

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
JULY 16, 2023 • 10:00 AM

Jan Mostaert, The Expulsion of Hagar, ca. 1520 – 1525

This Is God's House. All Are Welcome.

Welcome to Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, gathered in the Sanctuary and online, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy or someone at our Welcome Table. We have lots of programs and community groups to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

➔ New to Fifth Avenue?

Please fill out the welcome card you will find in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Welcome Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the welcome form online at fapc.org/welcome. Our friends at the Welcome Table can provide you with information about our ministries, programs and volunteer opportunities.

➔ Large-Print Bulletins

Please speak with an usher if you would like to use a large-print bulletin or hymnal to follow the service.

➔ Families with Children

Children are always welcome in worship! You will find children’s Bibles in the first 10 rows of pews on the far north side of the Sanctuary. Ushers can also provide children’s bulletins and worship bags. If you need to leave the service to attend to your child, the ushers can direct you to the nearest changing table and livestream monitor. We provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9:30 to 11:30 am in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center.

➔ Worship Resources Online

A replay of today’s service will be available this afternoon at fapc.org/playback. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray. Details about the upcoming service each week can be found at fapc.org/this-sunday. For information about future worship services, visit fapc.org/worship.

➔ Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Please provide your mobile phone number or an email address to the staff person at the 55th Street reception desk. You will receive a QR code to use at the garage. (The garage no longer provides physical validation stickers.)

ORDER OF WORSHIP

As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.
Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.

PRELUDE

Salem Suite: I. Prelude for the Principal 8
Margaret Vardell Sandresky (b. 1921)

* CALL TO WORSHIP Deacon Arthur Wong

Psalms 124:8; 34:3

One: Our help is in the name of the Lord,

All: who made heaven and earth.

One: O praise the Lord with me.

All: Let us exalt God’s name together.

* HYMN 1

Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!

* CALL TO CONFESSION The Rev. Werner Ramirez

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

Silent Reflection and Confession

* PASSING OF THE PEACE

One: The peace of Christ be with you.
All: And also with you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Rev. Sarah A. Speed

SOLO

Hear My Prayer, O Lord, op. 99 no. 6
Antonín Dvořák (1841–1904)

Hear my prayer, O Lord,
Give ear unto my cry.
Thou art my refuge and my hope,
Thou shalt tread down my enemies.
I will dwell forever in thy tents
And hide me in the shadow of thy wings.
Lord! Thou art indeed my God,
Yea, I will seek thee early.
My soul is faint, my body longeth after thee
In a barren desert where there is no water.
Now I will bless thee daily and lift my hands in prayer and adoration;
Yea, my lips shall praise thee all my life long.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Genesis 12:1-3

Now the Lord said to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.”

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Laura Mendenhall

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

“Hagar, the Other Woman”

From A Brief Statement of Faith, Presbyterian Church (USA)

In a broken and fearful world

the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior,
to unmask idolatries in Church and culture,
to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
and to work with others for justice, freedom and peace.

In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit,

we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks and to live holy and joyful lives, even as we watch for God’s new heaven and new earth, praying, “Come, Lord Jesus!” Amen.

* HYMN 630

Fairest Lord Jesus

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Rev. Kate Dunn

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.

CALL TO GIVE

OFFERTORY SOLO

I Will Sing New Songs, op. 99 no. 5 • Antonín Dvořák

I will sing new songs of gladness,
I will sing Jehovah’s praises upon a ten-stringed-psaltery.
Every day will I extol thee and will bless thy Holy Name.
Great is God and great his mercy.
Who shall tell of all his greatness?
Who shall his power declare?
My song shall be of praise and honor,
And of thy glorious acts.
Thy works are wonderful, past our knowing.
Yea, men shall tell of thy great kindness
And of thy wondrous might,
And my voice shall proclaim aloud thy glory.

* DOXOLOGY	Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below; Praise God above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.
* OFFERTORY PRAYER
* HYMN 317	In Christ There Is No East or West
* BENEDICTION
POSTLUDE	Marche pour Sortie • Pierre Kunc (1865–1941)

The ministry of music this morning is offered by Dr. Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist • Julian Morris, Soloist

WORSHIP NOTES

Salem Suite is a collection of six pieces written to honor the restoration of the 1800 David Tannenberg pipe organ, an instrument of historic significance. This organ spent the majority of its life in Home Moravian Church in Winston-Salem, N.C. It served the church for just over a century. As years passed, however, it fell into disrepair. In 1910, the organ was dismantled and moved to the church's attic. Nearly one hundred years later, an effort to bring the Tannenberg organ back to life began. Between 2003–2004, the historically-minded Taylor and Boody organ builders of Staunton, VA, meticulously restored the instrument—the largest surviving Tannenberg organ—to its former glory. The organ, which consists of only 644 pipes (for comparison, FAPC's "Mighty Austin" contains nearly 7,000 pipes), now sits in an intimate recital hall in the Visitor Center of Old Salem Museum and Gardens, less than a mile from its original home. Margaret Vardell Sandresky, a resident of Winston-Salem with a prodigious background in the organ world, wrote Salem Suite to highlight individual stops on the Tannenberg instrument. Prelude for the Principal showcases the 8' Principal stop, a foundational tone that provides the backbone for organ registrations.

