

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church

FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT
MARCH 27, 2022 • 11:00 AM

Sir John Everett Millais, The Two Princes Edward and Richard in the Tower, c.1483

This Is God's House. All Are Welcome.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy or someone at our Welcome Table. We have tons of programs and community groups to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

Welcome

We’d love to connect! Please scan the QR code or fill out a Connect Card that you will find in your pew. You can fill it out online, or place the card into an offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Welcome Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). The folks at the Welcome Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs. Our Sanctuary doors open at 10 am every Sunday.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin please ask an usher.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are welcome to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

Worship Resources Online

Head to fapc.org for information about future worship services. Our weekly video service, Light, Leaven & Salt, is available throughout the week at fapc.org/worship. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

In response to Covid-19, Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church recommends that all in-person worshippers be fully vaccinated and boosted. If you are experiencing cold or flu symptoms, we ask you to “love your neighbors” by staying at home and worshipping via Livestream.

We now provide mask-required and mask-optional areas in our Sanctuary. Please ask an usher if you have any questions.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Luke 15:1-3, 11b-32

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, “This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.” So he told them this parable:

“There was a man who had two sons. The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.’ So he divided his property between them. A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living. When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything. But when he came to himself he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands.”’” So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him. Then the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ But the father said to his slaves, ‘Quickly, bring out a robe—the best one—and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!’ And they began to celebrate. “Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing. He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on. He replied, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.’ Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him. But he answered his father, ‘Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!’ Then the father said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.’”

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Jonah So

“The Beloved Sibling”

* PRAYER FOR THE DAY

How great is your love, Lord God, how wide is your mercy!

Never let us board up the narrow gate that leads to life with rules or doctrines that you dismiss;
but give us a Spirit to welcome all people with affection, so that your church may never exclude secret friends of yours,
who are included in the love of Jesus Christ,
who came to save us all. Amen.

* HYMN 418

Softly and Tenderly Jesus Is Calling

BAPTISM

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.

CALL TO GIVE

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

*Just As I Am · Bob Chilcott (b. 1955)
Text by Charlotte Elliot (1789–1871)*

Just as I am, without one plea
But that thy blood was shed for me,
And that thou bid'st me come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, though toss'd about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings within and fears without,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
Because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am (thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down;)
Now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, of that free love
The breadth, length, depth and height to prove,
Here for a season, then above,
O Lamb of God, I come.

* DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

* OFFERTORY PRAYER

* HYMN 774

There Is Now a New Creation

* BENEDICTION

Please remain in your pew until the conclusion of the Choral Response.

* CHORAL RESPONSE

A Celtic Prayer • Barry Peters, Text: Traditional

May the Christ who walks on wounded feet walk with you on the road.

May the Christ who serves with wounded hands stretch out your hands to serve.

May the Christ who loves with a wounded heart open up your hearts to love.

May you see the face of Christ in everyone you meet,

And may everyone you meet see the face of Christ in you. Amen.

POSTLUDE

Symphony no. 5, op. 47: V. Final • Louis Vierne

The ministry of music this morning is offered by the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir

Dr. Ryan Jackson, William S. Perper Director of Music and Fine Arts Ministries

Dr. Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist • Claire Myers-McCormick, Soprano

WORSHIP NOTES

The Anthem was composed in 2002 by the American composer Stephen Paulus. Over the course of his life, Paulus composed 150 works for chorus ranging from his moving Holocaust oratorio, To Be Certain of the Dawn, to the poignant anthem, Pilgrims' Hymn, sung at the funerals of Presidents Reagan and Ford. His works have received thousands of performances and recordings all over the world. The melody for The Road Home is derived from The Lone Wild Bird, an adaptation of the early nineteenth-century American folksong Prospect. Paulus found several texts inspired by this tune, but none of them seemed quite right for the slightly melancholy air of the melody. He turned to his longtime collaborator, poet Michael Dennis Browne, and commissioned a new text, which resulted in The Road Home. With the old tune married to new words, Paulus then made the piece his own with innovative harmonies and his signature, rich choral textures. Stephen Paulus passed away in October 2014 at the age of 65 due to complications arising from a stroke he suffered in July 2013.

Just As I Am is a very well-known hymn text, written by Charlotte Elliott in 1835. In his book, Hymns and Hymn Writers of the Church Hymnary, John Brownlie says that Elliott wrote the poem in one sitting following a painful period of spiritual questioning and growth: "The troubles of the night came back upon her with such force that she felt they must be met and conquered in the grace of God. She gathered up in her soul the great certainties, not of her emotions, but of her salvation: her Lord, His power, His promise. And taking pen and paper from the table she deliberately set down in writing, for her own comfort, 'the formulae of her faith.'" Bob Chilcott's setting for choir and organ is powerful in its simplicity, allowing the message of the text to speak for itself directly.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

If You Are in Need of Prayer

The John Brodhead Romeyn Task Force Invites Input

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church recently discovered that John Brodhead Romeyn, the church's founding pastor, owned a household slave, Betsey Jackson. Jackson was a charter member of this church in 1808. Other early members of the congregation were also slaveholders. Jackson was later freed and Romeyn eventually criticized the institution of slavery. A task force (Eric Daniels, Dale Hansen, Scott Black Johnston, Erica Moffett and Nancy Moore) has been formed to consider how best to take account of this history. How should this church exhibit honesty about our past, contrition in regard to our mistakes, and look forward with hope to envision the church God is calling us to be? As we think through these important questions, we invite you to partner with us. Please share your thoughts with us. Our email is romeyn@fapc.org.

