

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

JUNE 23, 2019 • 10:00 AM

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries, programs and volunteer opportunities. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are welcome to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. (See the map on the back of the bulletin for the exact location.) If you are attending worship in Kirkland Chapel, the ushers can provide a worship bag to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

SOLO

Hear My Prayer & God Is My Shepherd, from Ten Biblical Songs
 Antonín Dvořák (1841–1904)

Hear my prayer, O Lord, my God!
 Oh, hide not thy face from my petition.
 Bow thine ear to me and hearken unto the voice of my mourning.
 Pained sore is my heart within,
 And trembling hath fallen upon me,
 The fear of death overwhelms me.
 Hear my sighing!

Oh, had I but eagle's pinions,
 Had I wings like the silver dove!
 Far away would I wander,
 I would hide me in the wilderness.
 On wings I would hasten to hide from the storm,
 The storm and fearful tempest.

God is my shepherd,
 I want for nothing.
 My rest is in the pleasant meadows.

He leadeth me where quiet waters flow.
My fainting soul doth he restore
And guideth me in the ways of peace,
To glorify his name.

And though in death's dark valley my steps must wander,
My spirit shall not fear, for thou art by me still.
Thy rod and staff are with me,
And they shall comfort me.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Isaiah 65:1-9

I was ready to be sought out by those who did not ask, to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, "Here I am, here I am," to a nation that did not call on my name. I held out my hands all day long to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices; a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and offering incense on bricks; who sit inside tombs, and spend the night in secret places; who eat swine's flesh, with broth of abominable things in their vessels; who say, "Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am too holy for you." These are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire that burns all day long. See, it is written before me: I will not keep silent, but I will repay; I will indeed repay into their laps their iniquities and their ancestors' iniquities together, says the Lord; because they offered incense on the mountains and reviled me on the hills, I will measure into their laps full payment for their actions. Thus says the Lord: As the wine is found in the cluster, and they say, "Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it," so I will do for my servants' sake, and not destroy them all. I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah inheritors of my mountains; my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall settle there.

Luke 8:26-39

Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me"—for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss. Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned. When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, "Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty,
the Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only son, our Lord:
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead and buried;
He descended into hell.
The third day he arose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERTORY SOLO

I Will Sing New Songs, from Ten Biblical Songs • Antonín Dvořák

I will sing new songs of gladness,
I will sing Jehovah's praises upon a ten-stringed psaltery.
Every day will I extol thee and will bless thy Holy Name,
I will bless thy Holy Name.

Great is God and great his mercy,
Who shall tell of all his greatness?
Who shall his power declare?
My song shall be of praise and honor, and of thy glorious acts.

Thy works are wonderful, past our knowing.
Yea, men shall tell of thy great kindness
And of thy wondrous might,
And my voice shall proclaim aloud thy glory.

POSTLUDE

Étude in C major, op. 10, no. 1 • Frédéric Chopin (1810–1849)

The ministry of music this morning is offered by:
Dr. Ryan Jackson, William S. Perper Director of Music and Fine Arts Ministries
Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist • Elyse Kakacek, Soprano

WORSHIP NOTES

The solos this morning are three selections from Antonín Dvořák's Ten Biblical Songs, composed in 1894. The song cycle is based on various psalms from the Czech-language Bible of Kralice, arranged and slightly modified by the composer for musical purposes. Each of the songs is quite short, and the entire set displays Dvořák's eloquent and expressive mastery of smaller musical forms.

Welcome Back, Rev. Beverly Dempsey!

This morning the Rev. Beverly Dempsey, pastor of Jan Hus Presbyterian Church, returns as our guest preacher. Rev. Dempsey is already a familiar face at Fifth Avenue, and this year she brings friends along! Members of the Jan Hus congregation are worshiping with us this summer as their church relocates from its original home on East 74th Street to a new location at East 90th Street and First Avenue. We welcome all of you from Jan Hus and pray for the continued success of your ministry as you begin this new chapter in your 145-year history in New York City.

Today: A Summer of Sacred Stories Begins

“A Summer of Sacred Stories,” a new, three-week program that employs Bible stories to explore some of life’s most profound questions, gets underway following worship today. Today’s event, featuring veteran Broadway actress Jeanne Lehman, begins at 11:30 am in Jones Auditorium. The class also meets on July 7 and July 21. Space is limited, so please RSVP for upcoming classes to Jaime Staehle (jstaehle@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3003).

