

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

JULY 30, 2023 • 10:00 AM

Julius Schnorr von Carolsfeld, The Anointing of Jesus at Bethany, wood carving, 1860

This Is God's House. All Are Welcome.

Welcome to Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, gathered in the Sanctuary and online, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy or someone at our Welcome Table. We have lots of programs and community groups to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

➡ New to Fifth Avenue?

Please fill out the welcome card you will find in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Welcome Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the welcome form online at fapc.org/welcome. Our friends at the Welcome Table can provide you with information about our ministries, programs and volunteer opportunities.

➡ Large-Print Bulletins

Please speak with an usher if you would like to use a large-print bulletin or hymnal to follow the service.

➡ Families with Children

Children are always welcome in worship! You will find children’s Bibles in the first 10 rows of pews on the far north side of the Sanctuary. Ushers can also provide children’s bulletins and worship bags. If you need to leave the service to attend to your child, the ushers can direct you to the nearest changing table and livestream monitor. We provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9:30 to 11:30 am in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center.

➡ Worship Resources Online

A replay of today’s service will be available this afternoon at fapc.org/playback. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray. Details about the upcoming service each week can be found at fapc.org/this-sunday. For information about future worship services, visit fapc.org/worship.

➡ Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Please provide your mobile phone number or an email address to the staff person at the 55th Street reception desk. You will receive a QR code to use at the garage. (The garage no longer provides physical validation stickers.)

There Is a Balm in Gilead • Traditional, arr. Mark Hayes (b. 1953)

Refrain

There is a Balm in Gilead
To make the wounded whole,
There is a Balm in Gilead
To heal the sin-sick soul.

Sometimes I feel discouraged and think my work's in vain,
But then the Holy Spirit revives my soul again.

If you cannot preach like Peter; if you cannot pray like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus and say He died for all.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Mark 14:1-11

It was two days before the Passover and the festival of Unleavened Bread. The chief priests and the scribes were looking for a way to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him; for they said, “Not during the festival, or there may be a riot among the people.”

While he was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment of nard, and she broke open the jar and poured the ointment on his head. But some were there who said to one another in anger, “Why was the ointment wasted in this way? For this ointment could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and the money given to the poor.” And they scolded her. But Jesus said, “Let her alone; why do you trouble her? She has performed a good service for me. For you always have the poor with you, and you can show kindness to them whenever you wish; but you will not always have me. She has done what she could; she has anointed my body beforehand for its burial. Truly I tell you, wherever the good news is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will be told in remembrance of her.”

Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went to the chief priests in order to betray him to them. When they heard it, they were greatly pleased, and promised to give him money. So he began to look for an opportunity to betray him.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Laura Mendenhall

“The Nameless Woman Who Will Always Be Remembered”

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Heidelberg Catechism

One: What is your only comfort, in life and in death?
All: That I belong—body and soul, in life and in death—
not to myself but to my faithful Savior,
Jesus Christ, who at the cost of his own blood
has fully paid for all my sins
and has completely freed me
from the dominion of the devil;
that he protects me so well
that without the will of my Father in heaven
not a hair can fall from my head;
indeed, that everything must fit his purpose
for my salvation.
Therefore, by his Holy Spirit,
he also assures me of eternal life,
and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready
from now on to live for him. Amen.

* HYMN 324

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.

WORSHIP NOTES

Margaret Bonds was one of the first African American composers and performers to gain recognition in the United States. A native of Chicago, Bonds showed an early aptitude for composition (she wrote her first work at the age of five!) and began piano lessons with her mother as a young child. While still in school, she studied composition with William Dawson who is still highly regarded today for his definitive solo settings of African American Spirituals.

Following her high school graduation, Bonds became one of only a few African American students at Northwestern University. Her song “Sea-Ghost” won a Wanamaker Award in 1932, and two years later, at the age of 21, she graduated with bachelor’s and master’s degrees in music. For several years she performed as a pianist with numerous local organizations, appearing in 1933 with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and performing Florence Price’s piano concerto with the Women’s Symphony Orchestra of Chicago the following year. In 1939, Bonds moved to New York City where she undertook further study in piano and composition at the Juilliard School. She also sought lessons with the famed French music teacher Nadia Boulanger. Boulanger reportedly reviewed one of Bonds’s works and felt that Bonds needed no further instruction and would not teach her. The work that Bonds showed Boulanger was “The Negro Speaks of Rivers,” a setting for voice and piano of a poem by Langston Hughes. Hughes and Bonds were great friends, and she set much of his work to music.

In addition to her musical studies, Bonds continued to take in piano students and perform, gaining work with several major orchestras. At the same time, she formed the Margaret Bonds Chamber Society, a group of black musicians who performed and promoted the work of African American classical composers. Bonds lived in Harlem where she helped to establish a Cultural Community Center and served as the minister of music at a church in the area. In 1965, at the time of the Freedom March in Montgomery, Alabama, Bonds wrote Montgomery Variations for orchestra and dedicated the piece to Martin Luther King, Jr. Two years later, she moved to Los Angeles to teach music at the Los Angeles Inner City Institute and at the Inner City Cultural Center. Zubin Mehta and the Los Angeles Philharmonic premiered her Credo for chorus and orchestra in 1972. Sadly, Bonds died unexpectedly a few months later, shortly after her 59th birthday.

Today’s Offertory Solo, Bonds’ simple yet radiant setting of “He’s Got the Whole World in His Hands” has been performed and recorded many times since its composition in 1963, by such great artists as Leontyne Price, Jessye Norman, and Kathleen Battle.

The Rev. Dr. Laura Mendenhall will be with us this summer until Sunday, Aug. 13. Laura is a Presbyterian pastor, a former seminary president, and a longtime Texan. In recent years, Laura and her husband, Chuck, also a Presbyterian minister, have connected with Fifth Avenue via our livestream. Laura is a gifted preacher and storyteller.