Welcome New Members

A warm Fifth Avenue welcome to our new members who joined the church on March 20: Min Jin Lee, Christopher Duffy, Sam Duffy, Elize Kim, Jake Yoon, and Victor Chen.

Lenten Spiritual Practice: Labyrinth

Walking the labyrinth is an ancient path to deeper spirituality. Learn to walk the path to contemplative prayer. Join us in Jones Auditorium after worship on Sunday, April 3 at 12:30 pm. Sign up at fapc.org/events.

Lenten Concert: Verdi Requiem

A dramatic and powerful prayer for deliverance from death and hell, Verdi's Requiem is a thrilling product of years of experience as the world's greatest opera composer. The Shelest Piano Duo joins us for the world premiere of Dr. Ryan Jackson's thrilling new arrangement of this masterpiece for piano four-hands. These performances are dedicated to the memory of Antoine Hodge, beloved choir member who passed away from complications due to COVID-19 in February 2021. The concerts will take place Thursday, April 7 and Friday, April 8 at 7 pm in Kirkland Chapel. The Friday night concert will also be available via Livestream. To purchase your tickets, head to fapc.org/tickets.

The Final Gift

As our loved ones mature in grace and wisdom, conversations about end of life matters—such as a living will and advanced directives—remain challenging. Join Rev. Werner Ramirez and Rev. Kate Dunn on April 3 at 9:30 am EST to learn how to normalize these types of family planning conversations so that the final gift a loved one can leave you with is a peaceful passing. Join us on Zoom or in the Corning Logan Room for this hybrid event. To sign up, visit fapc.org/events.

Easter Flowers

The Easter Flower Fund is an opportunity for you to honor loved ones who have passed away. Memorial donations help to cover the cost of the flowers that fill the Sanctuary on Easter morning. The names of those you honor will be published in the Easter bulletin. A donation of $25 per honoree is suggested. To make a contribution visit fapc.org/easter-flower-fund or call Kristia Toleda (212.247.0490 ext 3007) by end of day Monday, April 4.

Fifth Avenue Service Trips

To join Fifth Avenue on one of our three upcoming trips, head to fapc.org/events to sign up.

- Youth Trip to The Center in Baltimore, July 24–30
- Adult Education trip to Oberammergau Passion Play, September 26 through October 4
- Outreach Ministries Trip to Appalachia, July 31 – August 6

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org/adult-ed.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also visit fapc.org/care to submit a prayer request and learn more about our congregational care program.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org/family.

Membership

When we say "All are welcome," we mean it. From the moment you walk through our doors, we invite you to be a part of our community. We want to learn your name, listen to your questions, and hear your story. Every step of the way, we choose you. In membership, you choose us. Through our Believing and Belonging seminars, you explore what it means to be a part of the Christian church, the Presbyterian tradition, and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Whether you're sure membership is right for you, or you're just beginning to wonder if this may be your spiritual home, we'd love to have you in an upcoming online class. Visit fapc.org/membership to learn more.

Music & Arts

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church is home to a versatile program of music and arts in our worship and community life that endeavors to inspire, challenge and comfort all who encounter it, and to provide opportunities to share our artistic gifts.

In addition to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir and Chamber Choir, we offer the Fifth Avenue Community Choir for entry-level vocalists. Visit fapc.org/choirs to learn more about our choirs.

Theatre Fellowship is a community of artists and artisans that promotes congregational fellowship through our shared love of the theater. They offer a mainstage production every spring, staged readings, a cabaret and other events during the year. This ministry is currently on hiatus.

The Arts & Our Faith Committee sponsors exhibitions of art, history and photography in the Chesnut Gallery, often featuring work by members of the congregation. Visit fapc.org/gallery for our online exhibitions.

Outreach and Missions

Outreach and Missions upholds the pulpit message of our pastors by serving those in need! Taking up cause, service and acting for vulnerable individuals and populations is our commitment to being light, leaven and salt. Our signature suite of Outreach programs includes: Homelessness and the David B. Skinner Shelter, Meals on Heels, the Ecumenical Outreach Partnership, A Place at the Table and Mission Partners. Members from across the church landscape participate in Outreach and Missions' events, volunteer their time and talents, and offer their leadership on various program committees to ensure that vulnerable and in need populations are supported by Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. To learn more about Outreach and Missions, or to volunteer with our two feeding ministries, Meals on Heels or A Place at the Table, please email: outreach@fapc.org.

20s+30s

20s+30s is a diverse group of curious, adventurous people who are centered in our faith. We offer a number of programs to make you feel at home—our Wednesday evening discussion group, service projects, social events, retreats and more. Join us! We're online at fapc.org/20s-30s and on Instagram @FAPC20s30s.

Volunteering

Volunteering is one of the most important ways we show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, prepare and deliver meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, lead tours for members and visitors, and work with the underserved of New York City. To learn more about our diverse volunteer opportunities visit fapc.org/volunteer.

Women's Association

The Women's Association invites the women (and men!) of the congregation to our program of education, service, prayer and benevolence. Our Tuesday luncheons ($15, Bonnell Hall), featuring guest speakers and entertainment, are open to all. All Women's Association programs will resume in the fall.

Spring Cleaning? The Women's Association's annual holiday bazaar will return this November. The Women's Association will gladly accept donations of art work, collectibles, new and gently used clothing, handbags, accessories and other items for the annual Joy of Christmas Bazaar. (No books, pots and pans, toys or electronics, please.) You may leave your items with the security desk at the 55th Street entrance.
