concert on two nights—Thursday, April 11, and Friday, April 12. The additional performance is a testament to the growing popularity of our concert series. This year’s concert is not to be missed—Brahms’ A German Requiem, featuring the renowned Shelest Piano Duo. Tickets are on sale in the Gallery today and the next two Sundays, or you can purchase online at fapc.org/tickets. Invite a friend to a special evening of sacred music as we prepare hearts and minds for Holy Week.

Tuesday: A Free Morning Concert

The choir of Pius XI Catholic High School in Milwaukee will be here for a tour of our music and worship spaces this Tuesday (March 26) and has graciously offered to perform a free concert for us. We invite you to hear the choir perform works by Stephen Paulus, Javier Busto, Maurice Durufle and other composers at 10 am in Kirkland Chapel.

Tuesday’s Lenten Spiritual Practice: Sacred Silence

Every Sunday we hear the words: “Let us quiet our minds and open our hearts as we listen for God’s word.” Lent is an ideal season to practice silence and discover the peace, guidance and comfort to be found there. Morgan King, director of engagement, leads this week’s Lenten spiritual practice, “Sacred Silence,” at 6:30 pm Tuesday in Kirkland Chapel. Read about all our upcoming classes at fapc.org/lent.

Thursday: Cooking with Shelter Guests

Outreach volunteer Rusty Breedlove invites you to join him in the kitchen of Bonnell Hall on Thursday (March 28) as he prepares for another evening of supper and fellowship with our guests in the David B. Community Life

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church offers an array of opportunities for community fellowship. We gather for congregation-wide events (such as Homecoming and the Thanksgiving luncheon) several times a year. Community groups offer an opportunity for more intimate engagement within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s+30s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Our social clubs—City Club, CouplesPlus! and the Fifth Avenue Fellowship Club—gather for dinners and cocktail parties, museum and theater outings, and other social events throughout the year. Learn more about all of these opportunities at fapc.org. Contact: communitylife@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. Through our Believing and Belonging seminars, you explore what it means to be a part of the Christian church, the Presbyterian tradition, and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Whether you're sure membership is right for you, or you're just beginning to wonder if this may be your spiritual home, we'd love to have you in an upcoming class. Help Us Fill the Pews this Lent

We are elevating our invitational efforts to an unprecedented scale this Lent, and we need your help. Invite a friend or colleague to come experience Sunday at Fifth Avenue. Share copies of our Lent and Easter brochure, as well as the postcard listing our worship services and spirituality classes. If you are on social media, share our content on Facebook, Instagram and YouTube. Post your own invitations to worship, the Lenten concert and other events using the hashtag #findgodat5th. Complete details on our Lent and Easter activities are at fapc.org/lent. Thank you for helping us welcome new faces to the church!
