

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

TRINITY SUNDAY
JUNE 16, 2019 • 10:00 AM

Laura James, Creation, 2018

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries, programs and volunteer opportunities. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are welcome to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. (See the map on the back of the bulletin for the exact location.) If you are attending worship in Kirkland Chapel, the ushers can provide a worship bag to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SOLO

The Lord is My Shepherd • Ruth Watson Henderson (b. 1932)
 Text: Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want;
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.
 He leadeth me beside the still waters,
 He restoreth my soul.
 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil; for thou art with me:
 Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
 Thou anointest my head with oil,
 My cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
 And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Genesis 1:26-31

Then God said, "Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth." So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.”

God said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so.

God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

WORSHIP NOTES

Today is Trinity Sunday, the day when Christians throughout the world acknowledge and celebrate the doctrine of the Trinity, or the three Persons of God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Trinity Sunday has been widely celebrated in the Western Church on the first Sunday after Pentecost since the 13th century. Some references to the Trinity are made in several of the musical selections this morning, from the triune “Holy, Holy, Holy” of the opening hymn to the Trinitarian musical symbolism embedded throughout Bach’s Prelude and Fugue in E-flat major.

J.S. Bach’s monumental Prelude and Fugue in E-flat major is one of the great masterpieces for organ. The prelude is composed in what is known as the French overture style, a Baroque genre consisting of two contrasting musical ideas: a grand section with snappy, dotted rhythms, followed by a section of quickly-moving fugal material. This particular musical form was created in the 1650s by the famous French Baroque opera composer Jean-Baptiste Lully; it was incredibly popular and came to be widely imitated throughout Europe. Bach, the greatest stylistic synthesizer, employed the French overture style often, especially in the opening movements of his instrumental suites. In this morning’s Prelude, Bach creates a powerful sense of unity by alternating between the grand and fugal sections throughout. He brings the piece to a triumphant and decisive conclusion by repeating the opening material at the end, a technique in musical composition known as “recapitulation.”

The stunning fugue is nicknamed “St. Anne,” because its primary subject bears a strong resemblance to the hymn tune by that name, known to most of us as “Our God, Our Help in Ages Past.” Written at the height of Bach’s compositional powers, this fugue is an incredibly expressive feat of musical ingenuity. It is composed in three major sections, the first of which is written in the stile antico, or “the old style.” In Bach’s time, composers would sometimes evoke musical styles of previous generations, especially late-Renaissance choral music by composers such as Palestrina. This old style is characterized by strict counterpoint and lines that are vocal in nature. This old-fashioned exposition gives way to a second section which introduces faster, more elaborate material in what is known as the stile moderno, or “the modern style.” The musical lines in this section are much more florid and instrumental in character. One would be hard-pressed to sing them! In the third and final section of the fugue, these two seemingly contrasting styles are brought together in a brilliant synthesis: the old is merged with the new in a statement of musical cohesion and unity that continues to inspire, centuries after its composition.

From time to time we may be taking video or photography in the Sanctuary, Kirkland Chapel and other parts of the church house (interior and exterior). By your presence, you grant Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church unrestricted rights to use and publish, transmit or telecast images or likeness that may be taken of you for use in communication related to the church. Please contact Tim Palmer Curl, director of communications and development (tpalmer@fapc.org), if you have questions or concerns.

Support the City Streets Survival Fund

This week we launched a crowdfunding campaign to create a fund supporting our ministry to refugees and to our neighbors living on the streets. This $50,000 fund will provide for monthly rent and expenses for refugees supported by the church, as well as Metro cards, state ID cards, bottled water and other necessities for our neighbors who are unhoused. We have a $25,000 gift from a generous donor to start our campaign—which means that your gift will be immediately matched. See our campaign page at crowdrise.com/survive-the-streets. Please share it with others who may be interested in lending their support!
