

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
JULY 21, 2019 • 10:00 AM

Carlo Maratta, Christ and the Samaritan Woman, late 17th century

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries, programs and volunteer opportunities. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are welcome to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. (See the map on the back of the bulletin for the exact location.) If you are attending worship in Kirkland Chapel, the ushers can provide a worship bag to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

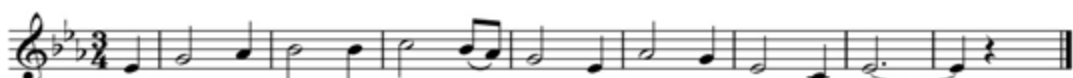

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.
Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.

- PRELUDE Prelude in D major, BWV 532 • J.S. Bach (1685–1750)
- * CALL TO WORSHIP
Deacon Lisa Cinelli
- Psalm 15*
- One: Lord, who may abide in your tent?
All: Those who walk blamelessly,
and do what is right,
and speak the truth from their heart.
- One: Lord, who may dwell on your holy hill?
All: Those who do not slander with their tongue,
and do no evil to their friends,
nor take up a reproach against their neighbors.
- One: Honor goes to those who fear the Lord.
All: To those who stand by God's holy Word.
- One: Let us worship God, tender and just.
- * HYMN 182 I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say
- * CALL TO CONFESSION
The Rev. Kate Dunn
- * PRAYER OF CONFESSION
- Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.
- Silent Reflection and Confession*
- * SUNG RESPONSE (Cantor sings once; then the congregation sings once.)
- To you, O God, I lift my soul, to you, I lift my soul.____

SOLO

Quia respexit, from Magnificat, BWV 243 – J.S. Bach (1685–1750)

*Quia respexit humilitatem ancillae suae,
 Ecce enim ex hoc beatam me dicent.*

For he has looked with favor on his humble servant,
 See, from now on I will be called blessed.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

So he came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon. A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, 'Give me a drink'. (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, 'How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?' (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, 'If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, "Give me a drink", you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.' The woman said to him, 'Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?' Jesus said to her, 'Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.' The woman said to him, 'Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.'

Jesus said to her, 'Go, call your husband, and come back.' The woman answered him, 'I have no husband.' Jesus said to her, 'You are right in saying, "I have no husband"; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!' The woman said to him, 'Sir, I see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem.' Jesus said to her, 'Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.' The woman said to him, 'I know that Messiah is coming' (who is called Christ). 'When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us.' Jesus said to her, 'I am he, the one who is speaking to you.'

Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, 'What do you want?' or, 'Why are you speaking with her?' Then the woman left her water-jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, 'Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?' They left the city and were on their way to him.

Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, 'Rabbi, eat something.' But he said to them, 'I have food to eat that you do not know about.' So the disciples said to one another, 'Surely no one has brought him something to eat?' Jesus said to them, 'My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work. Do you not say, "Four months more, then comes the harvest"? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting. The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, "One sows and another reaps." I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.'

Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman's testimony, 'He told me everything I have ever done.' So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there for two days. And many more believed because of his word. They said to the woman, 'It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Savior of the world.'

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Kellie Picallo

“The Way God Sees Us”

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from A Declaration of Faith, Presbyterian Church (USA)

In the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus

God kept his promises.

All that we can ever hope for was present in Christ.

But the work of God in Christ is not over.

God calls us to hope for more than we have yet seen.

The hope God gives us

is ultimate confidence that supports us

when lesser hopes fail us.

In Christ God gives hope for a new heaven and earth,

certainty of victory over death,

assurance of mercy and judgment beyond death.

This hope gives us courage for the present struggle. Amen.

WORSHIP NOTES

The Magnificat text, from the Gospel of Luke, portrays Mary's response to Elizabeth, who has greeted Mary as the mother of God. J.S. Bach divided the text into 12 movements. Originally written for Christmas in 1723, the complete Magnificat lasts roughly 25 minutes. By using large performing ensembles of choir and orchestra, Bach created a festive Magnificat that conveys a jubilant atmosphere to the listener.

Mozart's Alleluia is the fourth and final movement from his motet Exsultate Jubilate, K. 165, composed in 1773. At the time, Mozart was staying in Milan during the production of his opera Lucio Silla. Venanzio Rauzzini, a featured performer in the opera, impressed Mozart greatly with talent, and the Exsultate Jubilate was written for him. This work is technically intricate and shares virtuosic characteristics with some of Mozart's concert arias.

Today: A Summer of Sacred Stories Concludes

“A Summer of Sacred Stories,” our new, three-week program that employs Bible stories to explore some of life’s most profound questions, concludes today with part three, “Telling the Story.”

The class meets at 11:30 am in Jones Auditorium. If you missed the earlier classes, you are still welcome to come!

Thursday: Cooking with Shelter Guests

Dinner plans for Thursday (July 25)? Here’s an idea: Join Outreach volunteer Rusty Breedlove in the kitchen of Bonnell Hall to prepare supper for our guests in the David B. Skinner Shelter. Cooking starts at 5:30 pm, then we’ll enjoy food and fellowship in the Shelter around 7:30. Contact Rusty (rustybreedlove@gmail.com) for details on this monthly ministry, and check out upcoming dates at fapc.org/volunteer. New participants are always welcome!

Vacation Bible School Is Just Two Weeks Away!

Looking for a FULL DAY of fun for your kids this summer? We have two, back-to-back programs the week of Aug. 5–9 that we’d love for you to join. In the mornings, it’s Vacation Bible School: To Mars and Beyond. Children from age 3 through fifth grade are invited to join us as we discover the wonders of God’s universe on a journey through space. In the afternoons, we introduce the Praise Kids Music and Drama Workshop for children in kindergarten through fifth grade. Bring a sack lunch and join our music team for singing, drama, hand chimes and more. Details are available at fapc.org/vbs, or contact Jaime Staehle (familyministries@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3003).

Opportunities for Youth at Vacation Bible School

Vacation Bible School isn’t just for kids! We have a full week of service opportunities available for youth as well. Youth are invited to volunteer with VBS in the mornings. Then we’ll head out into the city to do mission activities in the afternoons. Contact the Rev. Werner Ramirez (wramirez@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3013) for details and to sign up!

We Need Volunteers for Vacation Bible School

If you have a heart for the children of our congregation, please consider how you can help us get ready for one of our biggest weeks of the year. We’ll be decorating the Christian Education Center on two upcoming afternoons—Monday, July 29, 11 am to 1 pm, and Sunday, Aug. 4, 11:30 am to 2:30 pm. There will be pizza! We’re also having our final volunteer meeting on Aug. 4 at 11:30 am in the Christian Education Center. If you’d like to be part of Vacation Bible School, we are still looking for snack leaders, crew leaders (similar to a camp counselor) and a recreation leader. Contact: Jaime Staehle (jstaehle@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3003).

Coming Up: Homelessness and Justice-Centered Hospitality

The Rev. Jordan Tarwater, executive director and minister of the Urban Outreach Center at Jan Hus Presbyterian Church, is our guest on Sunday, Aug. 4, as we observe Homelessness and Affordable Housing Sunday. In his presentation, “Homelessness and Justice-Centered Hospitality,” Rev. Tarwater will describe the work of the Urban Outreach Center, which serves nearly 30,000 of New York’s most vulnerable people every year. This event will begin at 11:30 am in Jones Auditorium.
