

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

FEBRUARY 16, 2020 • 11:00 AM

Salvador Dalí, The Persistence of Memory, 1931

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries, programs and volunteer opportunities. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are welcome to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. (See the map on the back of the bulletin for the exact location.) If you are attending worship in Kirkland Chapel, the ushers can provide a worship bag to keep your child engaged. (You may return these materials at the end of the service.) We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

*As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.
Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.*

PRELUDE

Master Tallis's Testament • Herbert Howells (1892–1983)

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Deacon Fred Cannon

from Psalm 100

One: Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.

All: Worship the Lord with gladness.

One: Come into God's presence with singing!

All: For the Lord is a gracious God,

One: whose mercy is everlasting;

All: and whose faithfulness endures to all generations.

One: Let us worship Almighty God, tender and just.

* HYMN 32

I Sing the Mighty Power of God

* CALL TO CONFESSION

The Rev. Werner Ramirez

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

Silent Reflection and Confession

* SUNG RESPONSE

(Cantor sings once; then the congregation sings once.)

Take, O take me as I am; sum-mon out what I shall be; set your seal up-on my heart and live in me.

My Eyes for Beauty Pine • Herbert Howells
Text by Robert Bridges (1844–1930)

My eyes for beauty pine, my soul for Goddes grace,
No other care nor hope is mine, to heaven I turn my face.
One splendour thence is shed from all the stars above:
'Tis named when God's name is said,
'Tis Love, 'tis heavenly Love.
And every gentle heart that burns with true desire,
Is lit from eyes that mirror part of that celestial fire.

* PASSING OF THE PEACE

One: The peace of Christ be with you.
All: And also with you.

Children (pre-K through second grade) are invited to the front of the Sanctuary to depart for Children's Church. If this is your child's first time in Children's Church, please fill out the purple label in the pew rack and affix to your child's back.

LITANY OF PARTING

Congregation: May God be with you there.

Children: May God be with you here.

ANTHEM

Turn Back O Man • Gustav Holst (1874–1934)
Text by Clifford Bax (1886–1962)

Turn back, O man, forswear thy foolish ways.
Old now is earth, and none may count her days.
Yet thou, her child, whose head is crowned with flame,
Still wilt not hear thine inner God proclaim,
"Turn back, O man, forswear thy foolish ways!"

Earth might be fair, and all men glad and wise.
Age after age their tragic empires rise,
Built while they dream, and in that dreaming weep:
Would man but wake from out his haunted sleep,
Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise.

Earth shall be fair, and all her people one:
Nor till that hour shall God's whole will be done.
Now, even now, once more from earth to sky,
Peals forth in joy man's old undaunted cry:
"Earth shall be fair, and all her folk be one!"

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Psalm 90

Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God. You turn us back to dust, and say, "Turn back, you mortals." For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past, or like a watch in the night. You sweep them away; they are like a dream, like grass that is renewed in the morning; in the morning it flourishes and is renewed; in the evening it fades and withers. For we are consumed by your anger; by your wrath we are overwhelmed. You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your countenance. For all our days pass away under your wrath; our years come to an end like a sigh. The days of our life are seventy years, or perhaps eighty, if we are strong; even then their span is only toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away. Who considers the power of your anger? Your wrath is as great as the fear that is due you. So teach us to count our days that we may gain a wise heart. Turn, O Lord! How long? Have compassion on your servants! Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad as many days as you have afflicted us, and as many years as we have seen evil. Let your work be manifest to your servants, and your glorious power to their children. Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and prosper for us the work of our hands— O prosper the work of our hands!

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Agnes Norfleet

"Teach Us to Count Our Days"

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from A Declaration of Faith, 1977

God has allotted the precious gift of time to each of us.
Our life span is limited, and no hour comes again.
We acknowledge daily tasks and relationships
as our present calling from God.
As we invest life in careers and avocations,
we are to match our abilities to the world's needs.
We are to include in the rhythm of our lives times when we set aside our own working to enjoy the world's goodness and beauty and to worship its Creator. Amen.