Antonín Dvořák was a Czech composer who often incorporated folk songs in his music. During the 19th century, nationalism was on the rise, and many composers incorporated their national styles—whether it was folk songs or rhythmic motifs, for example—into their music. A devout Catholic, he wrote several large-scale religious works, including a setting of "Stabat Mater," a mass, a setting of the "Te Deum," and a requiem. His song cycle, Ten Biblical Songs, op. 99, is a collection of smaller religious works for voice and piano, and contains this morning's excerpts, "Hear My Prayer, Lord," and "I Will Sing New Songs." This collection was written during a period of personal loss in his life: the passing of his father as well as the death of his close friend and conductor, Hans von Bülow. Regarding the collection, the Czech operatic soprano Eva Urbanová said, "Even if Dvořák had only written (the) 'Biblical Songs' and nothing else, it would not have mattered. Whenever I get the chance to sing them, I feel like I am in Heaven."

The postlude is by a lesser-known French composer, Pierre Kunc. Born in Toulouse, France, his musical training culminated at the Paris Conservatory, where he was an organ student of Eugène Gigout and composition student of Ernest Guiraud. His compositional output is small, but it would be a mistake to say that this composer remains obscure due to a lack of quality in his writing style. The Marche pour Sortie is an excellent example of the energetic and fiery sounds of the nineteenth-century French school of organ playing.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request that they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/prayer-requests.

Please pray for:

NEWS & EVENTS

Today: Welcoming the Rev. Dr. Laura Mendenhall

The Rev. Dr. Laura Mendenhall will be with us from today until Sunday, August 13. Laura is a Presbyterian pastor, a former seminary president, and a longtime Texan. In recent years, Laura and her husband, Chuck, also a Presbyterian minister, have connected with Fifth Avenue via our livestream. Laura is a gifted preacher and storyteller. During her time with us this summer, her sermons will focus on Biblical stories in which God’s redemptive love enters the lives of ordinary folks.

Sunday, July 23: Bagels and Bible Study

Calling all those in their 30s and 40s to join the Rev. Sarah Speed after worship for bagels and Bible study in the newly-opened Living Room on the 7th floor. All are welcome!

Sundays, July 23 – August 13: Summer Kids!

All kids in Preschool through 5th grade are invited to join us in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center for four Sundays this summer as we go on a roll with God in a Food Truck Party! We’ll discover God’s sustaining love in our lives through Bible stories, crafts, music, games, and science! On vacation for a couple of weeks? No problem! Kids don’t need to attend each week in order to have a great time. Parents are encouraged to take part in our 10 am worship service and then head out for brunch or a walk in Central Park until our program is finished. The cost for each day is just $10 and includes a pizza lunch! For more information, contact Jamie Staehle (familyministries@fapc.org).

Sunday, July 30: FAYA at the PLAYA!

Bring a bathing suit and a towel to church this morning, because FAYA will be headed to Brighton Beach right after worship. Contact: The Rev. Sarah A. Speed (youngadults@fapc.org).

Thursday, August 10: Thursday Night at the Food Court

Join FAYA after work for dinner at Urbanspace NYC, by Vanderbilt One and just north of Grand Central Terminal. Enjoy cuisines from all over the world, craft beer, and classic favorites, such as lobster rolls, burgers, and more. The food options are endless!

Thursday, August 17: Youth Day Trip to the Farminary

Join us as we head down to the Farminary, our mission partner near Princeton Theological Seminary. We’ll learn about how the land sustains food and we’ll help to harvest some of that food. If you’re lucky, you can eat a cherry tomato right off the vine! For more information, contact the Rev. Werner Ramirez (youth@fapc.org).

Sunday, September 10: Homecoming

Mark your calendars for our annual Homecoming worship and celebration!

This Fall: ‘Insight Trip’ to Egypt

Hands Along the Nile Development Services (HANDS), a Fifth Avenue mission partner, invites you to take part in a 12-day “insight trip” to Egypt, starting Nov. 5. Sponsored and led by HANDS staff, insight trips offer visitors a firsthand look at many of the ministries this congregation supports through our mission-partner relationship. Details are available at handsalongthenile.org/causes/insight-trips. Registration and down payment are due by July 25.

