

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
JULY 10, 2022 • 10:00 AM

Sir John Everett Millais, The Good Samaritan, 1864

This Is God's House. All Are Welcome.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, gathered in the Sanctuary and online, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy or someone at our Welcome Table. We have lots of programs and community groups to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

Connect with Us

We invite you to look for the Connect Card in your pew (or ask an usher if you do not find it). You can submit it online using the QR code, or fill it out and place into the offering plate or hand it to an usher. Also, visit the Welcome Table just inside the Fifth Avenue entrance, where our volunteers will be happy to provide information on all of our ministries and programs.

Large-Print Bulletins

Please speak with an usher if you would like to use a large-print bulletin to follow the service.

Families with Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are free to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9:30 am until 11:30 am in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

Worship Resources Online

A replay of today’s service will be available this afternoon at fapc.org/worship. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray. Details about the upcoming service each week can be found at fapc.org/this-sunday. For information about future worship services, visit fapc.org/worship/calendar.

Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

We recommend that all who worship with us in person be vaccinated (and boosted) against Covid-19. If you are experiencing cold or flu symptoms, please stay home and worship with us via livestream. You will find the livestream service every week at fapc.org/worship.

We provide mask-required and mask-optional seating areas in the Sanctuary.
Please ask an usher if you have questions.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

*As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.
Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.*

PRELUDE

Prelude in G major, BWV 541 • J.S. Bach (1685–1750)

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Elder Sylvia Winrich

One: This is the day that the Lord has made;

All: let us rejoice and be glad in it!

One: With joy and praise,

All: we gather to worship God.

One: Wondering and wandering,

All: we are here to worship God.

One: Hopeful disciples of Jesus Christ,

All: let us worship God!

* HYMN 394

Christ Is Made the Sure Foundation

* CALL TO CONFESSION

The Rev. Dr. Jonah So

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

Silent Reflection and Confession

* SUNG RESPONSE

(Cantor sings once; then the congregation sings once.)

Take, O take me as I am; sum - mon out what I shall be; set your seal up - on my heart and live in me.

* PASSING OF THE PEACE

One: The peace of Christ be with you.
All: And also with you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SOLO

Messiah, HWV 56: No. 45, Air, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth"
G.F. Handel (1685–1759)

I know that my redeemer liveth
And that he shall stand
At the latter day, upon the earth
And though worms destroy this body
Yet in my flesh shall I see God
Yet in my flesh shall I see God
I know that my redeemer liveth
For now is Christ risen from the dead
The first fruits of them that sleep
For now is Christ risen from the dead

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Luke 10:25-37

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself." And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live." But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity.

He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.' Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Anna Pinckney Straight

"Samaritan and Some More"

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from A Declaration of Faith 1977

We believe in one true and living God.
That One is the Lord, whom we worship, serve and love.
God has not taken his people out of the world,
but has sent them into the world to worship God there,
and serve all humankind.
We worship God in the world
by standing before the Lord on behalf of all people.
Our cries for help and our songs of praise are never for ourselves alone.
Worship is no retreat from the world; it is part of our mission.
We serve humankind
by discerning what God is doing in the world and joining him in his work.
We risk disagreement and error
when we try to say what God is doing here and now.
But we find guidance in God's deeds in the past and his promises for the future,
as they are witnessed to in Scripture.
We affirm that the Lord is at work, especially in events and movements that free people
by the gospel and advance justice, compassion and peace.
We praise and enjoy God.
To worship God is highest joy.
To serve God is perfect freedom. Amen.

* HYMN 707

Take Thou Our Minds, Dear Lord

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Rev. Werner Ramirez

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.

CALL TO GIVE

OFFERTORY SOLO

When I Think Upon Thy Goodness
F.J. Haydn (1732–1809)

When I think upon thy goodness,
and recall thy tender care.
Then O God my heart rejoiceth
How great thy wonders are
For thy mercy ever floweth;
Like it hath no bound,
and thy truth is ever near us
for in thee is comfort found.
God is Mind and God is Spirit
He alone hath life and power
Now O God we sing and praise thee;
How great thy wonders are.
God is Love and faileth never.
On his power shall we rely.

* DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

* OFFERTORY PRAYER

* HYMN 757

Today We All Are Called to Be Disciples

* BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE

Fugue in G major, BWV 541 • J.S. Bach

The ministry of music this morning is offered by Dr. Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist • Megan Schubert, Soprano

WORSHIP NOTES

Handel's Messiah, one of the most popular oratorios in the canon of classical music, is full of exceptionally memorable movements: "The Trumpet Shall Sound," "Worthy is the Lamb," "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," and of course, the beloved "Hallelujah" chorus. This oratorio, which is divided into three parts outlining the liturgical year, contains 53 movements. This morning's excerpt, an aria, is the beginning of part three, which focuses on Christ's redemption and glorification in heaven. The uplifting and optimistic nature of the text is not reflected in a musically bombastic manner. Instead, Handel sets the words to pastoral-like music. Its gentle lilt coupled with its repetitive motifs underscore the hope and inevitability of Christ's resurrection.

This morning's second solo is a stand-alone work by Franz Joseph Haydn. Known as the "Father of the Symphony," Haydn also contributed to the development of the string quartet and piano trio. Some of his larger choral works include The Creation, The Seasons and several masses. Through our modern eyes, his musical connections were stunning: he was a friend of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756–1791) and a teacher of Ludwig van Beethoven (1770–1827). Haydn was a cheerful individual, and his joyous and spirited demeanor is conveyed through much of his writing, including "When I Think Upon Thy Goodness."

Welcome, Anna Pinckney Straight!

This morning Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church welcomes the Rev. Dr. Anna Pinckney Straight as our guest preacher. Anna last joined us virtually, during the lockdown of the summer of 2020. It is a blessing to have her worshipping with us in person today. Anna is the pastor and chief of staff at First Presbyterian Church in New Bern, North Carolina. A native of Charleston, South Carolina, Anna grew up in the Presbyterian Church, earned her Master of Divinity degree at Union Theological Seminary and was ordained by the Presbytery of New York City. During her 25 years in ministry, she has served congregations in North Carolina, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. We are delighted to welcome her back to New York City.

Starting Today: Our Two-Week, Virtual New Member Class

This afternoon we kick off our virtual new member class, “Believing & Belonging,” and it’s not too late for you to sign up. Over the next two Sundays, Associate Pastor Sarah Speed and Ashley Gonzalez, director of engagement, will lead a lively conversation about faith, community, the Presbyterian church and the Christian tradition. The first class is at 2 pm today on Zoom. Register at fapc.org/membership, or email Sarah at membership@fapc.org. Whether or not you choose to become a member of this church, you will find this class an enriching experience.

Next Sunday: Letters to Martin: Meditations on Democracy in Black America.

We invite you to an evening webinar next Sunday evening (July 17) as we welcome Dr. Randal Jelks, the author of Letters to Martin: Meditations on Democracy in Black America. Dr. Jelks is a professor of African and African American Studies and American Studies at the University of Kansas, and a friend and colleague of our associate pastor emeritus the Rev. Dr. Oscar McCloud. His book, written as a series of letters to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., addresses economic inequality, police brutality and other social issues. Sign up at fapc.org/events.

Sign Up for Kids Camp, Aug. 1–5

Families, sign up now for Fifth Avenue Kids Camp, a full week of games, music, Bible stories and more! Each morning will begin with a God in our Food Truck Party, followed by acting, singing and dancing in the afternoon (with a performance for families on Friday). Children from pre-school through fifth grade are invited. Before- and after-care is available for an additional fee, and scholarships are available. To register, complete the registration form at fapc.org/events, or email Jaime Staehle (familyministries@fapc.org).

Meals on Heels Needs Volunteers

Meals on Heels has been preparing, packaging and delivering home-cooked meals to our homebound neighbors for more than 30 years. Every Saturday morning, volunteers gather in Bonnell Hall at 8:30 am to start cooking, with deliveries going out the door by 11:15. We are looking for more volunteers for this fun and life-saving work! Learn more at fapc.org/meals-on-heels, and contact John Wyatt (moh@fapc.org) if you are interested in joining us.