The ministry of music this morning is offered by The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir
Dr. Ryan Jackson, William S. Perper Director of Music and Fine Arts Ministries
Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist

WORSHIP NOTES

The Offertory Anthem was composed by Ralph Vaughan Williams, a leading figure in 20th-century music who wrote extensively in all genres. Williams, an English composer, conductor and organist, also made an important contribution to sacred music as the editor of The English Hymnal, published in 1906 and still in use today. O how amiable was written for a church festival in 1934 and combines texts from Psalms 84 and 90, and concludes with the great hymn tune St. Anne, Our God, our help in ages past.

Welcome Back, Agnes!

We are delighted to welcome back the Rev. Dr. Agnes Norfleet as our guest preacher this morning. Agnes is the pastor of Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, where she has served since 2013. Agnes calls herself a “prenatal Presbyterian.” She grew up on the campus of Union Presbyterian Seminary in Richmond, where her father, an ordained minister, served as business manager, and her mother, a trained Christian educator, wrote children’s books and church school curriculum. Agnes is a graduate of Davidson College, and earned a master of divinity degree from Union Presbyterian Seminary and a D.Min. in Bible and Preaching from Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Georgia. During more than 30 years as an ordained pastor, she has served congregations in Atlanta, Decatur and Columbia, South Carolina.

Next Sunday: A New Art Exhibit, Plus Lunch + Listen

Next Sunday (Feb. 23) is a big day for the arts. The Arts & Our Faith Committee unveils its Lenten exhibition, Two Roads to Calvary, featuring the Stations of the Cross as depicted by two New York City artists—Fifth Avenue member Laura Fissinger, and Laura James, whose paintings Sermon on the Mount and Creation are part of the church’s permanent collection. Meet the artists at a reception following the 11 am service next Sunday in the Chesnut Gallery. Then come to Kirkland Chapel at 12:45 pm for Lunch + Listen, featuring our resident musicians Ryan Jackson and Patrick Kreeger on the Steinway. Find details on both events at fapc.org/events.

Feb. 26: Lent Begins

The holy season of Lent is just 10 days away. Ash Wednesday services are set for 12 and 6:30 pm, Feb. 26, in Kirkland Chapel. Copies of the 2020 Lenten Devotional will be available, or you can sign up to receive the daily devotionals online at fapc@fapc.org. Look for details on the Lenten sermon series, weekly classes in spiritual practice and more at fapc.org/lent.

City Club at Grand Central

City Club, a fellowship group for members and friends ages 40+, invites you to tour Grand Central Terminal on Wednesday, Feb. 26. The Municipal Art Society hosts a 75-minute tour of the 100-year-old landmark. Meet Jan Smith under the clock at 12:15 pm. Cost is $30 ($20 for seniors) and reservations are required. Contact: Jan Smith (jansmith380@aol.com, 212.945.9167).

Theatre Fellowship’s ‘Blithe Spirit’ Previews on March 5

Fifth Avenue’s Theatre Fellowship announces a revival of Noël Coward’s 1941 comedy Blithe Spirit. A preview is set for 7 pm Thursday, March 5, with opening night on Friday, March 6. Evening and Sunday matinees will continue through Sunday, March 15. All performances are in Jones Auditorium. Blithe Spirit revolves around a séance hosted by a novelist and attended by his second wife. When wife #1, now deceased, also shows up, the fun begins. Tickets are available at fapc.org/play or by calling Brown Paper Tickets (800.838.3006).

New Security Measures Are Now in Effect

At the recommendation of a Property Administration Committee task force, the church has implemented additional security measures to bring us in line with the best practices of our neighboring congregations. We are now inspecting all bags that members or visitors carry with them into worship and other public events. We may require that oversized items be checked with security for later pick-up. We also plan to provide security training for ushers and greeters, Sunday School teachers, officers, clergy and staff. Please see fapc.org/news for additional details.

