

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

PENTECOST

JUNE 9, 2019 • 10:00 AM

Soichi Watanabe, The Coming of the Holy Spirit, 1996

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries, programs and volunteer opportunities. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are welcome to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. (See the map on the back of the bulletin for the exact location.) If you are attending worship in Kirkland Chapel, the ushers can provide a worship bag to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.

Arise! Shine! • Joseph M. Martin (b. 1959)

Text: Isaiah 60:1-6

Arise and shine, the light has come,
The glorious day of the Lord.
Arise and shine, your light has come,
The glorious day of the Lord.

Arise for your light has come.
Arise with the morning sun.
Arise, a new day begun.
Sing alleluia, alleluia,
Lift up your praise to the Lord.

Oh, let your heart be glad.
Come now and let your soul rejoice.
O come and praise the Lord
With all your heart and soul and voice.

The darkness shall be as dawning.
The light of our hope shall be restored.
Lift up your heart. Lift up your eyes
And see the glory of the Lord.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ANTHEM

Hark, I Hear the Harps Eternal
Traditional, arr. Alice Parker (b. 1925)

Hark, I hear the harps eternal
Ringing on the farther shore,
As I near those swollen waters,
With their deep and solemn roar.

Refrain:

Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah,
Praise the Lamb,
Hallelujah, Hallelujah,
Glory to the great I AM.

And my soul though stained with sorrow,
Fading as the light of day,
Passes swiftly o'er those waters
To the city far away. Refrain.

Souls have crossed before me, saintly,
To that land of perfect rest;
And I hear them singing faintly
In the mansions of the blest. Refrain.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Acts 2:1-13

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

LITANY OF PARTING

Congregation: May God be with you there.

Children: May God be with you here.

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from A Brief Statement of Faith, Presbyterian Church (USA)

The same Spirit

who inspired the prophets and apostles rules our faith and life in Christ through Scripture, engages us through the Word proclaimed,
claims us in the waters of baptism,
feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation,
and calls women and men to all ministries of the Church.

In a broken and fearful world

the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior,
to unmask idolatries in Church and culture,
to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
and to work with others for justice, freedom and peace. Amen.

WORSHIP NOTES

The Prelude and Postlude this morning are based on the traditional Pentecost hymn Veni creator spiritus (“Come, Holy Ghost, Our Souls Inspire”). The tune of this hymn is among the oldest in Western music, dating to the ninth century. Duruflé’s monumental work Prelude, Adagio, and Chorale Variations on the Theme of “Veni creator” is one of the most sublime pieces in the organ repertoire. This morning we hear the final movement in its entirety, a set of five beautiful variations: the first four will be heard in alternation with the choir singing the original plainsong during the Prelude, and the final variation, a joyous and festive toccata, will be played as the Postlude.

With both Scott and Executive Pastor Charlene Han Powell away for the summer, Associate Pastors Kate Dunn and Werner Ramirez will handle the administration, worship and pastoral care responsibilities of the church, with the assistance of our parish associates, the Rev. Dr. Pattie Kitchen and the Rev. Kellie Picallo. We have a number of accomplished guest preachers coming, starting next Sunday (June 16), when the Rev. Dr. Nathan Stucky makes his Fifth Avenue debut. Dr. Stucky is director of the Farminary Project at Princeton Theological Seminary. See fapc.org/worship for the full summer preaching calendar.

Today: Reception for Our Exhibiting Artists

Following worship today the Arts & Our Faith Committee will host a reception in the Chesnut Gallery honoring the 15 artists and photographers who contributed to the current members' exhibit, "Artists In Our Midst." Please stop by to greet our resident creatives and take another look at their work!

Volunteer with Project FIND this Summer

Our next service is on Thursday (June 13), starting at 6 pm. This is engaging, rewarding work you are sure to enjoy! Contact: Vijay Wijesundera (projectfind@fapc.org) for details.

June 26: Street Outreach to LGBTQ Youth

Last month one of our FAPC Serves teams worked with our mission partner Parity to create care kits for queer youth living on the streets of New York. On June 26, as the city fills with visitors for Pride Week, we will distribute the kits to youth in need. Volunteers are invited to gather at in Kirkland Chapel at 6 pm for pizza and training by our social worker, John Sheehan, before we hit the streets. Contact John (jsheehan@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3020) for details.

The 19-th annual Margaret Shafer Community Picnic is coming up at 12 pm Sunday, June 30, in Central Park. Volunteers are needed to bring food, set up/clean up and be part of the fellowship with our neighbors experiencing homelessness. For details, including our location in the park, contact Meredith Fleck (homelessevents@fapc.org) or Séamus Campbell (scampbell@fapc.org). June 30 is also the date of the LGBTQ Pride March on Fifth Avenue. Our neighbors at First Presbyterian are staffing a water table to provide refreshment to the marchers, starting at 12:30 pm and continuing until the evening. See the listing at fapc.org/volunteer to sign up for a shift.

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org.

Community Life

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church offers an array of opportunities for fellowship. We gather for congregation-wide events (such as Homecoming and the Thanksgiving luncheon) several times a year. Community groups offer an opportunity for more intimate engagement within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s+30s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Our social clubs—City Club, CouplesPlus! and the Fifth Avenue Fellowship Club—gather for dinners and cocktail parties, museum and theater outings, and other social events throughout the year. Learn more about all of these opportunities at fapc.org. Contact: communitylife@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/prayer-requests. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Fifth Avenue Ecumenical Outreach Partnership

The Ecumenical Outreach Partnership is a collaboration among three midtown congregations – Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, Saint Thomas Church and St. Patrick's Cathedral. Working together, we are able to increase the level of support we provide to men and women experiencing homelessness and others in need of social services. The executive director, John Sheehan, LMSW, pursues street outreach and serves walk-in clients and individuals referred by Saint Thomas and St. Patrick's from his office at Fifth Avenue. We welcome your donations of warm clothing, bottled water, socks, toiletries and other essentials that our clients need. For more information, see fapc.org/fifth-avenue-ecumenical-outreach-partnership. Contact: John Sheehan (jsheehan@fapc.org).

Membership

When we say "All are welcome," we mean it. From the moment you walk through our doors, we invite you to be a part of our community. We want to learn your name, listen to your questions, and hear your story. Every step of the way, we choose you. In membership, you choose us. Through our Believing and Belonging seminars, you explore what it means to be a part of the Christian church, the Presbyterian tradition, and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Whether you're sure membership is right for you, or you're just beginning to wonder if this may be your spiritual home, we'd love to have you in an upcoming class. Email Morgan King (mking@fapc.org) or visit fapc.org/membership to learn more.

Will You Support our Crowdfunding Campaign?

Tomorrow we will launch a crowdfunding campaign to create a fund supporting our ministry to refugees and to our neighbors living on the streets. This $50,000 fund will provide for monthly rent and related expenses for refugees supported by the church, as well as Metro cards, state ID cards, clothing, bottled water and other necessities for our neighbors who are unhoused. We have a $25,000 gift from a generous donor to start our campaign—which means that your gift (in any amount) will be immediately matched. See our campaign page at crowdrise.com/survive-the-streets. Please share it with others who may be interested in lending their support!