Our Season of Lament Continues

More mass shootings marred the nation’s observance of Independence Day last weekend. At Fifth Avenue, we continue to mourn the deaths and lament the lives scarred by gun violence. We ask for your continued prayers. We invite you to visit the Wall of Lament in the Chesnut Gallery, or go to fapc.org/lament, to learn more about the scope of this tragedy and what you can do to help provide safeguards for our communities.

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org/adult-ed.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also visit fapc.org/care to submit a prayer request and learn more about our congregational care program.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. Our Little Lambs Nursery for infants and toddlers is available every Sunday throughout the year; the current hours are 9:30 to 11:30 am. Our Sunday morning youth and children's programming is on break for the summer, but we have lots of special events that we'd love to have your youth and children join us for. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org/family.

Fifth Avenue Young Adults (FAYA)

FAYA is a diverse group of curious, adventurous people who are centered in our faith. We offer a number of programs to make you feel at home. During the program year, we have a Wednesday evening gathering, service projects, social events, retreats and more. Throughout the summer, we focus on learning our city and fellowship. Join us! We're online at fapc.org/faya and on Instagram @FAPCFAYA.

Membership

When we say "All are welcome," we mean it. From the moment you walk through our doors, we invite you to be a part of our community. We want to learn your name, listen to your questions, and hear your story. Every step of the way, we choose you. In membership, you choose us. Through our Believing and Belonging seminars, you explore what it means to be a part of the Christian church, the Presbyterian tradition, and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Whether you're sure membership is right for you, or you're just beginning to wonder if this may be your spiritual home, we'd love to have you in an upcoming online class. Visit fapc.org/membership to learn more.

Music & Arts

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church is home to a versatile program of music and arts in our worship and community life that endeavors to inspire, challenge and comfort all who encounter it, and to provide opportunities to share our artistic gifts.

In addition to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir and Chamber Choir, we offer the Fifth Avenue Community Choir for entry-level vocalists. Visit fapc.org/choirs to learn more about our choirs.

Theatre Fellowship is a community of artists and artisans that promotes congregational fellowship through our shared love of the theater. They offer a mainstage production every spring, staged readings, a cabaret and other events during the year. This ministry is currently on hiatus.

The Arts & Our Faith Committee sponsors exhibitions of art, history and photography in the Chesnut Gallery, often featuring work by members of the congregation. Visit fapc.org/gallery for our online exhibitions.

Outreach and Missions

Outreach and Missions upholds the pulpit message of our pastors by serving those in need! Taking up cause, service and acting for vulnerable individuals and populations is our commitment to being light, leaven and salt. Our signature suite of Outreach programs includes: Homelessness and the David B. Skinner Shelter, Meals on Heels, the Ecumenical Outreach Partnership, A Place at the Table and Mission Partners. Members from across the church landscape participate in Outreach and Missions' events, volunteer their time and talents, and offer their leadership on various program committees to ensure that vulnerable and in need populations are supported by Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. To learn more about Outreach and Missions, or to volunteer with our two feeding ministries, Meals on Heels or A Place at the Table, please email outreach@fapc.org.

Volunteering

Volunteering is one of the most important ways we show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, prepare and deliver meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, lead tours for members and visitors, and work with the underserved of New York City. To learn more about our diverse volunteer opportunities visit fapc.org/volunteer.

Women's Association

The Women's Association's 2022 Holiday Bazaar will be held in November. Do you have donations? We gladly accept artwork, collectibles, new and gently used clothing, handbags, accessories and other items for this annual Joy of Christmas Bazaar. (No books, pots and pans, toys or electronics, please.) You may leave your items at the front desk at the 55th Street entrance. Future Women's Association programs will resume in the fall.

Have You Donated to the Kitchen Campaign?

The Kitchen Campaign is more than halfway toward its fundraising goal of $520,000. But we still have a way to go to bring this vital center of ministry into good repair.

Our kitchen is integral to our service to the homebound elderly of Midtown and our neighbors on the streets, as well as the church community. The planned renovation in Bonnell Hall calls for new appliances and flooring, plumbing and electrical upgrades, and improved fire safety. Any contribution you can make to this important initiative will make a difference!

To donate online, visit fapc.org/kitchen and click the Donate Here button. You may also mail a check earmarked to the Kitchen Campaign to the business office, or call Richard Schexnider, director of finance, at 212.247.0490 ext 3044.

Thank you for your generous support!
