This Is God's House. All Are Welcome.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy or someone at our Welcome Table. We have tons of programs and community groups to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

Connect with Us

We invite you to look for the Connect Card in your pew (or ask an usher if you do not find it). You can submit it online using the QR code, or fill it out and place into the offering plate or hand it to an usher. Also, visit the Welcome Table just inside the Fifth Avenue entrance, where our volunteers will be happy to provide information on all of our ministries and programs.

Large-Print Bulletins

Please speak with an usher if you would like to use a large-print bulletin to follow the service.

Families with Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are free to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, but you may want to take advantage of the first 10 rows on the far north side, which we have equipped for families with young children. You will find children’s Bibles and children’s worship bulletins in the pews, as well as easy access to our Family Room, located just outside the Sanctuary. We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9:30 am until 11:30 am in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org.

Worship Resources Online

A replay of today’s service will be available this afternoon at fapc.org/worship. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray. Details about the upcoming service each week can be found at fapc.org/this-sunday. For information about future worship services, visit fapc.org/worship/calendar.

Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park for up to three hours, seven days a week. Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street reception desk.

We recommend that all who worship with us in person be vaccinated (and boosted) against Covid-19. If you are experiencing cold or flu symptoms, please stay home and worship with us via livestream. You will find the livestream service every week at fapc.org/worship.

We provide mask-required and mask-optional seating areas in the Sanctuary.
Please ask an usher if you have questions.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SOLO

There Is a Balm in Gilead • Traditional, arr. Mark Hayes (b. 1953)

Refrain
 There is a Balm in Gilead
 To make the wounded whole,
 There is a Balm in Gilead
 To heal the sin-sick soul.

Sometimes I feel discouraged and think my work's in vain,
 But then the Holy Spirit revives my soul again.

Refrain
 If you cannot preach like Peter; if you cannot pray like Paul,
 You can tell the love of Jesus and say he died for all.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

2 Kings 5:1-14

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favor with his master, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy." So Naaman went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said. And the king of Aram said, "Go then, and I will send along a letter to the king of Israel." He went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten sets of garments. He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you my servant Naaman, that you may cure him of his leprosy." When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me." But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel."

So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean." But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage. But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean?'" So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

"Bathing in Muddy Water"

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

From The Study Catechism, Presbyterian Church (USA)

One: What difference does your faith in God's providence make when you struggle against bitterness and despair?

All: When I suffer harm or adversity,
my faith in God's providence upholds me
against bitterness and despair.

It reminds me when hope disappears that my heartache and pain are contained by a larger purpose and a higher power than I can presently discern.

Even in grief, shame and loss,
I can still cry out to God in lament,
waiting on God to supply my needs,
and to bring me healing and comfort. Amen.

OFFERTORY SOLO

The Lord's Prayer • Albert Hay Malotte (1895–1964)

Our Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
In earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation;
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

INVITATION TO THE LORD'S TABLE

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Holy God, we praise you.

Let the heavens be joyful, and the earth be glad.

We bless you for creating the whole world, for your promises to your people Israel,
and for Jesus Christ, in whom your fullness dwells.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of the Bless - ed is he who comes in the pow - er and might, Heav'n and earth are name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Born of Mary, he shares our life. Eating with sinners, he welcomes us.

Guiding his children, he leads us. Visiting the sick, he heals us.

Dying on the cross, he saves us. Rising from the dead, he gives new life.

Living with you, he prays for us. Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died; Christ is ris - en; Christ will come a - gain.
Christ has died; Christ is ris - en; Christ will come a - gain.

With thanksgiving we take this bread and this cup and proclaim the death and resurrection of our Lord.

Receive our sacrifice of praise.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us, that this meal may be a communion in the body and blood of our Lord.

Make us one with Christ and with all who share this feast.

Unite us in faith, encourage us with hope, inspire us to love,

that we may serve as your faithful disciples until we feast at your table in glory.

We praise you, eternal God, through Christ your Word made flesh, in the holy and life-giving Spirit, now and forever.