Wednesday: Street Outreach to LGBTQ Youth

Last month one of our FAPC Serves teams worked with our mission partner Parity to create care kits for queer youth living on the streets of New York. This week, as the city fills with visitors for Pride Week, we will distribute the kits to youth in need. Volunteers are invited to gather in Kirkland Chapel at 6 pm Wednesday (June 26) for pizza and training by our social worker, John Sheehan, before we hit the streets. Contact John (jsheehan@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3020) for details.

Next Sunday: Volunteer with the Picnic or the Pride March

The 19th-annual Margaret Shafer Community Picnic is coming up at 12 pm next Sunday (June 30), in Central Park. Volunteers are needed to bring food, serve, set up/clean up and be part of the fellowship with our neighbors experiencing homelessness. For details, contact Meredith Fleck (homelessevents@fapc.org) or Séamus Campbell (scampbell@fapc.org). Sunday is also the day of the LGBTQ Pride March on Fifth Avenue. Our neighbors at First Presbyterian are once again staffing a water table to provide refreshment to the marchers, starting at 12:30 pm and continuing until the evening. See the listing at fapc.org/volunteer to sign up for a shift.

Join Us for Pride Sunday!

As New York City welcomes visitors to World Pride—marking the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall rebellion, a milestone in the LGBTQ equality movement—we invite you to worship with us next Sunday (June 30) in a service led by members of The Word Is Out, our LGBTQ community group. Our preacher will be Morgan King, M.Div., Fifth Avenue’s director of engagement.

New This Summer: Vacation Bible School + Praise Kids Workshop

Looking for a FULL DAY of fun for your kids this summer? We have two, back-to-back programs the week of Aug. 5–9 that we’d love for you to join! In the mornings, it’s Vacation Bible School: To Mars and Beyond. Children from age 3 through fifth grade are invited to join us as we discover the wonders of God’s universe on a journey through space. In the afternoons, we introduce the Praise Kids Music and Drama Workshop for children in kindergarten through fifth grade. Bring a sack lunch and join our music team for singing, drama, hand chimes and more. The week will culminate in a performance for parents on Friday, Aug. 9. Details are available at fapc.org/vbs, or contact Jaime Staehle (familyministries@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3003).

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org.

Community Life

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church offers an array of opportunities for fellowship. We gather for congregation-wide events (such as Homecoming and the Thanksgiving luncheon) several times a year. Community groups offer an opportunity for more intimate engagement within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s+30s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Our social clubs—City Club, CouplesPlus! and the Fifth Avenue Fellowship Club—gather for dinners and cocktail parties, museum and theater outings, and other social events throughout the year. Learn more about all of these opportunities at fapc.org. Contact: communitylife@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/prayer-requests. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Fifth Avenue Ecumenical Outreach Partnership

The Ecumenical Outreach Partnership is a collaboration among three midtown congregations – Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, Saint Thomas Church and St. Patrick's Cathedral. Working together, we are able to increase the level of support we provide to men and women experiencing homelessness and others in need of social services. The executive director, John Sheehan, LMSW, pursues street outreach and serves walk-in clients and individuals referred by Saint Thomas and St. Patrick's from his office at Fifth Avenue. We welcome your donations of warm clothing, bottled water, socks, toiletries and other essentials that our clients need. For more information, see fapc.org/fifth-avenue-ecumenical-outreach-partnership. Contact: John Sheehan (jsheehan@fapc.org).

Membership

When we say "All are welcome," we mean it. From the moment you walk through our doors, we invite you to be a part of our community. We want to learn your name, listen to your questions, and hear your story. Every step of the way, we choose you. In membership, you choose us. Through our Believing and Belonging seminars, you explore what it means to be a part of the Christian church, the Presbyterian tradition, and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Whether you're sure membership is right for you, or you're just beginning to wonder if this may be your spiritual home, we'd love to have you in an upcoming class. From time to time we may be taking video or photography in the Sanctuary, Kirkland Chapel and other parts of the church house (interior and exterior). By your presence, you grant Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church unrestricted rights to use and publish, transmit or telecast images or likeness that may be taken of you for use in communication related to the church. Help Put our Campaign over the Top!

The crowdfunding campaign we announced this month has generated contributions of more than $40,000. Thank you! Through this campaign, we hope to create a $50,000 fund to provide for refugee families and for our neighbors experiencing homelessness. See our campaign page at crowdrise.com/survive-the-streets. Please share it with others—particularly friends and associates outside our faith community—who may be interested in lending their support!