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org.

Community Life

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church offers an array of opportunities for fellowship. We gather for congregation-wide events (such as Homecoming and the Thanksgiving luncheon) several times a year. Community groups offer an opportunity for more intimate engagement within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s+30s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Our social clubs—City Club, CouplesPlus! and the Fifth Avenue Fellowship Club—gather for dinners and cocktail parties, museum and theater outings, and other social events throughout the year. Learn more about all of these opportunities at fapc.org. Contact: community@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/prayer-requests. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Fifth Avenue Ecumenical Outreach Partnership

The Ecumenical Outreach Partnership is a collaboration among three midtown congregations – Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, Saint Thomas Church and St. Patrick's Cathedral. Working together, we are able to increase the level of support we provide to men and women experiencing homelessness and others in need of social services. The executive director, John Sheehan, LMSW, pursues street outreach and serves walk-in clients and individuals referred by Saint Thomas and St. Patrick's from his office at Fifth Avenue. We welcome your donations of warm clothing, bottled water, socks, toiletries and other essentials that our clients need. For more information, see fapc.org/ecumenical-outreach. Contact: John Sheehan (jsheehan@fapc.org).

Membership

When we say "All are welcome," we mean it. From the moment you walk through our doors, we invite you to be a part of our community. We want to learn your name, listen to your questions, and hear your story. Every step of the way, we choose you. In membership, you choose us. Through our Believing and Belonging seminars, you explore what it means to be a part of the Christian church, the Presbyterian tradition, and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Whether you're sure membership is right for you, or you're just beginning to wonder if this may be your spiritual home, we'd love to have you in an upcoming class. Email Morgan King (mking@fapc.org) or visit fapc.org/membership to learn more.

Mission Partners

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church supports a diverse group of mission partners whose missions and ministries align closely with our own. Read more at fapc.org/mission-partners.

Music + Arts

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church is home to a versatile program of arts in our worship and community life that endeavors to inspire, challenge and comfort all who encounter it, and to provide opportunities to share our artistic gifts. In addition to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir and Chamber Choir, we offer the FAPC Community Choir, an entry-level ensemble that meets on Thursday evenings. Contact: music@fapc.org. Our Theatre Fellowship offers a mainstage production every spring, staged readings, a cabaret and other events during the year. Contact: theatre@fapc.org. The Arts & Our Faith Committee sponsors exhibitions of art, history and photography in the Chesnut Gallery, often featuring work by members of the congregation.

20s+30s

20s+30s is a diverse group of curious, adventurous people who are centered in our faith. We offer a number of programs to make you feel at home—our Sunday afternoon discussion group (Embrace), service projects, social events, retreats and more. Join us! We're online at fapc.org/20s-30s and on Instagram @FAPC20s30s. Contact: youngadults@fapc.org.

Volunteering

Volunteering is one of the most important ways we show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, host in the David B. Skinner Shelter, prepare and deliver meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, lead tours for members and visitors, and work with the underserved of New York City. To learn more about our diverse volunteer opportunities, and how you can join in, visit fapc.org/volunteer or email volunteer@fapc.org.

Women's Association

The Women's Association invites the women (and men!) of the congregation to our program of education, service, prayer and benevolence. Our Tuesday luncheons ($15, Bonnell Hall), featuring guest speakers and entertainment, are open to all. Our programs are listed every Sunday in the bulletin's Calendar of Events. Contact: wassoc@fapc.org.

Great Is Thy Faithfulness!

Great Is Thy Faithfulness: The 2020 Pledge Campaign has received $2,873,280 in pledges from 447 households, putting us 96% toward our goal of $3 million. Thank you! If you did not receive your pledge materials in the mail, please pick up a brochure at either entrance.

You may return your pledge card by mail or drop it in the offering plate. You may also pledge online at fapc.org/pledge, or contact Tim Palmer Curl, director of Communications and Development (tpalmer@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3001).

Thank you for your faithfulness to Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church!