WORSHIP NOTES

Today's festive Postlude is played in commemoration of the July 4th holiday. Carl Maria von Weber was one of the finest German composers of his time, along with other such luminaries as Ludwig van Beethoven and Franz Schubert. A composer of many operas and standalone overtures, Weber often composed in a lighthearted, comedic style. His Jubilee Overture is no exception, featuring spritely melodies and passages that sparkle with good humor. The Jubilee Overture was originally written for full orchestra; the version being played this morning was masterfully transcribed for organ by W. T. Best, an organist who was highly regarded throughout his career for his virtuosic arrangements and dazzling performances. The practice of arranging orchestral music for organ was extremely popular in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, as it allowed the public more economical access to great music in the days prior to recordings. Weber cleverly builds the excitement in his overture to a thrilling and dramatic statement of the work's "big tune," "God Save the Queen," which is better known to U.S. citizens as "America," or, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." This melodic statement is played on the regal "Tuba" stops of the organ and brings the overture to a majestic, heroic conclusion.

Have You Donated to the Kitchen Campaign?

The Kitchen Campaign is more than halfway toward its fundraising goal of $520,000. But we still have a way to go to bring this vital center of ministry into good repair. Our kitchen is integral to our service to the homebound elderly of Midtown, our neighbors on the streets and our own church community. The planned renovation in Bonnell Hall calls for new appliances and flooring, plumbing and electrical upgrades, and improved fire safety. Any contribution you can make to this important initiative will make a difference! To donate online, visit fapc.org/kitchen and click the Donate Here button. You may also mail a check earmarked to the Kitchen Campaign to the business office, or call Richard Schexnider, director of finance, at 212.247.0490 ext 3044. Thank you for your generous support!

Dr. Jelks is a professor of African and African American Studies and American Studies at the University of Kansas, and a friend and colleague of our associate pastor emeritus the Rev. Dr. Oscar McCloud. His book, written as a series of letters to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., addresses economic inequality, police brutality and other social issues.

Staff Update: Communications & Development

After two years as our director of communications & development, Kellie Picallo has left the church to begin a much-deserved sabbatical. During her tenure, Kellie led the church’s entry into livestreaming and shifted a large share of our program content to a video format. She also led two annual pledge campaigns to successful conclusions. We thank her for her service to the church. Tim Palmer Curl has returned to the staff on an interim basis as we begin the search for our next director of communications and development.

Our signature suite of Outreach programs includes: Homelessness and the David B. Skinner Shelter, Meals on Heels, the Ecumenical Outreach Partnership, A Place at the Table and Mission Partners. Members from across the church landscape participate in Outreach and Missions' events, volunteer their time and talents, and offer their leadership on various program committees to ensure that vulnerable and in need populations are supported by Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. To learn more about Outreach and Missions, or to volunteer with our two feeding ministries, Meals on Heels or A Place at the Table, please email outreach@fapc.org.

Volunteering

Volunteering is one of the most important ways we show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, prepare and deliver meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, lead tours for members and visitors, and work with the underserved of New York City. Welcome to Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.
It can take a bit of effort and courage to walk through the doors of a new church, so let us be the first to say,
we are so glad you're here.

Fifth Avenue looks and feels like a big church, and it is, but this community is also a family. We are a family that longs to learn your name and form lasting relationships! So, while you are here, if you have any questions, don't hesitate to reach out to an usher (dressed in black with a white flower on their lapel) or a member of the staff. We'd be delighted to meet you. Additionally, we encourage you to check out our website, our social media, and the program information listed in this bulletin. We have everything from Bible studies to service trips, community groups, book clubs, and more for every age and stage of life.

Rev. Sarah Speed and Ashley Gonzalez are leading a new member's class called Believing and Belonging. This membership class explores what it means to worship, serve, and be a part of the community at Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. If you are interested in attending, we would love to have you. Please know that participation in this class does not mean you have to become a member. The class is for all people, both local and those who worship remotely. So, wherever you are on your faith journey, you are welcome! The upcoming dates are July 10 and 17 online or Oct. 9 and 16 in person.

Welcome to the family. We're so glad you're here.
Come back and see us soon.

With joy,

Rev. Sarah Speed, Associate Pastor for Young Adults & Membership
Ashley Gonzalez, Director of Engagement
