

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

OCTOBER 20, 2019 • 11:00 AM

He Qi, Good Samaritan, 2001

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries, programs and volunteer opportunities. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are welcome to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. (See the map on the back of the bulletin for the exact location.) If you are attending worship in Kirkland Chapel, the ushers can provide a worship bag to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

*As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.
Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.*

PRELUDE

Tocatta and Fugue in C major, BWV 566a • J.S. Bach (1685–1750)

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Deacon Vijay Wijesundera

One: God calls us to love our neighbor as ourselves;

All: the one who is strong and the one who is struggling,

One: the one who is easy to embrace
and the one we would rather shun,

All: the one whom we understand and the one we don't.

One: Come, let us worship together.

All: We come, trusting God's abundant love.

* HYMN 301

Let Us Build a House

* CALL TO CONFESSION

The Rev. Kate Dunn

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

Silent Reflection and Confession

* SUNG RESPONSE

(Cantor sings once; then the congregation sings once.)

Musical notation for the Sung Response, Kyrie eleison. The notation is in 3/4 time and consists of two staves. The first staff is for the Cantor and the second staff is for the congregation. The lyrics are: Ky - ri - e e - le - i - son, ky - ri - e e - le - i - son, ky - ri - e e - le - i - son, ky - ri - e e - le - i - son.

* PASSING OF THE PEACE One: The peace of Christ be with you.
 All: And also with you.

Children (pre-K through second grade) are invited to the front of the Sanctuary to depart for Children's Church. If this is your child's first time in Children's Church, please fill out the purple label in the pew rack and affix to your child's back.

LITANY OF PARTING

Congregation: May God be with you there.

Children: May God be with you here.

ANTHEM

If Ye Love Me • Thomas Tallis (1505–1585)
Text: John 14:15-17

If ye love me, keep my commandments,
And I will pray the Father,
And he shall give you another Comforter,
That he may abide with you forever,
Ev'n the Spirit of truth.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

1 John 4:7-21

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.

And we have seen and do testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. God abides in those who confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and they abide in God. So we have known and believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them.

Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. We love because he first loved us. Those who say, "I love God," and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

Mark 12: 28-31

One of the scribes came near and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, he asked him, "Which commandment is the first of all?" Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Scott Black Johnston

"Learning to Love Your Neighbor"

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from The Confession of 1967, Presbyterian Church (USA)

The life, death, resurrection and promised coming of Jesus Christ has set the pattern for the Church's mission.

His human life involves the Church in the common life of all people.

His service to men and women commits the Church to work for every form of human well-being.

His suffering makes the Church sensitive to all human suffering so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of persons in every kind of need. Amen.

Let Us Love in Deed and Truth • Larry King (1932–1990)
Text: 1 John 3:17-23

If anyone has the world's goods, and sees his neighbor in need,
Yet closes his heart against him,
 how does God's love abide in him?
Let us not love in word or speech, but in deed and in truth.
By this we shall know that we are of the truth:
We have confidence before our God,
And we receive from him whatever we ask,
Because we keep his commandments, and do what pleases him.
And this is his commandment,
 that we should believe in his Son, Jesus Christ,
 and love one another.

Go with Us, Lord • Thomas Tallis
Words by Mary Jackson Cathey (b. 1926)

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way
Through this and every coming day,
That in your Spirit strong and true
Our lives may be our gift to you.

POSTLUDE

Prelude and Fugue in C major, BWV 545 • J.S. Bach

The ministry of music this morning is offered by:
The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir • FAPC Community Choir
Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist

WORSHIP NOTES

The composer of the Anthem this morning, Thomas Tallis (1505–1585), figures prominently in the history of English church music and is widely considered to be one of England’s greatest early composers. Throughout his service to successive English monarchs as organist and composer, Tallis managed to avoid the religious controversies raging around him between Protestantism and Roman Catholicism (though, like William Byrd, Tallis remained an “unreformed Roman Catholic” throughout his life). Tallis was capable of switching the style of his compositions to suit the different monarchs’ vastly different demands. During the reign of King Edward VI (1547–1553) it was mandated that all services be sung in English (as opposed to the traditional Latin), and that the choral music be brief and succinct, “to each syllable a plain and distinct note” so as to be easily understood. “If Ye Love Me” is an elegant example of this new style of English anthem. Featuring a clear setting of the text and restrained emotion, the piece remains incredibly expressive and distinctly the voice of Tallis.

