

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

JANUARY 29, 2023 • 11:00 AM

Raphael, La Disputa, c. 1510

This Is God's House. All Are Welcome.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, gathered in the Sanctuary and online, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy or someone at our Welcome Table. We have lots of programs and community groups to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

New to Fifth Avenue?

Please fill out the welcome card you will find in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Welcome Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the welcome form online at fapc.org/welcome. Our friends at the Welcome Table can provide you with information about our ministries, programs and volunteer opportunities.

Large-Print Bulletins

Please speak with an usher if you would like to use a large-print bulletin to follow the service.

Families with Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are free to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am to 12:30 pm in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center.

Worship Resources Online

A replay of today’s service will be available this afternoon at fapc.org/playback. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray. Details about the upcoming service each week can be found at fapc.org/this-sunday. For information about future worship services, visit fapc.org/worship.

Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Please provide your mobile phone number or an email address to the staff person at the 55th Street reception desk. You will receive a QR code to use at the garage. (The garage no longer provides physical validation stickers.)

We recommend that all who worship with us in person be vaccinated (and boosted) against Covid-19. If you are experiencing cold or flu symptoms, please stay home and worship with us via livestream. You will find the livestream service every week at fapc.org/live.

We provide mask-required and mask-optional seating areas in the Sanctuary.
Please ask an usher if you have questions.

ANTHEM

If Ye Love Me • Thomas Tallis (1505–1585)
 Text: John 14:15-17

If ye love me, keep my commandments,
 And I will pray the Father,
 And he shall give you another Comforter,
 That he may abide with you forever,
 Ev'n the Spirit of truth.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Luke 9:46-56

An argument arose among them as to which one of them was the greatest. But Jesus, aware of their inner thoughts, took a little child and put it by his side, and said to them, "Whoever welcomes this child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me; for the least among all of you is the greatest." John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he does not follow with us." But Jesus said to him, "Do not stop him; for whoever is not against you is for you."

---

When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

WORSHIP NOTES

The composer of the Anthem this morning, Thomas Tallis (1505–1585), figures prominently in the history of English church music and is widely considered to be one of England's greatest early composers. Throughout his service to successive English monarchs as organist and composer, Tallis managed to avoid the religious controversies raging around him between Protestantism and Roman Catholicism (though, like William Byrd, Tallis remained an “unreformed Roman Catholic” throughout his life). Tallis was capable of switching the style of his compositions to suit the different monarchs' vastly different demands. During the reign of King Edward VI (1547–1553) it was mandated that all services be sung in English (as opposed to the traditional Latin), and that the choral music be brief and succinct, “to each syllable a plain and distinct note” so as to be easily understood. If Ye Love Me is an elegant example of this new style of English anthem: featuring a clear setting of the text and restrained emotion, the piece remains incredibly expressive and distinctly the voice of Tallis.

The second in our three-part series on the Israeli-Palestinian conflict takes place next Sunday at 7 pm on Zoom. Our Adult Education program is bringing together a diverse group of expert voices to discuss apartheid and anti-Semitism in the wake of the controversial statement adopted by the Presbyterian Church (USA) General Assembly last summer. Moderator of the discussion is the Rev. J.C. Austin, senior pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, and a former parish associate at Fifth Avenue. Details on the panelists, the General Assembly statement and online registration are all available at fapc.org/adult-ed. Our series concludes next Sunday, Feb. 5.

Register by Friday for the Chili Cook-Off

After a two-year Covid absence, the Chili Cook-Off is back! Sponsored by our Youth Group, the event brings some heat to a winter afternoon while raising funds to fight hunger. This year's cook-off will take place on Sunday, Feb. 12, at 12:30 pm in Bonnell Hall. Your $10 admission goes directly to A Place at the Table, our twice-weekly lunch program for homeless and hungry neighbors. Your admission also allows you to judge all of the chilis, prepared by individuals, families and teams. Perennial champions Eleanor and Mike Peters have moved to South Carolina, opening the field for a new champion! If you want to compete for the crown, you will find entry rules and registration at fapc.org/chili. Entries are due by this Friday (Feb. 3).

Facilities Update: Bonnell Hall + the Seventh Floor

The renovation of the kitchen facilities in Bonnell Hall, which we had planned to do in January, is on hold as we await necessary permits from the city. We now hope to begin the work in mid-February and complete it in early March. Coffee Hour and Meals on Heels will continue to take place in Bonnell Hall until the renovations get underway. Meanwhile, on the seventh floor, we decided not to renew the lease of our longtime tenants so that we could provide badly needed meeting space for our community groups, FAYA (Fifth Avenue Young Adults) and other ministries. We are preparing the space with fresh paint, new carpeting and other improvements and expect it to be available by late Spring.

Opportunities to Serve

Chapel Church, our 9:30 am worship service, needs two volunteers every week to distribute bulletins and name tags, and collect the offering. If you are willing to serve, look for the sign-up link at fapc.org/chapel-church. Outreach Ministries needs 15 to 20 volunteers for Game Day with Homeless Neighbors, coming up on Sunday, Feb. 26. We'll gather in Jones Auditorium for food, fun and fellowship. Sign up at fapc.org/volunteer. For details on all volunteer programs and upcoming events, visit fapc.org/volunteer.

Winter Concert: Presented Live & On Livestream

Tickets are available for To the Hands: Songs of Compassion, the winter concert from the Fifth Avenue Chamber Choir and Instrumentalists, set for 7 pm Friday, Feb. 10, in Kirkland Chapel and on livestream. The concert features a genre-defying selection of music that sings of the blessings and challenges of human connection. At the heart of the program, and the inspiration for the concert's title, is To the Hands, a modern-day masterpiece for choir and strings by the Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Caroline Shaw. Go to fapc.org/tickets to reserve your seats or to receive the livestream link.
