SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

JULY 24, 2022 • 10:00 AM

This Is God's House. All Are Welcome.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

---

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, gathered in the Sanctuary and online, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy or someone at our Welcome Table. We have lots of programs and community groups to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

Connect with Us

We invite you to look for the Connect Card in your pew (or ask an usher if you do not find it). You can submit it online using the QR code, or fill it out and place into the offering plate or hand it to an usher. Also, visit the Welcome Table just inside the Fifth Avenue entrance, where our volunteers will be happy to provide information on all of our ministries and programs.

Large-Print Bulletins

Please speak with an usher if you would like to use a large-print bulletin to follow the service.

Families with Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are free to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9:30 am until 11:30 am in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

Worship Resources Online

A replay of today’s service will be available this afternoon at fapc.org/playback. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray. Details about the upcoming service each week can be found at fapc.org/this-sunday. For information about future worship services, visit fapc.org/worship.

Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

We recommend that all who worship with us in person be vaccinated (and boosted) against Covid-19. If you are experiencing cold or flu symptoms, please stay home and worship with us via livestream. You will find the livestream service every week at fapc.org/live.

We provide mask-required and mask-optional seating areas in the Sanctuary.
Please ask an usher if you have questions.

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you

SOLO

Prayer of a Tired Child, op. 75, no. 4 • Amy Beach (1867–1944)

Our Father, hear a tired child
Who has forgot her prayer,
And cannot find the words of it,
Which wander ev'rywhere.
You used to carry in your arms
The lambkins dumb and white,
Who had grown weary of their play,
And stumbled in the night.
I also am your little lamb,
Who has no word to pray.
Dear Father, will you bear me too
Along the darkling way?

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Luke 15:1-2, 11b-32

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them."

Then Jesus said, "There was a man who had two sons. The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.' So he divided his property between them. A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living. When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything. But when he came to himself he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands.”’ So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him. Then the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ But the father said to his slaves, ‘Quickly, bring out a robe—the best one—and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!’ And they began to celebrate. “Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing. He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on. He replied, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.’ Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him. But he answered his father, ‘Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!’ Then the father said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.’”

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
 All: Thanks be to God.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.

Praise the Lord all the earth!

The round world and all they that dwell there.

Mountains, clap your hands for joy.
Let the fields laugh and sing with waving corn,
and let all the trees of the forest be joyful!

WORSHIP NOTES

The American pianist and composer Amy Beach was a trailblazer in classical music. During the latter-half of the 19th century, most of the greatest musicians received their education from European masters; however, Beach received her education in New Hampshire, her home state, and in Boston. Her Gaelic Symphony, the first symphony composed and published by an American woman, was premiered by the Boston Symphony Orchestra in 1896. Later in life, she moved to New York City and attended St. Bartholomew's Church, just a few blocks from Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Her compositional output was prolific: a symphony, a piano concerto, a piano quintet, numerous small character pieces for piano, a mass and numerous songs, among many other works. Her keyboard writing has been described as “Lisztian,” evoking the style of Franz Liszt, who was known for writing incredibly complex and captivating music. If her piano writing is any indication of her technical abilities, she, too, possessed a technique that only a handful of pianists in history has enjoyed. Her song, “Prayer of a Tired Child,” is the fourth and final song of her opus 75 set, composed in 1914.

Antonín Dvořák was a Czech composer who often incorporated folk songs in his music. With nationalism on the rise in the 19th century, many composers incorporated their national styles—whether it was folk songs or rhythmic motifs—into their music. A devout Catholic, Dvořák wrote several large-scale religious works, including a setting of Stabat Mater, a mass, a setting of the Te Deum and a requiem.

His song cycle, Ten Biblical Songs, op. 99, is a collection of smaller religious works for voice and piano, and contains this morning’s excerpt, “Sing Ye a Joyful Song.” This collection was written during a period of personal loss: Dvořák suffered the passing of his father, as well as the death of his close friend and conductor, Hans von Bülow. Regarding the collection, the Czech operatic soprano Eva Urbanová said, “Even if Dvořák had only written (the) Biblical Songs and nothing else, it would not have mattered. Whenever I get the chance to sing them, I feel like I am in heaven.”
