

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, "This Is God's House. All Are Welcome." We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God's kingdom. We don't all look or act alike; God knows we don't all think alike. We don't all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, gathered in the Sanctuary and online, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy or someone at our Welcome Table. We have lots of programs and community groups to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

ANTHEM

King of Glory • Chant, arr. Elmer Iseler (1927-1998)
 Text by George Herbert (1593-1632)

King of glory, king of peace, I will love thee;
 And that love may never cease, I will move thee.
 Thou hast granted my request, thou hast heard me;
 Thou didst note my working breast, thou hast spared me.

Wherefore with my utmost art I will sing thee;
 And the cream of all my heart I will bring thee;
 Though my sins against me cried, thou didst clear me;
 And alone when they replied, thou didst hear me.

Seven whole days, not one in seven, I will praise thee;
 In my heart, though not in heaven, I can raise thee.
 Small it is in this poor sort to enroll thee;
 E'en eternity's too short to extol thee.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

John 11:1-6, 11-27, 38-45

Trevor Illingworth and Jeanne Lehman French

Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair; her brother Lazarus was ill. So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, "Lord, he whom you love is ill." But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This illness does not lead to death; rather it is for God's glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

Accordingly, though Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus, after having heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was. After saying this, he told them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to awaken him." The disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be all right." Jesus, however, had been speaking about his death, but they thought that he was referring merely to sleep. Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. For your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." Thomas, who was called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away, and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world."

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Sarah A. Speed

"Glory"

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

One: We have seen God's glory:

All: In tulips after the snow,
small signs of resurrection.
In the stories of Scripture
and a God who knows our names.
In sunrise and sunset,
In crowded rooms and all alone.
We have seen God's glory.

One: And so we believe,
with hope and conviction,
that God is all around us.

All: We look for God's fingerprints,
for the sun, for glory. Amen.

* HYMN 653

Give Thanks to God Who Hears Our Cries (verses 1, 2, 3, & 6)

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Seminarian Veronica Ota

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.

CALL TO GIVE

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

My Shepherd Will Supply My Need • American folk hymn, arr. Mack Wilberg (b. 1955)

My Shepherd will supply my need; Jehovah is his Name;
In pastures fresh he makes me feed, beside the living stream.
He brings my wandering spirit back, when I forsake his ways,
And leads me for his mercy's sake, in paths of truth and grace.

When I walk through the shades of death, thy presence is my stay;
One word of thy supporting breath drives all my fears away.
Thy hand, in sight of all my foes, doth still my table spread;
My cup with blessings overflows, thine oil anoints my head.

The sure provisions of my God attend me all my days;
O may thy house be mine abode and all my work be praise!
There would I find a settled rest while others go and come,
No more a stranger, nor a guest; but like a child at home.

* DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

* OFFERTORY PRAYER

* HYMN 815

Give to the Winds Thy Fears

* BENEDICTION

Please remain in your pew until the conclusion of the Choral Response.

* CHORAL RESPONSE

A Celtic Prayer • Barry Peters, Text: Traditional

May the Christ who walks on wounded feet walk with you on the road.

May the Christ who serves with wounded hands stretch out your hands to serve.

May the Christ who loves with a wounded heart
open up your hearts to love.

May you see the face of Christ in everyone you meet,

And may everyone you meet see the face of Christ in you. Amen.

POSTLUDE

Dr. Ryan Jackson, William S. Perper Director of Music and Fine Arts Ministries

Dr. Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist • Max Tan and Valerie Kim, Violin

WORSHIP NOTES

This morning's Anthem is an arrangement of the ancient plainsong hymn Ubi caritas by the famous Canadian choral conductor Elmer Iseler. The melody of Ubi caritas, one of the oldest hymns in the Christian tradition, is a perfect fit for the beautiful poem by George Herbert, "King of Glory." Herbert wrote devotional verse throughout his life, but only after his death in 1633 were his poems published. Referring to his poetry in the ancient tradition as "song," Herbert used simple and common words, conversational speech rhythms, musical imagery, and witty, unexpected metaphors. His titles are short, sometimes direct, sometimes enigmatic, such as "Discipline," "Prayer" and "The Pulley." In his poetry, Herbert explores his vision of Christian life, "a picture of the many spiritual conflicts that have passed betwixt God and my soul." Today Herbert is considered, in the words of one critic, "one of the purest and most ravishing of English poets."

Easter Flower Fund

The Easter Flower Fund is an opportunity for you to honor loved ones who have passed away. Memorial donations help to cover the cost of the flowers that fill the Sanctuary on Easter morning. The names of those you honor appear in the Easter bulletin, and the flowers are delivered to homebound members following the service. A donation of $25 per honoree is suggested. Names must be submitted by Friday, March 31, to appear in the Easter bulletin. Submit your honoree name(s) and payment at fapc.org/flowers. Or contact Lisauri Marizan (congregationalcare@fapc.org, 212 247 0490 ext 3007).
