

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT
DECEMBER 15, 2019 • 9:30 AM

You fixed your sight
On your servant's plight,
And my weakness you did not spurn,
So from east to west
Shall my name be blest.
Could the world be about to turn?

—Rory Cooney

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, or hand it to an usher. You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary just after the 11 am service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return these materials to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are welcome to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. (See the map on the back of the bulletin for the exact location.) If you are attending worship in Kirkland Chapel, the ushers can provide a worship bag to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Luke 1:46-55

And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant. Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed; for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name. His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation. He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts. He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly; he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty. He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever.”

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Psalm 146:5-7

Happy are those whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord their God,
who made heaven and earth,

who keeps faith forever;
who executes justice for the oppressed;
who gives food to the hungry. Amen.

At 1 pm, members and friends of our Youth Group are invited to Bonnell Hall for some holiday baking with expert chef April Fellers (aka Pastor Werner's wife). For youth who would like to learn some new recipes (or eat them), April will lead a fun time in the kitchen.

Wednesday: Homeless Persons' Memorial Day + LGBTQ Youth Outreach

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church is the venue on Wednesday (Dec. 18) for the Homeless Persons' Memorial Day program, sponsored by Care for the Homeless and Urban Pathways. This program commemorates New Yorkers who passed away this year without stable housing. The event in Bonnell Hall begins with supper at 4:30 pm, followed by the program at 5:30. It is free and open to all. Afterward, our mission partner Parity invites volunteers for an evening of outreach to LGBTQ youth who are living on the streets. Join the Rev. Marian Edmonds-Allen in Bonnell Hall for training before heading out to deliver care packages for the youth. Details on both events are available at fapc.org/volunteer.

Thursday: Travelers Christmas Eve

Our Travelers Christmas Eve service is set for 6:30 pm Thursday (Dec. 19) in Kirkland Chapel. Travelers Christmas Eve is a Fifth Avenue tradition, designed for members and friends who will be on the road next week and don't want to miss Christmas Eve with their church family. All are welcome to this beautiful candlelight service. For our complete schedule of Christmas services, see fapc.org/worship.

Christmas Day: Volunteer with Meals on Heels

On Christmas morning (Wednesday, Dec. 25), our Meals on Heels chefs will prepare a holiday feast that we will deliver to elderly and homebound neighbors in midtown. To help with the cooking, join us at 9:30 am in Bonnell Hall on the second floor. If you are available for deliveries, come upstairs immediately after the 11 am service that day. Contact: John Wyatt (moh@fapc.org).

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all, with no registration required. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org.

Community Life

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church offers an array of opportunities for community fellowship. We gather for congregation-wide events (such as Homecoming and the Thanksgiving luncheon) several times a year. Community groups offer an opportunity for more intimate engagement within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s/30s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Our social clubs—City Club, CouplesPlus! and the Fifth Avenue Fellowship Club—gather for dinners and cocktail parties, museum and theater outings, and other social events throughout the year. Contact: community@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/prayer-requests. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, FAPC-U (our college ministry), Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Membership

When we say "All are welcome," we mean it. From the moment you walk through our doors, we invite you to be a part of our community. We want to learn your name, listen to your questions, and hear your story. Every step of the way, we choose you. Then in membership, you choose us. The process is simple. Through our Believing and Belonging seminars, you explore what it means to be a part of the Christian church, the Presbyterian tradition, and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Whether you're sure membership is right for you, or you're just beginning to wonder if this may be your spiritual home, we'd love to have you in an upcoming class. Email Morgan King (mking@fapc.org) or visit fapc.org/membership to learn more.

20s+30s

20s+30s is a diverse group of curious, adventurous people who are centered in our faith. We offer a number of programs to make you feel at home—our Sunday afternoon discussion group (Embrace), service projects, social events, retreats and more. Join us! Volunteering is one of the most important ways we show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, host in the David B. Skinner Shelter, prepare and deliver meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, lead tours for members and visitors, and work with the underserved of New York City.