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. We offer classes in person, online and via podcast. All classes are free and open to all. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org/adult-ed.

Community Groups

Our community group ministry helps you find your circle within the larger circle of the church. Groups meet in person and online, joining members locally and from other parts of the country. The diversity of our community groups ensures that you will find the spot that's right for you. Learn more at fapc.org/community-groups, or contact Ashley Gonzalez, director of engagement (212.247.0490 ext 3005, membership@fapc.org).

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also visit fapc.org/care to submit a prayer request and learn more about our Congregational Care program. Or contact Lisauri Marizan (212.247.0490 ext 3007, congregationalcare@fapc.org).

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together families from diverse backgrounds to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. Our Little Lambs nursery for infants and toddlers is available every Sunday; our summer hours are from 9:30 to 11:30 am. Sunday School and Youth Group take place at 9:30 am during the program year (September through May). Children depart the 11 am worship service to attend Children's Church every Sunday (except for our summer break, from June 25 until Homecoming). We also sponsor special events for families and kids throughout the year. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org/family. Contact: Jaime Staehle (212.247.0490 ext 3003, familyministries@fapc.org).

FAYA | Fifth Avenue Young Adults

FAYA is an open and affirming community for those in their 20s and 30s, led by the Rev. Sarah Speed. During the program year, we meet every Wednesday night for small groups, supper, Bible study and fellowship. Find out more about our weekly gatherings, monthly fellowship events and weekend retreats at fapc.org/faya or on Instagram @fapcfaya. Or contact Sarah (212.247.0490 ext 4037, youngadults@fapc.org). We'd love to get to know you!

Membership

When we say "All are welcome," we mean it. Whether you live in the neighborhood, or across the country, we welcome you to join our family of faith. Through our Believing and Belonging seminars, you explore what it means to be a part of the Christian church, the Presbyterian tradition and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Whether you're sure membership is right for you, or you're just beginning to wonder if this might be your spiritual home, we'd love to have you in an upcoming in-person or online class. Visit fapc.org/membership to register, or contact Ashley Gonzalez, director of engagement (212.247.0490 ext 3005, membership@fapc.org).

Music & Arts

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church is home to a versatile program of music and arts in our worship and community life that endeavors to inspire, challenge and comfort all who encounter it, and to provide opportunities to share our artistic gifts. In addition to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir and Chamber Choir, we offer the Fifth Avenue Community Choir for anyone who loves to sing. Visit fapc.org/choirs to learn more. The Arts & Our Faith Committee sponsors exhibitions of art, history and photography in the Chesnut Gallery, often featuring work by members of the congregation. Theatre Fellowship is a community of artists and artisans that promotes congregational fellowship through our shared love of the theater.

Outreach Ministries

Through our Outreach Ministries, hundreds of members and friends of the church are engaged in volunteering, advocacy and service. Our programs include our Befriending Ministry on behalf of our neighbors experiencing homelessness; the Ecumenical Outreach Partnership, a collaborative ministry with Saint Thomas Church and St. Patrick's Cathedral that serves the homeless population of Midtown; A Place at the Table, a twice-weekly sidewalk lunch for our homeless and hungry neighbors; and Meals on Heels, Saturday-morning meal preparation and delivery to homebound seniors. We also maintain mission partner relationships with local, national and international organizations. Our current mission partners are:

Church of Gethsemane	Parity
The Farminary Project	Search and Care
Garden of Hope	Urban Outreach Center NYC
Hands Along the Nile Development Services	WANA Community Resource Center
Holmes Camp and Retreat Center	West Side Federation for Senior and Supportive Housing
Ministry of Hope Lesotho
Mission co-workers in Madagascar, the Philippines
& the U.S.–Mexico border

To learn more, visit fapc.org/outreach, or contact Christine Boyle, director of outreach and missions (212.247.0490 ext 3006, outreach@fapc.org).

Volunteering

Volunteering is one of the most important ways we show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, prepare and deliver meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, lead tours for members and visitors, and work with the underserved of New York City. To learn more about our diverse volunteer opportunities, and how you can join in, visit fapc.org/volunteer.

Women's Association

The roots of the Women's Association date to 1810, shortly after the church was founded. Today we offer a year-round program of education, service, prayer and benevolence. The Women's Association Holiday Bazaar in early November supports the ministries of the church and other benevolences. We also host a Christmas Tea for the congregation each December. We welcome you to take part! Contact: Rita Arlen (212.247.0490 ext 3041, wassoc@fapc.org).
