

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
OCTOBER 10, 2021 • 11:00 AM

Otto Kuhler, Bedrock, 1928

This is God's House. All Are Welcome.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy or someone at our Welcome Table. We have tons of programs and community groups to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

Welcome

We’d love to connect! Please scan the QR code or fill out a Connect Card that you will find in your pew. You can fill it out online, or place the card into an offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Welcome Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance.) The folks at the Welcome Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs. Our Sanctuary Doors open at 10 am every Sunday.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin please ask an usher.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are welcome to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

Worship Resources Online

Head to fapc.org for information about future worship services. Our weekly video service, Light, Leaven & Salt, is available throughout the week at fapc.org/worship. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

In light of the Delta variant and the ongoing pandemic, Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church requires its members, visitors, and staff to properly wear a mask.

We encourage you to follow Christ’s command: “Love Your Neighbor!” Manifest your love by: Wearing a mask at church, distancing, and getting your jab (if you can)!

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Luke 6:46-49

“Why do you call me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not do what I tell you? I will show you what someone is like who comes to me, hears my words, and acts on them. That one is like a man building a house, who dug deeply and laid the foundation on rock; when a flood arose, the river burst against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not act is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the river burst against it, immediately it fell, and great was the ruin of that house.”

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Sarah A. Speed

“Foundation Work”

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from Iona Abbey Worship Book

We believe in Jesus,
Born in obscurity in an occupied land;
A human being, vulnerable to hunger, thirst,
Persecution and grief.
He understood the power of love
And confronted the powers of evil,
Spoke the truth with courage and clarity,
Forgave his enemies and changed lives.
In his living, dying and rising again
He showed love strong enough to save the world. Amen.

* HYMN 353

My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Rev. Dr. Jonah So

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.

CALL TO GIVE

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Jubilate Deo · Herbert Howells (1892–1983)

Text: Psalm 100

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
Serve the Lord with gladness,
And come before his presence with a song.
Be ye sure that the Lord he is God:
It is He that hath made us,
And not we ourselves;
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving,
And into his courts with praise.
Be thankful unto him, and speak good of his name.
For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting:
And his truth endureth from generation to generation.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be:
World without end. Amen.

* DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

* OFFERTORY PRAYER

* HYMN 463

How Firm a Foundation

* BENEDICTION

Please remain in your pew until the conclusion of the Choral Response.

* CHORAL RESPONSE

God Be with You Till We Meet Again

Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872–1958)

Text: Jeremiah Eames Rankin (1828–1904)

God be with you till we meet again;
Loving counsels guide, uphold you,
With a shepherd's care enfold you:
God be with you till we meet again.

WORSHIP NOTES

Music

The composer of this morning's anthem, Anton Bruckner, was born in 1824 in the northern Austrian town of Ansfelden. His father was a schoolteacher and church organist, and Bruckner began studying the organ, piano, and music theory at an early age. He became the cathedral organist at St. Florian in 1848 and began composing sacred music around the same time. In 1855, he went to Vienna to formally study harmony and counterpoint at the Vienna Conservatory, becoming the cathedral organist in Linz a year later. At the same time, Bruckner studied orchestration with Otto Kitzler, a cellist who introduced him to Wagner's operas. Wagner's music ended up having an enormous influence on Bruckner, particularly in his symphonic work. He completed his formal studies in 1861, and began to make a name for himself as a composer and an improviser at the organ. He moved to Vienna in 1868 to take appointments as the Emperor's court organist and to take over as professor of harmony and counterpoint at the Vienna Conservatory.

On his own, Bruckner assiduously studied the music of Renaissance Italian polyphonic masters such as Palestrina, as well as German Baroque composers, especially J.S. Bach. These diverse elements are brought together, along with the boldly Romantic aesthetic inherited from Wagner, in Bruckner's sacred motets. Perhaps the most famous of these, the gradual Locus iste, is often sung during services for the dedication of a church building. This four-part setting was composed in 1869 to celebrate the dedication of the votive chapel of the cathedral at Linz.

Herbert Howells was one of the most influential composers of English choral music in the 20th century. Born in Gloucestershire in 1892, Howells began his musical studies with the great Herbert Brewer at Gloucester Cathedral. In 1912, he won an open scholarship at the Royal College of Music, where he studied with Charles Villiers Stanford and Charles Wood, joining the faculty himself in 1920. He succeeded Gustav Holst in 1936 as Director of Music at St. Paul's Girls School (a post he held until 1962), and was appointed Professor of Music at London University in 1950.

The setting of Jubilate Deo, sung this morning, was composed as the second in a set of two morning canticles (along with a famous setting of the Te Deum) that Howells wrote for the choir of King's College, Cambridge (known in Latin as Collegium Regale). This collaboration turned out to be remarkably fruitful: in addition to the morning canticles, Howells composed a set of evening canticles (Magnificat and Nunc dimittis) for the King's College choir, as well as a setting of the complete Anglican communion liturgy. Howells' evocative and utterly distinctive compositional voice is at the very height of its maturity in these pieces, and their sound arguably redefined the aesthetics of church music going forward.

WORSHIP NOTES

The Fall Banner

“Rise, Refresh, Restore At The Well,” was created by artist Karen Brodie. She was inspired by Fifth Avenue’s journey to return to in-person worship.

Karen shares, “The banner design reminds us we have the deep well of living water before us always to drink of, and find new and restored life in. The well, infused with the Holy Spirit and richly overflowing with abundance reminds us of our participation in building the bricks and mortar of a container. God’s abundance is ever-present and ever refreshing. The well structure reminds us we are a part of this relationship of love too. It, and the water, may remind us of our baptism when we promised to live with God’s help. We are trusting that, like a seed, God offers us all we need to find this healing new life. In this way, we can rise to new life, hearing God’s call and purposefully choosing God’s kingdom. Thanks be to God.”