The Offertory Anthem was composed by the gifted American organist and composer Larry King (1932–1990). Probably not the Larry King that first comes to mind, this Larry King served as organist and director of music at Trinity Church Wall Street for 21 years before his death from melanoma at the age of 58. King composed “Let Us Love in Deed and Truth” for the church’s volunteer family choir, which he directed. The warmth and tenderness of King’s setting of the text from 1 John is a beautiful musical illustration of the profound simplicity in the teaching that lies at the heart of our faith: that we believe in God’s Son and love one another.

The 2020 Pledge Campaign Begins Today

Great Is Thy Faithfulness: The 2020 Pledge Campaign begins today and continues through Nov. 24. All members and past contributors will receive pledge materials by mail this week. (And our Sunday School kids are receiving theirs in class today!) We urge all members and friends to consider what you can do to support the mission and ministries of the church in the coming year. If you do not receive your pledge materials, contact us at fapc@fapc.org, and we'll make sure you do! You may return your pledge card by mail or drop it in the offering plate on Sunday. You may also pledge online at fapc.org/pledge. Thank you for your faithfulness to this community of faith!

Welcome, New Members!

With joy and thanksgiving, we welcomed these new members into our church family last Sunday:

May Chen	George Connerat	Jacob Czarnick	Thiago Lopes
Amy Chung	Katherine Crockett	Gray Jones	Sarah Spencer

Today: Bread for the World Offering of Letters

Bread for the World is an ecumenical Christian organization fighting hunger at home and abroad. Today we are participating in the organization's Offering of Letters, urging U.S. senators and representatives to invest in programs that help communities facing hunger and poverty. We invite you to the Vestry after the 9:30 or 11 am service to write your members of Congress. Addresses, paper and ink will be provided!

Saturday: Fall Festival!

All families are invited to join us on Saturday (Oct. 26) at 10 am for a two-hour celebration of fall! The Christian Education Center will come alive with games and crafts, a bouncy house, mini-golf, face painting and lots of food! Wear a costume and join our costume parade. There is a $20 suggested donation for families. New faces are always welcome!

Next Sunday: A C.S. Lewis Double Bill!

C.S. Lewis fans, next Sunday (Oct. 27) is for you, as Adult Education and Theatre Fellowship team up to present a double bill. First, we invite you to "With Joy: The Shadowlands Brighten," a conversation with the renowned Lewis expert Dr. James Como. Dr. Como will speak at 12:30 pm in the Corning Logan Room. Afterward, come downstairs to Jones Auditorium for a dramatic reading of Shadowlands, William Nicholson's acclaimed play (and a 1993 film starring Anthony Hopkins as C.S. Lewis). Shadowlands is based on Lewis' relationship with the American writer Joy Gresham. Dr. Como will read the part of Lewis, and our own Broadway veteran Jeanne Lehman will read the role of Joy. This special event will be presented free of charge at 2 pm.

Registration Is Open for the Perper Faith-Health Symposium

Understanding Addiction: A Community Approach to Healing is the theme of the eighth-annual William S. Perper Symposium, hosted by Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church on Thursday, Nov. 14. Experts from Johns Hopkins, the NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, and Judson Memorial Church will address issues in spiritual care and medicine during this day-long event, which is free and open to all. Read more at fapc.org/events, and register online at williamperpersymposium.rsvpify.com.

Save the Date: Women's Winter Sabbath

The 2020 Women's Winter Sabbath is set for the weekend of Jan. 24–26. We will return to the Community of St. John Baptist in Mendham, New Jersey. Mark your calendars, and watch for registration information coming soon.

