

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SEPTEMBER 22, 2019 • 11:00 AM

Nikola Sarić, Parable of the Unjust Judge, 2014

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries, programs and volunteer opportunities. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are welcome to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. (See the map on the back of the bulletin for the exact location.) If you are attending worship in Kirkland Chapel, the ushers can provide a worship bag to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ANTHEM Os Justi • Anton Bruckner (1824–1896), Text: Psalm 37:30-31

Os justi meditabitur sapientiam, et lingua ejus loquetur judicium.	The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom, and his tongue speaks what is just.
Lex Dei ejus in corde ipsius: et non supplantabuntur gressus ejus.	The law of his God is in his heart; and his steps will not be impeded.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Exodus 23:1-9

You shall not spread a false report. You shall not join hands with the wicked to act as a malicious witness. You shall not follow a majority in wrongdoing; when you bear witness in a lawsuit, you shall not side with the majority so as to pervert justice; nor shall you be partial to the poor in a lawsuit. When you come upon your enemy's ox or donkey going astray, you shall bring it back. When you see the donkey of one who hates you lying under its burden and you would hold back from setting it free, you must help to set it free. You shall not pervert the justice due to your poor in their lawsuits. Keep far from a false charge, and do not kill the innocent and those in the right, for I will not acquit the guilty. You shall take no bribe, for a bribe blinds the officials, and subverts the cause of those who are in the right. You shall not oppress a resident alien; you know the heart of an alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.

Luke 18:1-8

Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.’ For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, ‘Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.’” And the Lord said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?”

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

“Learning to Love Justice”

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from A Brief Statement of Faith, Presbyterian Church (USA)

In a broken and fearful world
the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior,
to unmask idolatries in Church and culture,
to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
and to work with others for justice, freedom and peace.
In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit,
we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks
and to live holy and joyful lives, even as we watch for God’s new heaven and new earth, praying, “Come, Lord Jesus!” Amen.

WORSHIP NOTES

The composer of this morning's anthem, Anton Bruckner, was born in 1824 in the northern Austrian town of Ansfelden. Bruckner loved and assiduously studied the music of Renaissance Italian polyphonic masters such as Palestrina, as well as German Baroque composers, especially J.S. Bach. These diverse elements are brought together, along with the boldly Romantic aesthetic inherited from Wagner, in Bruckner's sacred motets. Os justi was composed in 1879, the same year that Bruckner began work on his sixth symphony. This extraordinary motet, which sets Psalm 37:30–31, is set in the Lydian mode, and Bruckner achieves striking harmonic effects without using a single sharp or flat note.

The Offertory Anthem, "What Does the Lord Require of You?", was written in 2005 by Mark Miller. Miller serves as assistant professor of church music at Drew Theological School and is a lecturer in the practice of sacred music at Yale University. He is also the minister of music at Christ Church in Summit, New Jersey. Miller's memorable setting of this famous reading from Micah playfully combines two primary musical inspirations: the African American gospel tradition, and the Baroque contrapuntal style of J.S. Bach.

Next Sunday: Congregational Meeting

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church will convene a Congregational Meeting next Sunday (Sept. 29) at the close of the 11 am service to hear a report and take action regarding a proposed gift of land. All members are encouraged to attend.

Today: Adult Education Returns with a Study of the Shema

Adult Education is taking the fall sermon series—Curate Your Heart—to heart! Many of our classes this fall center on the themes our preachers are exploring from the pulpit. Today we welcome Rabbi Mollie Cantor from Jewish Theological Seminary for a discussion of the Shema, which many consider the most essential prayer in Judaism. We will discover what this prayer has meant to the Christian tradition and its enduring relevance today. Her class begins at 12:30 pm in the Corning Logan Room.

Opening Today: A Retrospective of Our Music Ministry

Today the Arts & Our Faith Committee unveils a historical retrospective of the music ministry that serves this congregation. Faith in Song: 200 Years of Music Ministry is now on view in the Chesnut Gallery. Come learn about the advent of congregational singing (a thorny issue in the 19th century!), our first organ, and the many renowned musicians who have been part of our music program since the church's founding in 1808. The exhibit will remain on view through Thanksgiving.

New Dates: Pageant Auditions & Stewardship Workshop

Parents, please note these new dates on the Family Ministries calendar! Auditions for this year's Christmas Pageant have been rescheduled for Sunday, Oct. 6, immediately following the 11 am service, in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Contact: Eugenia Yau (eyau@fapc.org). The family stewardship workshop, "Giving Together," will now meet for two weeks instead of three. The first session is on Sunday, Oct. 6, at 12:30 pm. This session is for parents (something to do while the kids are auditioning!). The second session, on Sunday, Oct. 13, is for parents and children together. Contact: Jaime Staehle (jstaehle@fapc.org).

Interested in Joining the Church? It's Easy as 1-2-3

Step 1: Come to "Belonging in Community," a discussion of the rewards and responsibilities of membership, next Sunday (Sept. 29) at 9:30 am in the Corning Logan Room. Step 2: Come to "Believing in the Church," a class on the Presbyterian tradition and the future of our denomination, at 9:30 am Sunday, Oct. 6. Both classes are in the Corning Logan Room, and both are required for membership. Step 3? That's when we welcome you into the congregation—on Sunday, Oct. 13, at 11 am. To enroll, contact: Morgan King (mking@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3005).

Coming Up: Mystics with Macie, Starting Oct. 1

Building on the success of our Lenten spirituality classes, we invite you to a four-part series on Christian mystics starting on Tuesday, Oct. 1. Seminarian Macie Sweet will lead a study of the leading figures, texts and practices of this ancient tradition. Email communitygroups@fapc.org if you want to join! Classes will meet on Tuesdays through Oct. 22 at 6:30 pm in the Romeyn Room.

Save the Date: Women's Winter Sabbath