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org.

Community Life

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church offers an array of opportunities for fellowship. We gather for congregation-wide events (such as Homecoming and the Thanksgiving luncheon) several times a year. Community groups offer an opportunity for more intimate engagement within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s+30s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Our social clubs—City Club, CouplesPlus! and the Fifth Avenue Fellowship Club—gather for dinners and cocktail parties, museum and theater outings, and other social events throughout the year. Learn more about all of these opportunities at fapc.org. Contact: communitylife@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/prayer-requests. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Fifth Avenue Ecumenical Outreach Partnership

The Ecumenical Outreach Partnership is a collaboration among three midtown congregations – Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, Saint Thomas Church and St. Patrick's Cathedral. Working together, we are able to increase the level of support we provide to men and women experiencing homelessness and others in need of social services. The executive director, John Sheehan, LMSW, pursues street outreach and serves walk-in clients and individuals referred by Saint Thomas and St. Patrick's from his office at Fifth Avenue. We welcome your donations of warm clothing, bottled water, socks, toiletries and other essentials that our clients need. For more information, see fapc.org/ecumenical-outreach. Contact: John Sheehan (jsheehan@fapc.org).

Membership

When we say "All are welcome," we mean it. From the moment you walk through our doors, we invite you to be a part of our community. We want to learn your name, listen to your questions, and hear your story. Every step of the way, we choose you. In membership, you choose us. Through our Believing and Belonging seminars, you explore what it means to be a part of the Christian church, the Presbyterian tradition, and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Whether you're sure membership is right for you, or you're just beginning to wonder if this may be your spiritual home, we'd love to have you in an upcoming class. Email Morgan King (mking@fapc.org) or visit fapc.org/membership to learn more.

Mission Partners

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church supports a diverse group of mission partners whose missions and ministries align closely with our own. Read more at fapc.org/mission-partners.

Music + Arts

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church is home to a versatile program of arts in our worship and community life that endeavors to inspire, challenge and comfort all who encounter it, and to provide opportunities to share our artistic gifts. In addition to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir and Chamber Choir, we offer the FAPC Community Choir, an entry-level ensemble that meets on Thursday evenings. Contact: music@fapc.org. Our Theatre Fellowship offers a mainstage production every spring, staged readings, a cabaret and other events during the year. Contact: theatre@fapc.org. The Arts & Our Faith Committee sponsors exhibitions of art, history and photography in the Chesnut Gallery, often featuring work by members of the congregation.

20s+30s

20s+30s is a diverse group of curious, adventurous people who are centered in our faith. We offer a number of programs to make you feel at home—our Sunday afternoon discussion group (Embrace), service projects, social events, retreats and more. Join us! We're online at fapc.org/20s-30s and on Instagram @FAPC20s30s. Contact: youngadults@fapc.org.

Volunteering

Volunteering is one of the most important ways we show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, host in the David B. Skinner Shelter, prepare and deliver meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, lead tours for members and visitors, and work with the underserved of New York City. To learn more about our diverse volunteer opportunities, and how you can join in, visit fapc.org/volunteer or email volunteer@fapc.org.

Women's Association

The Women's Association invites the women (and men!) of the congregation to our program of education, service, prayer and benevolence. Our Tuesday luncheons ($15, Bonnell Hall), featuring guest speakers and entertainment, are open to all. Our programs are listed every Sunday in the bulletin's Calendar of Events. Contact: wassoc@fapc.org.

Important Announcement about the Gotto Lecture

Registrations for the second-annual Anita and Antonio Gotto Lecture on Oct. 30 have reached capacity. We are now accepting sign-ups for a waiting list. If you have registered, please arrive early so that you have time to present your ticket, pass through security and secure your seat. Doors will open at 6:15 pm. The lecture—by New York Times columnist and author David Brooks—will begin at 7.

You may sign up for the waiting list at fapc.org/lecture.
